LOCAL MATTERS

First Concert.—The first concert in the winter series arranged by Mr. T. Kemp Bordley will be given by Mr. John C. Thomas and Mr. Walter C. Charmbury, the two gentlemen who gave such a pleasing entertainment in the M. E. Church, on Friday evening next, Nov. 24th. No use to say more. It will be fine. Don't miss it.

Interesting Debate.—Resolved that anticipation gives more pleasure than realization, was the subject of the debate in last Saturday night's meeting of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society. The subject was supported by Mr. L. H. Jones and Mr. W. L. Baldwin and denied by Mr. I. O. Ridgely and Mr. C. C. Reier. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

Brooks Charged With Murder.—Enoch Brooks, colored, who is alleged to have shot and fatally injured George Cooper, also colored, on Saturday night, November 4th, at a place between Clayton and Millington, was arrested on Tuesday night in Coatsville, Pa. He was taken to Clayton on Wednesday afternoon and arraigned before Magistrate Carey on the charge of murder.

Buys Stock.—Mr. D. Roth on Saturday purchased the Louis Deckleman stock of goods at public sale from Wm. W. Beck, trustee, for $500. We understand that Mr. Roth will continue the business until every article is sold at very low figures. The sale started yesterday, and will continue until every article is disposed of. Watch the big sign opposite the Voshell House.

Sells His Farm.—Mr. Joseph Everett, who resides on the Eliason farm near town, has sold the farm in Queen Annes which he purchased from the late W. E. B. Faithful, to J. Waters Russell, real estate broker. This farm contains 130 acres and Mr. Everett paid $7,000 for it. He sold it for $9,000. This is one of finest small farms in Queen Annes county.

Fine Donation.—A public spirited citizen of this town has donated to the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Department a fine Ajax Chemical fire engine. The engine has been shipped and will reach here shortly. This is a splendid act on the part of this public spirited gentleman, and we are quite sure his gift will be a most valuable acquisition to our fire apparatus.

Farmers' Train to Tour Shore.—A farmers' train in charge of Wesley Webb, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture of Delaware, and Dr. Richard S. Hill, director of Farmers' Institutes of Maryland, will tour the Eastern Shore November 20 to 25th. So far as Kent county is concerned, the train will be at Massey at 12 noon Nov. 20th, and at Still Pond station the same day at 3.25 P. M. Farmers should remember these dates and meet the train at the stations.

Wrecked in Storm.—The schooner Harriet E. Ford, bound from Wicomico river to Baltimore was wrecked on Love Point Bar, during the heavy gale on Sunday night. Two of the crew—Neil Green and John Berry, both colored, were drowned, and the captain escaped by clinging to the roof of the cabin which was washed ashore at Love Point. He was rescued by Mr. Bridden, who lives about a half mile from Love Point, and after being provided with dry clothing, he took the Love Point boat for his home in Baltimore. Captain Hopkins said it was the most thrilling experience he had ever had, and that he will not follow the water any more.

Good Place to Ship Poultry.—We call the attention of our readers this morning to the advertisement of Frank Hellerick & Co., the well-known wholesale commission merchants of Philadelphia. This is one of the most reliable firms in the business, and is fully able to take care of the interests of its patroms. Quite a number of our farmers and poultry raisers annually ship poultry to this firm, and they speak of the treatment they receive in the most complimentary terms. Mr. Emory Sudler, well-known in this and Queen Anne's counties, is a member of the firm, and this is a sufficient guarantee of its reliability. Give the firm your Thanksgiving and Christmas shipments as a trial.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

LEGG—DESHANE.

One of the prettiest weddings of the year took place at Shrewsbury Church on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 15th, at 2 o'clock, when Miss May Howard Deshane, of Black's, Md., became the bride of Mr. J. A. Legg, of Kent Island. The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of white and yellow chrysanthemums and pot plants. A large concourse of friends gathered to witness the impressive ceremony. At the appointed time, the organ, under the skillful fingers of Miss Gertie Dempsey, of Galena, pealed forth the familiar strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, and the fair bride-elect, leaning on the arm of her affianced, and preceded by the ushers, Messrs. J. M. Comegys, Jr., and W. C. Graves, entered the church and took their places in the chancel where they were met by the officiating clergy, Rev. W. A. Coale, of Earleville, and Rev. H. W. Robinson, rector of Shrewsbury Church. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. A. H. Deshane. The bride wore a handsome suit of dark blue broadcloth, with blue velvet togue and carried an arm bouquet of chrysanthemums tied with white satin ribbon. After the ceremony the happy couple were driven to the train amid showers of rice, old shoes and good wishes for a happy future. After the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Legg will be at home to their friend in their charming residence on Kent Island.

Wild Duck Supper.

Miss Edna Lewis entertained a few of her friends at a wild duck supper Sunday evening, at her home at Betterton, the occasion being Miss Edna's birthday. Covers were laid for ten, a feature of the occasion was the finding of the ring hidden in the cake the finder being Mr. John G. Breckinridge, of Philadelphia. Those present were: Miss Irene Crownhart, Baltimore, Md., Miss Ida Redgrave, Baltimore Md., Misses Grace and Myrtle Tull, Betterton, Md., Misses Blanche and Edna Lewis, Betterton, Md., and Messrs. Maxwell Meeks, Roger Harris, Rev. H. Clifton Owens, Betterton, Md. and John Glenn Breckinridge, Philadelphia, Pa.

NEWS GLEANINGS.

Mr. J. Hall Denny has rented Mr. Charles J. Reiche's house on Front street now occupied by Mrs. C. M. Clay.

Mr. J. Kennard Aldridge on the George farm, near town, killed a pen of fine hogs this week.

Mr. William French, son of Mr. James French, will tenant the Vickers home farm near town next year.

Mr. Wm. P. Milby, local station agent, has been transferred to his old post at Trappe, Md. He will leave next week.

Messrs. H. C. Willis and C. Romie Skirven have been enjoying a gunning trip to St. Mary's county during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Pippin quietly observed the 17th anniversary of their wedding at their home, Hotel Pippin, on Tuesday.

Mr. E. B. Pennington got an average of 85 bushels of corn to the acre this year. He had 28 acres in corn and husked 2400 bushels from the 28 acres.

Do not forget the rummage sale to be held in the Eliason building next Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Look up everything you don't want, and send it to the sale.

The Sunday school of St. Paul's Church will give an entertainment in Fairlee Grange Hall on Friday night, November 24th, at 8 o'clock. Go out and encourage the children.

For the benefit of the patrons we state that the cashier's office of the Diamond State Telephone Company has been removed to the office in the old TRANSCRIPT building formerly occupied by the Metropolitan Insurance Co.

If you see any one mistreating an animal, remember that the society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has a representative in this county in the person of Col. A. H. Suplee, of Betterton, who will respond to every call.

The season for gunning for rabbits and partridges in Queen Annes opened on Wednesday last. Kent countians are allowed to gun in Queen Annes on invitation of a land owner, on his land without license.

There was a drop in temperature of 50 degrees from Sunday to Monday morning, due to a nothwest storm. The thermometer on Monday morning registered 22° and everything was frozen tight, and the day before it was warm enough to go without overcoats.

A splendid and interesting matinee was held on Worton track last Saturday afternoon and notwithstanding the cold weather, the crowd was large and the racing good. The scene will be transferred to Rock Hall this afternoon, where a good card has been prepared.

The Moffett sale of fine horses, cattle and farm implemennts held last Friday was lagely attended and prices generally were very good. Mr. John Jester and Mr. Kinnear, of Baltimore, were the auctioneers. This sale was advertised exclusively in the TRANSCRIPT.

The beautiful play "Maggie Pepper" by Klein, has been successfully rendered in New York to crowded houses recently by Rose Stahl. It will be rendered in Firemen's Hall on Thursday evening, December 6th by Miss Mac Laren for the benefit of the Chestertown Public Library.

Dr. Sterling tells us that the little reference we made in our last issue to his poultry food—"Egg a Day"—sold him 200 lbs. on Saturday. The TRANSCRIPT works just like Egg a Day—it lays money right at the feet of our advertisers, because the Tranecript takes care of their interests.

The steamer Susquehanna of the Tolchester Company has just been overhauled in her machinery and boilers preparatory for the winter work. The Tolchester Company has also contracted for two new steel boilers for the steamer Louise at a cost of $15,000, to be installed in the spring ready for next summer's business.

Are you going on the Football Excursion to Baltimore next Saturday with the Washington College team to see them trim St. John's? The B. S. Ford has been chartered to leave here at 6.30 A. M., give plenty of time for shopping, seeing the game and attending the moving pictures, and leaving Baltimore about eleven o'clock. This will be a good trip for you. Game will be played at Oriole Park.

While enroute from Betterton in an automobile on Sunday evening, Mr. Carter, of the Sides garage, and several companions ran into a tree that had been blown accross the road during the heavy wind storm. The rain and mud had so obstructed the headlights that it was impossible to see anything ahead. Fortunately they were moving slowly, and no damage resulted save a smashed headlight.

Mr. Walter H. Hadaway was quite painfully injured on Monday morning. While feeding his hogs, one of the herd ran into him, striking him a hard blow on the leg. He was laid up several days from the encounter. Friend Walter, steer shy of the hogs, you'll be needed for another scrap soon, and we don't want the pigtails to get the better of you.

Mr. Charles L. Miller, delegate-elect to the Legislature, was in Chestertown on Tuesday and stated that considerable damage was done to shipping by the heavy wind on Sunday night. Nearly every boat in Rock Hall harbor was blown ashore, and a tug boat was blown high and dry on Smith's shore. The damage by the wind in Baltimore was heavy, and there has been much loss of life throughout the country by the sudden cold snap.

Money In Guineas.

A Milford, Del., industry that is growing very fast and proving profitable is the raising of guinea fowls, and this year more than 6,000 pairs have been shipped from Milford by boat and railroad. The average price paid for them is 78 cents a pair, but last year they brought $1.25.

Last week one firm shipped to New York Hotel keepers 650 pairs of young guineas, for which they received fancy prices.

Rev. A. H. Covey is engaged in the buying of guineas and wants 1,000 at once for which he will pay top prices.

Kennedyville Boy on Rampage.

Jesse Maddox, aged 15 years, whose home was formerly near Kennedyville, was taken into custody in Wilmington, Del., last week by police officer Frank Massey on suspicion of having ran away from home. Maddox was turned over to the Wilmington Humane Society, who found him a place in a printing establishment. Maddox lived for a number of years with Capt. and Mrs. Daniel Hill, near Kennedyville. They got him from a home in the city. He was returned to the home early last spring, and was later sent by the Home authorities to a point down the Shore. It is thought that Maddox had "skipped" from his last abode to Wilmington when he was found by the police officers.

[illegible]

[illegible] mother, Mr. [illegible] on High street. [illegible] tian fortitude Mr. [illegible] night for ten weeks aga[illegible] of typhoid fever, and u[illegible]lful attention of her physici[illegible] L. Dodd, and the most devot[illegible]ntion of her family and a trained [illegible]e, she had grown better until last S[illegible]rday, when her case took a sudden [illegible]rn for the worse and she gradually grew weaker until the morning of her 30[illegible] birthday, when she passed away. T[illegible] deceased was one of the most popu[illegible] young ladies in Chestertown. Seve[illegible] years ago she married Mr. Lambe[illegible] and to his interests she gave the b[illegible] energies of her life, and assisted h[illegible] in making his hotel one of the best hostelries on the shore. She was a young lady of splendid disposition, sincere in all her relations, faithful as a wife, and a devoted daughter to her aged mother. She was a favorite with all who knew her, and her early demise has cast a gloom over the entire community. Besides her husband, she leaves a mother, Mrs. George H. Cannan; two sisters, Miss Gussie, of Chestertown, and Miss Bessie Cannan, of Baltimore; three brothers, Messrs. George H. and Foster Cannan, of this town, and Mr. John C. Cannan, of Wilmington. Funeral services will be held this (Saturday) afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of her mother on High street, conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, with which the deceased was identified. Interment will be made in Chester cemetery. [illegible] pall-bearers will be her three [illegible]s, her uncle, Mr. John C. Canna[illegible] Wilmington; Messrs. John Hecke[illegible] Arlington L. Sparks. Undertaker [illegible]harles L. Dodd will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

DR. THOMAS S[illegible]LER.

Dr. Thomas Sudler, [illegible]roner of the Eastern district and a[illegible]ely identified with Democratic politi[illegible]n Baltimore, died suddenly at his ho[illegible]e, 8 Shirely avenue, near Park Heights avenue, Tuesday morning.

Dr. Sudler had been suffering from heart trouble for the last two years. Three weeks ago his condition became worse and on the advice of his physician he remained at home.

Born September 12, 1849, at a small village in Queen Anne's county, which bore his family name—Sudlersville—he was the son of Capt. Edward Sudler and Sarah M. Keene Sudler, of the British Navy. He received his early education in the public schools of his birthplace and entered the mercantile business at Crumpton.

In 1883 he was elected Sheriff of Queen Anne's and held that office for two years. He then started in business at Centreville. In 1880 he went to Baltimore and opened a drug store at 700 East Baltimore street. He decided to study medicine, although he had passed the age of 40 years.

On November 12, 1877, Dr. Sudler married Miss Carrie V. Roberts, of Delaware, by whom he is survived. One son, Dr. Wright S. Sudler, coroner of Baltimore county; one daughter, Miss Carolina V. Sudler and two grandchildren also survive.

The defeat of the Democratic nominee for Governor was a blow to Dr. Sudler. Early in life he met the late United States Senator Gorman and they were close friends. Dr. Sudler was of the opinion that the election of the son of his former friend would prove beneficial to the party and would be a fitting tribute to the memory of the elder Gorman.

When a young man he became interested in politics and was elected Sheriff of Queen Anne's county. He was also a member of the Baltimore City Council and connected with the Health Department before appointment to the office he held at the time of his death.

MISS LILLIE T. FORD.

Miss Lillie T. Ford, daughter of Mr. Meritt Ford, of Galena, and one of the most popular young ladies of the upper section of the county, died on Saturday after a short illness of typhoid fever, aged about 22 years. The deceased was a young lady of noble christian character, and devoted her activities to the interests of the church. She was popular with every one on account of her sweet and gentle disposition, and her family have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock conducted by Rev. R. H. Lewis. Interment was made in Galena cemetery. Undertaker Wm. T. Hicks had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pall bearers were Messrs. Charles Stradley, Gary Everett, Edward Canan, James Hicks, William Steel and Robert Fogwell.

MRS. MARTHA E. TURNER.

Mrs. Martha E., widow of the late Richard T. Turner, Jr., died at her home near Betterton on Thursday after an illness of about a year in the 71st year of her age. The deceased was the daughter of the late James and Matilda Wilson Birch, of this county. She is survived by the following children—Messrs. Howard Turner, of Betterton; Henry C. Turner, of New York, James R., William W., and Joseph Archer Turner, of Philadelphia, and R. Sinclair Turner, of Cecil county. Funeral services will be held from the home this Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment will be private.

MRS. MAUD B. LEWIS.

Mrs. Maud B. Lewis, wife of Rev. Frank H. Lewis, pastor of First Methodist Protestant Church, Pittsburg died in that city on Saturday. Funeral services were held in Mt. Royal Avenue M. P. Church, Baltimore, on Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. T. O. Crouch, assisted by Revs. Dr. H. L. Elderdice and J. W. Trout. Burial was in Baltimore cemetery.

Bishop Alexander Mackey-Smith, of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Pennsylvania died suddenly at the Episcopal residence in Philadelphia on Thursday.

The annual conference of the Virginia M. E. Church South, is in session in Salisbury.

The Bishops attending the meeting of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Denver on Wednesday participated in the ceremonies of the breaking of the ground for the new science hall, a donation of Andrew Carnegie to Denver University, a Methodist institution. Among the appropriations made by the board are the following: The Italian Mission, including all Italian work east of Indianapolis, $37,800; Porto Rico, $27,000, the several German conferences, $38,300; New York, $7,450; Boston, $3,350, with an additional grant of $1,636 for the Morgan Memorial Church; the Seventh district, including the Southern States, $30,600; Baltimore, $2,925; Pittsburg, $3,600; Chicago, $9,050, with an additional $1,000 for Swedish work.

Kent's Poetess.

Kent county can claim so many honors in various walks of life that it would be difficult to enumerate them, and now we have the distinct honor to present to the reading public, Kent's charming and versatile poetess, Miss Mary Robertine Stokes, of near Still Pond. It has been our great pleasure to publish from time to time in the TRANSCRIPT beautiful pen sketches from the authoress, whom we are delighted to number among our friends, and we are pleased to announce to the public that Miss Stokes is having her writings published in book form, and her many friends may soon have the pleasure of reading the many charming poems she has written. There is nothing light or trifling in these poems. They breathe the spirit of pastoral life, touch the harp strings of divine rhapsody, and revel in thoughts such as only a true poetess can express in language. Kent is proud of the additional honor of contributing a poetess to the literary world, and we are quite sure that the many friends of Miss Stokes will rejoice with her in the success which she has achieved. Here are three gems from her pen that may be used as memory lessons in our day schools:

THE SUNNY PASTURE.

When morning glory blooms are folded tight,
Round chicory stalks is furled each azure flag,
High with song's zest here merry thousands lag,
To chant and chime the alchemic power of light;
Butterfly wings like golden batons beat,
Timing the score for minstrel myriads hid,
Beetle's obeo, cymbals of katydid
Sound through the breeze's leafy laughter sweet.
A lark drops in and fills a moment's hush
With one clear note. Wild into deeper grass
With trembling trample and with rasping rush,
Go frighted grasshoppers fleeing as I pass,
Out above all the cicada's violin—
Loitering, I love it in the idle din!

HEART'S FIELD.

White flowers of thought here droop with sorrow's dew,
A little stream of laughter twinkles through.
Dreams overhead pass in immortal flight—
Gray doves winging in the liquid light.

GUARDIAN ANGELS.

He hath given His angels charge over thee
Life, that thy path be fair,
Pray who may the guardian angels be?
Faith names them Work and Prayer.

Grange Notes.

Fairlee Grange met in regular session last Wednesday evening, worthy master John P. Nicholson, presiding. After reading of the minutes and order of business—Mr. Irving Walker, of Church Hill, Queen Anne's county, was introduced and gave a most interesting and helpful address upon the inheritence, ancestry, environment, technical and pratical points in the selection and cultivation of corn, after which he awarded the premiums in the ten and one ear selections—dwelling upon the uniformity of ears.

Best ten ears white—Mr. W. T. Nicholson; second Mr. E. A. Corey.

Best ten ears yellow corn—first Mr. W. T. Nicholson; second Mr. E. A. Corey.

Best single ear white—first W. T. Nicholson, second Mr. W. G. Skirven.

Eleven entered in the one acre corn contest. The largest yields as follows:

	BUS. PER ACRE
Mr. W. G. Skirven	90 bus.	30 lbs.
" W. T. Nicholson	80 "	30 "
" T. E. W. Crew	79 "	12 "
" E. A. Corey	79 "
" H. T. Rash	71 "	30 "
" J. P. Nicholson	66

No report from the remaining contestants.

Attention was called to the meeting of the State Grange, in Baltimore, Dec. 4th and members urged. It will be the best ever held. Cake and lemonade was then served. Special meeting on 23rd, at 2.30 P. M. Questions of interest to be discussed.

Betterton Notes.

Many of our residents have bought woodland from the Bayside Co.

We are to have a canning factory near here as it will be built on Mr. Willis farm near the old wharf site known as Barnard's wharf; We are in hopes they wont have to have foreign labor.

Miss Margaret Brinsfield, who has been quite sick, we are glad to hear is able to attend to her school. Mrs. Bayard Crew has been substituting in her place.

Mr. John Brice was in Baltimore on business the past week.

Mrs. Howard Owens and son are visiting her mother in Queen Anne's county.

Mr. Howard Owens spent Thursday in Baltimore buying fall and winter goods.

Mr. Chas. Brice has added an art department to his store which pleases the ladies very much, especially those interested in fancy articles.

Mrs. G. W. Moore spent last week with her son, Herbert, at Raspberg.

Mr. John Green is spending sometime in Vermont.

Fish are very scarce, some of our men are talking of taking up their nets. Ducks are very scarce, we hardly ever see one.

The Ladies Aid Society are having the church lot graded, and several of the members, also Mr. Frank Young, have volunteered to do the work free. We certainly appreciate their kindness and thank them for same.

The Epworth League met at the home of Mrs. Horace Brice. Owing to bad weather the crowd was not large but all had a good time as usual.

Our Advertisers.

If you want to read something attractive, study the adv. of M. Kramer, Rock Hall. Mr. Kramer is making a bid for popular patronage, and he has hit the bull's eye in his adv. You can't beat his prices in the state and his assortment is first class and up-to-date in every department. He is even ready for Christmas. Do you wonder that he is busy? Just take a look at the adv. and see what you can get.

J. R. McIntire & Son are sole agents for Huyler's celebrated candies, and they have a splendid assortment on hand in their fine new store at the old stand on High street.

Watch the weekly specials of N. Lieberman, the hustling Melitota merchant, in the TRANSCRIPT every week. Special sale of clothing this week, and you can save 25 per cent. on your purchases.

Have you tried those comfortable, easy-fitting and stylish Ralston shoes which Vansant & Newsome are selling? They don't hurt a bit and they are dandies for style. Try a pair.

Jefferson & Bro. are going to discontinue their rug department, and they are offering all rugs at one-fourth off marked price. Elegant chance to buy a desirable Christmas present. See adv. on page 3.

Read Harry's adv. in this issue. Every thing in the pretty store, from a stick of fresh candy to a basket of fine apples, at prices to suit your ability. The entire stock is fresh and new.

Read Bordley & Son's adv. on page 5 this morning. They are having a special sale on winter underwear besides offering you other bargains.
