THE GRIM REAPER.

DR. CHARLES P. GILPIN.

Dr. Charles P. Gilpin, one of our dentists, died at the home of his sister, near Elkton, on Wednesday morning of bright's disease, aged 54 years. The deceased was born on the home farm near Elkton, but about 25 years ago removed to Chestertown and engaged in the practice of his profession. He enjoyed a large practice, and had a host of friends here and in Cecil county. Dr. Gilpin was one of the most companionable men. Of genial manner and a fine sense of justice, he made friends and kept them by the power of his strong personality and warm heart. He had a due regard for the opinion of others, and he was broadminded and of liberal views in his relations with his fellowman. Dr. Gilpin's condition became serious about two weeks ago, when he was removed to the home of his sister, near Elkton, having been accompanied by Mr. Thomas Massey, who had apartments with the deceased. Few knew of the seriousness of his condition, and the news of his death cast a gloom over the town, for he was highly esteemed here. He was interested in everything that pertained to the welfare of the town, and though never aggressive in his manner, his influence was a factor in whatever he was associated with. He was a member af the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College, and was zealous in his interest in its behalf. Dr. Gilpin was also a member of Chester Camp, No. 8745, Modern Woodmen of America, carrying an insurance of $2000, made payable to his sister, Miss Margaret A. Gilpin. He leaves four brothers and one sister—William R., Henry H., John David and Miss Margaret A. Gilpin, all of Elkton.

Joseph E. George died at his home, Sudlersville, Queen Anne's county, at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mr. George was one of the largest landowners in Queen Anne's county. From 1870 until 1881 he carried on the grain business in connection with the fertilizer business, at the same time dealing in coal and all kinds of farm implements. The prosperity that came to him is the result of his able management of affairs.

Mr. George was born in the First district of Queen Anne's county on January 1, 1830. He received his education in Sudlersville Academy and the Newark (Del.) College. When 21 years of age he took charge of the farm he had lived on since seven years of age, and there he remained for 10 years, after which he engaged in the mercantile business in Sudlersville for two years and a half. He then purchased a farm east of Sudlersville, and to the cultivation of its 300 acres he gave his attention until 1867, when he returned to his former home, the place of his boyhood days. In December, 1855, he married Martha L., daughter of Joseph Neal, of Sussex county, Del. They had five children, of whom Joseph, the eldest, is deceased; Martha is the wife of Wm. D. Rowe, a farmer and grain merchant of Barclay; John E. resides in Sudlersville, is the recognized leader of the Democratic party in Queen Anne's, and at present holds the office of automobile commissioner of the State of Maryland; Annie is the wife of James Merrick, Jr., a farmer of the First district; Edwin is at home.

In 1872 Mr. George was elected county commissioner for a term of two years. He was chosen judge of the Orphans' Court to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James R. Sudler, and held that office for two years. Since 1878 he had been a director of the Centreville National Bank. He was also a director of the Sudlersville Savings Bank. In politics he was a Democrat, and in religious belief he had been identified with the Protestant Episcopal Church since 1873, being one of the vestrymen of St. Luke's parish. Mr. George was one of the largest landowners on the Eastern Shore, owning forty fine farms, a number of which are located in Kent county. Funeral services were held on Tuesday and were attended by a great concourse of relatives and friends of the deceased.
