Pomona Items.

On Friday afternoon at Pomona the flag presented by the Jr. O. U. A. M., of Chestertown, was raised on the new school house. Prof. Smyth, of Chestertown, presented the flag on behalf of the order in a very neat speech, setting forth the history of the flag, from the time of the settlement of the colonies. Rev. A. H. Covey received the flag on behalf of the trustees of the school, and in his speech spoke in eloquent terms of the flag, the Order and the schools of our country. After the flag was presented, Mr. Thos. Starr, on behalf of the P. O. S. of A. of Chestertown, presented a bible to the school. The program was made up of several readings pertaining to the history of the flag, singing by the school, and then the raising of the colors to the top of the flag staff.

Mrs. W. H. McCann, of Eddystone, Pa., has been visiting Rev. and Mr. McCann at Pomona for several days.

Revival services have been going on at Bond M. E. Church for two weeks in charge of the Pastor, Rev. W. M. McCann, and in face of stormy weather the meetings have been well attended and a number of conversions have resulted.

Pomona charge Rev. W. M. McCann, pastor. Bond M. E. Courch—Pomona, S. S. 10 A. M., Preaching 11 A. M.

Mowbray M. E. Church—Cliffs, S. S. 2 P. M., E. L. 7 P. M., Preaching 7.30 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Baker have been spending a few days in Baltimore, as the guests of their son.

Randolph Legg, of Cliffs, has been very sick for several days, but he is improving now.

Mr. John Davis, of Chestertown, was one of the out-of-town visitors at the flag raising in Pomona.

Miss Whittaker, the teacher at Pomona school, has been sick for several days this week, and the school has been closed.

Mrs. Richard Leaverton has been spending a few days in Baltimore this week.

Mr. Wm. Toulson is serving the mail on Route No. 3 this week. He makes an ideal representative for the government as he is right on the job.

Mr. Henry Brown is planning to spend a few weeks visiting his daughter in Virginia.

The Third Quarterly conference of Bond and Mowbray churches will be held at the parsonage on Saturday, Nov. 25, 2.30 P. M. Rev. Dr. Watt will preach in Mowbray church the following evening 26th 7.30 P. M. The charge will have a good report to make at this conference and a full meeting of the official board is hoped for.

Elmer Starr, of Pomona, has been on the sick list for several days. He is much improved now.

Mr. Wm. C. Townsend, the genial and up-to-date merchant of Pomona, is a hustler. He is going to enlarge his store in the spring as he is now cramped for room in his present quarters on account of his large stock.

Profitable Potatoes.—Harry and Emmit Raughly, who reside near Milford, Del., this year had the good luck to raise on their farm one of the best crops of sweet potatoes ever grown there. It amounts to 12,000 baskets of first-class potatoes and a large lot of seconds. Their first grade sold for 30 cents per basket, netting them $3,600, and they can sell the seconds for 20 cents or more in the spring, to be used as seed potatoes.
