ANDREW W. WOODALL.

Andrew W. Woodall, one of the most prominent and highly esteemed men in this county died at his beautiful home in Georgetown on Thursday morning after a long illness, aged 58 years. The deceased was the son of the late Capt. Andrew Woodall, and grew to manhood in this county. He was for many years a prominent commission merchant in Baltimore, but retired from the business several years ago, and removed to his beautiful home on the banks of the Sassafras, where he made a vain struggle against the ravages of disease. Mr. Woodall was one of our most active men in his days of health and strength. He was a Democrat in politics, and had always been actively engaged in politics and worked arduously for the welfare of his party. He leaves a large estate to his family. He was a brother of Capt. James E. Woodall, Jr., Mrs. Fletcher Wilson, Mrs. Richard Lockwood and Mrs. J. F. M. Woodall. He leaves a widow and four daughters. Funeral services will be held in St. Denis' Church, Galena, this (Saturday) morning at eleven o'clock. No cards in the county. Interment will be in the cemetery adjoining.
