IN MEMORIAM

HOOPER—In memory of Catherine Dixon Hooper, who departed this life one year ago, November 26, 1923.
'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart;
'Tis hard, so hard to speak the words,
"Must we forever part."
We cannot tell who next may fall,
Beneath the chastening rod.
One must be first, but let us all,
Prepare to meet our God.
BY MRS. INEZ TOLSON CREIGHTON, 830 George street.

JAMES—In loving remembrance of my dear mother, Epsia Wellons James, who died November 17, 1923.
One year has passed since that sad day,
When my dear mother was called away;
She was always patient, loving and kind
What a beautiful memory she left behind.
From this world of pain and sorrow,
To the land of peace and rest.
God has taken you, dear mother,
Where you have found eternal rest.
Every day brings back sweet memories,
Every memory brings a tear,
Deep within my heart I cherish,
Thoughts of you so dear!
BY HER LOVING DAUGHTER, CAROLYN B. GUY.

JENKINS—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear sister, Viola Jenkins, who departed this life March 2, 1924, nine months ago.
The clock of life is wound but once,
And no man has the power
To tell just when the hands will stop,
At a late or early hour.
HER DEVOTED BROTHER AND SISTER, LAWRENCE JENKINS AND SADIE WEST.

JONES—In sad, but loving remembrance of my dear mother, Annie Jones who departed this life two years ago, November 27, 1922.
No body knows my longing,
Few have seen me weep,
I shed my tears with an aching heart
While others are fast asleep.
BY HER DEVOTED DAUGHTER, LILLIAN.
Out in the lonely graveyard,
Down in the deep cold clay,
Lies my darling grandmother,
Two years ago today.
BY HER LOVING GRANDSON, JOHN FITCHETT.

LE CATO—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father and husband, George Henry LeCato, departed this life one year ago, the 23rd of November, 1923.
What happy days we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still;
But they have left an aching void,
This world can never fill.
The flowers we put upon your grave,
They wither and decay;
But our love for you, dear dad and husband,
Will never pass away.
BY HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

MILES-In sad, but loving remembrance of my dear husband, Thomas Henry Miles, who departed this life one year ago, December 2, 1923.
Although we cannot clasp your hands,
Your face we cannot see,
But let this little token show,
We still remember thee.
BY HIS DEVOTED WIFE, ELIZABETH MILES.

MAXFIELD—A tribute of love in memory of my dear mother, Mary V. Maxfield, who departed this life eleven years ago today, December 5, 1913.
There is a grave that is dear to me,
Over which no willow weeps;
But underneath that grassy sod,
My dear mother sleeps.
Oh, how sad is this day to me, dear mother,
The day on which you died;
And ever will memory cling to me,
Until I rest by your side.
But let me not think of you as dead,
Just waiting over yonder;
In that fair land with loving hands,
That "Sunshine Land" of wonder.
BY HER LOVING SON, JOHN T. MAXFIELD.

MILLER—In sadness and loving remembrance of my dear husband who departed this life 3 years ago today, December 1, 1922.
In my heart your memory lingers,
Tenderly, kind and true;
There is not a day, dear husband,
That I do not think of you.
BY HIS WIFE, MRS. SUSIE MILLER

PARKER—In loving remembrance of my dear mother, Eliza Parker, who died one year ago today, December 2, 1923.
Today recalls sad memories
Of a loved one gone to rest;
And the ones who think of her today
Are the ones who loved her best.
Nobody knows my longing
Few have seen me weep;
I shed my tears with an aching heart
While others are fast asleep.
HER LOVING DAUGHTER, PRISCILLA TOLIVER.

PAGE—In sad, but loving remembrance of our dear sister, Mabel Bunday Page, who departed this life five years ago, December 3, 1919.
Five years have passed our hearts still sore,
As time flies on we miss her more,
She sleeps, we leave her in peace to rest,
The parting was painful,
But God knows best.
You are not dead to us dear, sister,
But as a star unseen,
We feel that you are near us,
Though death intrudes between.
By her loving sisters and brothers.

JOHNSON—In loving tribute to the memory of Henry P. Jr., who was suddenly taken from us two years ago December 7, 1922.
For, Oh, that grave is dear to us!
No sweeping willow O'er it weeps,
But under neath that grassy mound,
Our darling Henry sleeps.
BY THE FAMILY.

HALL—In loving, but sad remembrance of our dear son and brother, Charles B. Hall, who died December 3, 1920.
Four years have passed since that sad day,
When our dear brother was called away,
He was always loving patient and kind,
What a beautiful memory he left behind.
From this world of pain and sorrow,
To the land of peace and rest.
God has taken our dear brother,
Where he has found eternal rest.
Loved in life, in death remembered
BY MOTHER, SISTERS AND BROTHER
The Flowers we lay upon your grave,
May whither and decay,
But the love for my dear uncle,
Will never pass away.
BY HIS NIECE MARGARET HONBAUGH.

SINGLETON—In sad but loving remembrance of Margaret Gray Singleton, who departed this life 8 years ago, December 6, 1906.
For the Lord who gave has called you,
To His will we all must bow,
You are free from pain and suffering,
Not a care can reach you now.
BY HER CHILDREN, MOTHER, SISTERS AND BROTHERS.

WILLIAMS—In sad, but loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, who departed this life Friday December 7th 1923.
Often when the days are brightest,
Then a gloom steals in my heart,
Then it brings sad remembrance,
Of the day we had to part.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly tenderly fond and true,
There is not a day dear husband,
That we do not think of you.
BY HIS DEVOTED WIFE, ADELLA V. WILLIAMS AND CHILDREN.

WHEELER—In loving remembrance of dear wife and mother, Eliza J. Wheeler, who died two years ago, November 29, 1922.
She has come to the end of her journey,
Her sickness and sorrows are o'er,
She has entered the beautiful city,
And dwells on the golden shore.
Now Jesus we pray that you help us
Tread in her footsteps so grand,
And finally, dear loving Saviour,
Let us meet in that heavenly land.
BY HER HUSBAND AND DAUGHTER, RICHARD H. WHEELER AND DRUCILLA HOOPER.

THIS IS WHAT YOU CAN DO WITH THE MONEY YOU ARE NOW GIVING AWAY FOR RENT
Think about this and how it effects you. Examine your own case to see if you are one of those many near-sighted people that are giving away the money with which they can buy their own home, year after year.
Yes?
Then come to see "MARSE" at once. Don't stop to be discouraged by some "wise nobody" who never will amount to anything, and you will be wiser than he.
