Washington Wins Big Game.

The big game of the season took place on Washington field last Saturday afternoon between the old rivals Washington and the farmers from Maryland Agricultural College, and resulted in an easy victory for Washington by the score of 17 to 5. It is generally conceded that Shipley's injury in the second quarter, when he received a bad cut on the forehead, which compelled him to retire from the game, greatly weakened the visitors, but not to such an extent as to prevent an easy victory by W. C. M. A. C. scored her only touchdown after regaining the ball on a long punt in the first quater, which aided by the wind, got away from the Washington back on his eight yard line and in two rushes M. A. C. carried the ball over.

Garrett, Biddle, Porter, Jamele, Jones and Lewis starred, while all the local team showed superior tactics to the visitors. Washington's points were won on straight football. This game will put Washington on edge now for the final game with St. John's in Baltimore, and all efforts will be exerted toward strengthening weak points. Here's hoping that we wallop St. John's.

Goldsborough Button Cures Glock—An election story attaches to the eight-day clock that adorns the Port Deposit postoffice. This clock stopped dead on the day the Democrats nominated Senator Gorman for Governor. On the Saturday preceeding the late election, George Coburn, of the National Bank, noticing the dead clock, remarked to Assistant Postmaster Vannort; "Vannort, why don't you hang a Goldsborough button on that clock? You say Goldsborough will make things go." "I'll do it," said Vannort, and, suiting the action to the word, hung a button on the pendulum. Ever since the clock has been running perfectly.

Undertaker Dies at Funeral.—James P. Cooper, aged 52 years, for a long time engaged in the undertaking business in Denton, and one of the Commissioners of Denton, died last Sunday of heart disease while conducting the funeral of Mrs. Wilmer B. Parker. After the service in East Denton he had started the line of carriages with himself and a colored man some distance ahead in his private carriage. Just as the procession was about to cross the river to the cemetery Mr. Cooper gasped and fell over unconscious. The colored man prevented his falling from the vehicle. Mr. Cooper was quickly driven home, but was dead before the house was reached.
