DRAMA LEAGUE PRIZE PLAY CONTEST

Any AFRO Reader Can Compete For Rich Prizes Offered.

Increased interest in drama work for children emphasizes the great need of new material in this field. The Drama League therefore is anxious to encourage the writing of special plays suited to this purpose by offering, in addition to a prize of $100, the promise of publication and production. The department chairman has found that the biggest problem in work with children is the task of seeking attractive material written in accordance with high standards and the practical needs of the field. The need is for plays for graduation exercises, not too long, interesting, easy of production, adaptable to all kinds of stages. There will be a large use for such plays and an instant response from the field. There are however, certain very specific conditions to be met:

1. The plays must be suited to the use of children of the seventh, eighth and ninth grades of the junior high schools.

2. They should be about 50 or 60 minutes in length, but are not limited to any set number of acts.

3. They may be one-act or several acts and may even borrow characteristics of the pageant form, but must have some dialog and distinct dramatic form.

4. They may deal with any kind of material: fairy tale, historic and the like.

5. It is very desirable that great attention be paid to simplicity of setting, as the plays are for use in auditoriums where frequently there will be few facilities for production: one setting preferred; if possible the plays should be usable either in or out of doors.

6. The plays should be in complete dramatic form, full-written dialog, short speeches with direction for business and any necessary music. There must be a distinct climax and plenty of action. It is desirable to have a flexible number of actors so the play may be used for very large numbers or small classes. This can be done by the use of a moderate number of speaking characters, but many adjustable groups.

7. Any play submitted must be the original work of the contestants and must not have been already printed.

8. The contest is open to any person within the territory of the United States or the Dominion of Canada.

9. All manuscripts must be typewritten. The author's full name and address should be sent with the manuscript, but not on it. All possible care will be taken to preserve the manuscript, but to offset unavoidable accident it is suggested that authors do not send their only copy. Manuscripts will not be returned unless accompanied by stamped self-addressed envelope.

10. The winning plays will become the property of the Drama League. They will be copyrighted by the Drama League and all rights for professional performances reserved.

11. The Drama League wishes to make these plays available for the largest possible public use. Therefore no royalties will be charged for performances by amateurs.

12. The contest will close August 1, and decision will be announced January 1, 1926. The winning play will be immediately published in order to be available for commencement use, the same year. The League will secure publication on a royalty basis for at least two other plays if there are any sufficiently good.

Send plays to the Drama League of America, 59 East Van Buren street, Chicago, before August 1, 1925.

The AFRO publishes the above with the hope that some of our group, either amateur or professional, may enter the lists. Whether a prize is won or not the stimulating effect of the practice should attract entrants. Plays will be judged solely on their merit, so your chances are equal with all competitors.—Theatrical Editor.

ELKS' ELECTION THIS WEEK

Newark, N. J., Dec. 5.—With the election of officers of Pride of Newark Lodge No. 93, I. B. P. O. E. of W., to be held tomorrow evening at the Elks' home, 836 Washington street, interest in the election is at fever heat.

The different candidates expressing confidence in themselves as winners. The candidacy of Charles Ruffin is being conducted by Past Exalted Ruler and Past Grand Lecturing Knight, Alex Braithwaite, and is off to a good start. In discussing the, probable he stated to a reporter for this paper that it was impossible for his candidate to lose.

Equally as confident is Hon. John M. Stout, prominent local business man and Grand Secretary of B. P. O. Reindeers, that Ruffin will be elected. H. M. Neely, boss of Webster street, claims to have about 200 fraternal votes in his vest pocket at all times, and claims that all that is necessary for him to do is to come down Friday evening and cast one unanimous vote for Ruffin, but Mr. Clark J. Van Pelt, a very popular young man and employed in the U. S. Postal Service in this city, who represents the hopes and aspirations of the younger element of the lodge membership in this fraternal fight, believes that he has sufficient strength to land him safely in the Exalted Ruler's chair next election night.

Dr. A. A. Brown, prominent Chiropodist in thi scity, is also in the race and believes he has a chance, but the most confident of them all the candidates is the present Exalted Ruler, Dr. Thomas H. Wright, who is coming up for election solely on his record. He feels that his accomplishments in the past six months will be sufficient to put him over. In the case of Ruffin, Mr. Braithwait, who has a large following in the lodge and exerts great influence, is pitting all his strength in this fraternal fight in an effort to put Ruffin over.

McCALLUM-MULFORD WEDDING BRILLIANT

Newark, N. J., Dec. 5.—A wedding of social prominence took place last Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock at 41 Chestnut street, at the home of Mrs. Irene Mulford, when her daughter, Sara Wilhelmina, became the bride of Mr. Hinton James McCallum, of this city.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. A. Hubbard, pastor of St John's M. E. Church on Academy street. A reception and wedding reception followed at the bride's home. The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums and palms. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Charles W. Mulford. And she was attended by her cousin, Miss Lillian Davis, of New York City, as maid of honor, and Miss Daisy Mulford, niece of the bride, as bride's maid. Mr. Daniel C. McCallum, cousin of the groom, served as best man.

As the hour for the wedding ceremony approached the bride marched in to the strains of Mendolssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Francis Mulford, of Westfield. The bride wore a gown of gray chiffon velvet trimmed with gray fox and carried a bouquet of pink of bridal roses and lillies of the valley. The maid of honor's gown was also of gray chiffon velvet trimmed with gray fox and she carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. The bride's maid wore a gown of green flat crepe trimmed with gold lace and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents.

On the evening of November 28th, the Men's Club of St. John's M. E. Church, of which the bride and groom were members, gave the groom a surprise reception. A delicious repast was served, which was prepared by Mr. Eugene Gibson, an experienced caterer, at whose home the reception was given. After each member had said toast to the future happiness and health of the bridegroom and bride, they presented to him a beautiful floor lamp as expression of their good wishes. The bride, a Newark girl, having lived here all her life, very prominent socially and active in church and club work prior to the wedding, had given in her honor numerous showers and parties. The bridal party left late Saturday evening for points in North Carolina, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. McCallum will be at home January 1st, at No. 10 Marie place, this city.

Twenty-Second Annual Club Celebrates Its Anniversary

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 5.—The Twenty-second Annual Club, one of the most popular and active of the many such organizations of similar nature, celebrated the first birthday of the club on Monday evening last, at the new Elks' Home, 1613 Arctic avenue.

This brilliant affair was cleverly presided over by Mrs. Lucille Robinson. Mrs. Ida Brown, president and organizer of the club, was hostess and pleased the large number present with a few words. At the close she was presented with a large bouquet of flowers by Miss Mamie Waters on behalf of the club.

The musical program was varied one, consisting of many gems rendered in a manner that will long be remembered by those present. Solo by Mrs. Jennie Damphenior; recitation by Miss Lucy Josepher, and Miss Marion Holland, and music by Mme. Burris' orchestra were special features. After the program a dainty repast was served.

Five Hundred Parents Meet Teachers At Indiana School

The Indiana Avenue School on last Friday evening was the sceen of probably the most remarkable demonstration of parent-teacher understanding and co-operation ever witnessed in Atlantic City. Over 500 parents met personally 56 teachers of the Indiana and New Jersey Avenues schools. Following a brief general assembly in the auditorium the parents were directed to the class rooms of their children, where they were greeted by the teachers.

These groups meeting not only established a friendly personal contate between parents and teachers, but it also enabled the parents to enter into the real school life of their children. In many cases special class demonstrations had been arranged by the teachers for the benefit of the visiting parents. As a result of these group meetings it is confidently expected that a splendid impetus has been given to a remarkable joining of hands of the teachers and parents of these two schools for the purpose of vitalizing the educational and community life of the city.

Special features of the general meeting were the community singing conducted by Mrs. Gould, a beautiful solo rendered by Mrs. Damphenior, and the awarding of the banners for parents attendance, by W. Hibbard Smith, principal of the Indiana Avenue School awarded the banner for that school to Mrs. Bates's room, and of New Jersey Avenue School, awarded the banner for that school to Mrs. Dart's room. The invocation was offered by the Rev. Mr. Griffin.

Conservative League Host To Its Ladies Auxiliary

The Atlantic County Conservative League entertained in honor of their ladies' auxiliary a few evenings ago at their headquarters, 132 N. Delaware avenue. The affair was a brilliant one and certainly one of the most enjoyable ever given by this league. Invitations were sent to all the political clubs and leading citizens of the city and county. These showed their appreciation by the large number of their members who attended.

A spirit of harmony and good will prevailed throughout the evening. J. H. Kennedy was toastmaster, ably assisted by William Cheatham, and their skill in such capacity was never shown to better advantage. Several speeches were made, all praising the league for its work, especially its consistant policy in politics.

Among those present were: Judge William R. Page, county leader; Lawyer Dart, William G. Giles, attorney and broker, formerly of New York; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Associated Negro Press

Atlantic City, N.J. Dec. 5.—Howard Buck, locally know ag "Buck the Barber," committed suicide on an ingenious gallows improvised from a rope fire escape in his room at the Malatesta Hotel, North Carolina and Atlantic avenues. Smooth Hair In 5 Minutes
NO OILS, NO SOAP, NO IRONS—A SIMPLE HOME TREATMENT
While in the army I met a colored prince from the French possessions in Africa. He was of royal blood and spoke French, English and other languages and had beautiful silky, smooth hair. We became acquainted and I asked him what he used on his hair. He told me it was a family secret which had been used exclusively by his family for generations.
I did him a favor and he repaid me by giving me the recipe for this wonderful hair dressing so that I might pass it on to thousands of others. It is harmless, does not burn the hair, does not turn it red, does not make the hair slick and greasy looking, but makes it lay smooth, silky and pretty. No matter how short, or how long, how thick or how thin your hair may be, thousands now have long, straight, smooth, silky hair with a natural appearance.
A $1 JAR FREE—Just send us your name and address and put a $1.00 bill or money order in your letter and I will send you postpaid TWO $1 Jars of Bear Oil Hair Dressing. You pay for the one, the other is yours free to keep or sell to a friend. Take advantage of this offer today and convince yourself you too can have beautiful smooth hair. Remember your money back if you are not satisfied after the first treatment.
