THE GRIM REAPER.

MR. JOSEPH EDWARDS.

Mr. Joseph Edwards one of our oldest and most prominent citizens died suddenly on Tuesday night at twelve o'clock, of acute indigestion, aged 76 years. Mr. Edwards ate a hearty dinner and supper Tuesday which brought on the attack. The deceased was one of the best-known men in this county. For many years he was engaged in the harness business which he conducted successfully in the store adjoining his home on High street. Mr. Edwards' health had been poor for sometime, and his eyesight had recently become impaired to such an extent, as to render him almost totally blind. The deceased was a well-informed man upon all subjects, but especially upon the history of his own country, upon which he was ever ready to converse entertainingly. He is survived by a widow who was before marriage Miss Amanda Usilton, daughter of the late Joseph Usilton, one of the most prominent men in this county in his day. The deceased's only son died some years ago, leaving a widow and five children. Funeral services were held from his late residence on High street yesterday afternoon conducted by Rev. G. A. Morris. Interment was made in the family lot in Chester Cemetery. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Joseph R. Jefferson, Jesse H. Usilton, Samuel Vannort, Walter T. Morris and Walter U. Lusby.

MRS. SARAH HENRIETTA CRANE.

Mrs. Sarah Henrietta Crane, widow of Dr. William Bowers Crane, formerly of this town and county, died on Thursday morning at her home, 237 W. Lanvale St., Balto., after a lingering illness. Her husband practiced his profession for years in this county, where he was held in the highest esteem. Mrs. Crane was the daughter of the late Samuel Groom Osborne, a descendant of Sir Edward Osborne, from whom the former Duke of Leeds was also decended. Mr. Osborne lived in Millington, and founded the Mallalieu Mills. Mrs. Crane's mother before her marriage was Miss Katherine Cacy, of this county. Mrs. Crane is survived by four children: Miss Florence Hynson Crane, Miss Alice Lorraine Crane, Miss Henrietta Osborne Crane, all of Baltimore, and Mr. Wm. C. Crane, of Anne Arundel county. Four grandchildren also survive, and there are a number of relatives and close friends of the family in this county. Funeral services were held from her late residence, 237 W. Lanvale street, yesterday afternoon at four o'clock with interment in Druid Ridge cemetery.

MR. WALTER B. WALLACE.

The remains of Mr. Walter B. Wallace, who died in Sarasota, Florida, on Thursday of last week, were taken to Middletown, Del., on Monday enroute for Warwick, where interment was made. The deceased was formerly a resident of Warwick.

Baltimore will be the next meeting place of the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church if the plans and efforts of the ministers of that denomination in that city succeed. At the weekly meeting of the ministers Monday in the rooms of the Methodist Protestant Book Concern, 316 North Charles street, Baltimore, it was decided to present to the executive committee of the conference, which meets the first week in July at Atlantic City, an invitation to hold the conference in this city. About 200 representatives from different sections of the country are expected to attend. It will be held in May, 1912. The Baltimore ministers feel confident of securing the meeting, at which many important topics will be discussed.

The National Christian Endeavor Convention will be held in Atlantic City, July 6-12.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of my dear sister, Caddie Starkey Whittington, the daughter of John P. and Ella Starkey, of Templeville, and the wife of W. O. Whittington, of Clayton, Del.

Day by day we saw her fade,
And slowly fade away,
Yet in our hearts we often prayed
That she might longer stay.
Nobly at her post she stood,
Our daughter kind and true,
Beloved by all her friends so well
And kind to all she knew.
Tears within her mother's eyes,
The father's breaking heart,
Can only tell the agony,
How hard it is to part.
Dear sister how can we give you up
It seems to us unjust
To lay you in the cold damp place,
To mother in the dust.
Farewell, dear Caddie, thou art at rest
And shall forever be.
You could not stay on earth with us,
But we can come to thee.
In the Golden of Heaven's gymnasiary,
In her Father's house we know
Your home has laid our darling Caddie
Dear, we miss and mourn for you.
But I know the angels gently
Bore your spirit to the shore
Where you meet the loved ones gone before,
Where, with the blessed, for evermore.

By Ella Starkey, Aunt.
