PRINTED AND PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY MORNING, BY EDWARD MULLIKIN PUBLISHER OF THE LAWS OF THE UNION.

THE TERMS Are Two Dollars and Fifty CENTS per Annum payable half yearly in advance. VERTISEMENTS are inserted three times for ONE DOLLAR; and continued weekly for TWENTY-FIVE CENTS per square.

SPRING GOODS.

LANGER REARDON Informs his customers and the public, that he has just opened a choice assortment of

Spring and Summer Goods, AMONG WHICH ARE: A beautiful selection of the most fashionable FANCY ARTICLES, and a complete assortment of Staple, Imported and Domestic DRY GOODS, HARDWARE, GLASS-WARE AND CHINA, Groceries Liquors and Wines, TRESH TEAS Warranted of the best quality. AND A GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF

LEATHER, All of which he offers at very reduced prices, for Cash, or in exchange for Wool, Feathers and Hides. for which a liberal price will be given.

NEW SPRING GOODS.

Easton, april 26

John W. Jenkins

EGS leave to inform his friends and cushis spring assortment of

Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, China, Glass, and Queensware,

Low, particularly to CASH customers. tain the long established character of the small scale, and in a healthy situation.

Call and examine the stock. Wool, Tow Linen, &c. and the highest pri- joining farm. Attendendance by ces will be allowed. april 26

NEW DRY GOODS STORE.

WM. H. AND P. GROOME. (OPPOSITE THE BANK,) DEG leave to inform the public that they D have just returned from Philadelphia, and are now opening, a splendid assortment of new and fresh

DRY GOODS, of almost every description, which have been selected with great care from the latest importations, and which added to their present stock of HARDWARE, GROCERIES, CHINA, GLASS, &c. &c. renders their assortment very extensive and complete. Having taken the adjoining Store room, they will be enabled to keep up their usual large assortment of Hardware and Groceries, and it is their intention to continue to pay par ticular attention to the selection of WINES AND LIQUORS so as to furnish them of the best qualities. All of which will be sold at a small advance for 3weo3w FOR SALE.

HAT well known and valuable farm late the property of Geo. W Nabb, Esq. called "Bridgewater," sometimes known by the name of Turner's farm, adjoining the or thereabout; has on it a new and very commodious DWELLING, completely finpretty good APPLE ORCHARD. A portion of the land is in a tolerable state of cultivation, the ballance poor, but of that quality of soil which is susceptible of the highest state of improvement. On the farm is an abundant supply of VALUABLE TIMBER, a very large and extensive meadow, which might be put in excellent order at little expense, with inexhaustible funds of marl. To ital It will be sold at public sale on TUES-DAY the 17th of May next, at the Court House cant, directed A. Z. will be attended to. door in Easton, on a liberal credit, which will be made known on the day of sale.

For further particulars inquire of RICHARD SPENCER, in Easton. april 26

For Sale, very low for Cash, A second-hand Piano in complete order .-Any person wishing to examine it, will please call at the Cabinet Ware Room of the sub scriber. JOHN MECONEKIN. Easten, march 15

BEMOVAL

THE subscriber having removed from the Union to the EASTON HOTEL. lately occupied by Mr. Thos. Peacock, & formerly by himself, Begs leave most respectfully to tender his grateful acknowledgements to his numerous Customers and friends, who have heretofore honoured him with their calls, and at the same time to solicit them and the public in general for their patronage.

The Easton Hotel is now in complete order for the reception of Travellers and others, and the proprietor pledges himself to spare no labour or expence to render every comfort and to pay the highest price in CASH for any convenience to those who may favour him with | quantity that may be offered. their eustom.

Private parties can at all times be accommodated and, Horses, Hacks, and Gigs with careful drivers furnished to go to any part of the Peninsula.

The public's obedient servant. SOLOMON LOWE.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, Nov. 17, 1830. LATION.

HE many impositions which are attempted in relation to Pension and Bounty Land Claims, has-caused the Department of War to establish a regulation, which declares that no attention will in future, be given to applications from persons who act as Agents, unless they are known at the Department, or Republicans to attend. Written or printed invit are vouched for as respectable persons to tions were sent to many, who were lukewarm as some one who is known.

Notice of this regulation is hereby id, their every exertion of which they were capable; after and that all may be informed there of their sending invitations, which probably consumed me requested that publishers of the lawast secure paper than would furnish the people of Chest United States, in the respective Statttgages on Town in their ordinary business, for the next twelf sert the same, on the front page of tims, which | months, they were enabled to collect the trilling pective papers, for three months. And up the number of about one hundred and fifty, including By order of the Secretary of ay accesso-

First Clerk Bounty I

Feb. 11-March 1 3m The Medical & Chirurgia TOR the Eastern Shore, me

when Dr. Solomon M. Jenkins, Walter L. Turpin, of Queen Ann'she daggertheir Diplomas and received a at although practice Medicine and Surgery in trom some Mr. William Hemsley of Talbot cd be obhaving submitted hinself to an examina which he passed, with credit to himself to de- quite so "big" a man, as he would have the people entire satisfaction to the Board, obtained Wanted to purchase 150 cords TAN BARK, cense to practice Medicine and Sweeter is Per order of the Board,

THEODORE DENNY Easton, Talbot county, april 19

Valuable Land for Said an un-The subscriber will offer for ser D tomers, and the public generally, that Court House door in Easton, on Tuedd, of his he has just returned from Philadelphia with the 10th day of May, at 12 o'clock, abe which acres of that valuable farm, the resided blasthe late John Singleten.

It comprises the Manston, and a in Opi of the Out-Houses, with the yard, garden, and highly improved arable land which have been laid in on such advantageous adjacent thereto. There is some fine fruit, terms as will enable him to sell REMARKARLY and a suitable proportion of the land is in WOOD. The house may be repaired at a J. W J. is determined always to keep an small expense, and it will afford a pleasant assortment of goods at such rates as will main- residence to any person disposed to farm on a terms of sale will be accommodating, and the premises shown, either by Dr. Singleton resi-N B. Will be taken in exchange, Feathers | ding thereon, or by the subscriber on the ad

NS. GOLDSBOROUGH, for John B. Singleton. april 19

Centreville Hotel. THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has moved from the Head of Chester, Kent county, Md. where he has been engaged for many years in keeping a Public House, and has the gratifying assurance of his friends and customers in that place, and of those traveling through, who favored him with a cali, that heretofore, he has given general satisfaction. He has taken that large and commodious BRICK HOUSE, in Centreville, Queen Ann's county, so well known as the CENTREVILLE HOTEL, near the Court House, and in a most pleasant part of the Town, where he shall be pleased to receive a liberal share of the patronage of the public; and assures them that no exertion on commodated; and every exertion will be made to make all comfortable that give him a call. The public's obedient and humble servant JAMES BRADSHAW.

his part shall be wanting to give general satisfaction. Private parties can always be ac-ties at a moment's notice. Centreville. THE UNITED STATES MAIL STAGES alluded to. When within musket shot, the United States brig Enterprize when she re- erable slang about "Van Buren and his ediarrive at the subscriber's house from Philadel- Fox received a gun from the Castle. Struct captured the slip Lucius and another vessel tors"—let all illiberal jealousies and suspici-Mill recently owned by the late Arthur Holt, phia and Easton, on Mondays, Wednesdays ed as Lieut. Cocke was, he was commenced at Cape Antonio. Gibbs immediately recognis-Esq. This farm contains 620 acres of land and Fridays: also leaving his house on Tues- to continue on without deadening his way, and ed him, and in the course of their conversation licans—We now repeat for the last time, most > treville to Philadelphia in twelve hours. Advertiser, at Centreville.

goods Store, as SALESMAN, a young an enterprising, industrious man, few farms man, of steady and industrious habits, and acfor more profitable investment of a small cap- eral wages will be given.—A line left at the Whig office, with the real name of the appli-

PARM HANDS.

TATANTED to hire by the year 8 or 10 LLOYD N. ROGERS, Near 1st Toll Gate on the Reisterstown Turnpike road 3 miles from Baltimore. The Easton Whig, will publish the above to the amount of two dollars.

April 20- 26

A CARD. Dr. Solomon M. Jenkins

Offers his Professional services to the inhabitants of Easton, and its vicinity. His office is located on Federal street, two doors from the Easton Hotel, and directly opposite the Court House. He may be found during the night at his mother's residence on Washington april 19

THE subscribers will purchase all kinds of CHASE & FALCONAR, Woolen Manufacturers, S. W. corner of Baltimore and Liberty sts.

april 19-26

ter fate than that of being compelled to wander act so unworthy of the justice of your characthrough the newspapers of the land without a pathrough the newspapers of the land without a parent's name, or the poor credit of the Journal in which they first appeared. We believe they were writteh wit- | wavering. The highways, hedges and by-ways well Jimmy Smithers and the inhabitants of the Alm house. Their meeting was attended by about eight J. L. EDWA and the ru- or ten gentlemen from other counties, none of whole First Clerk Pensal can all this | are distinguished either for talents, or important ser WILLIAM GOWS of human- | vices rendered to the State. Our county was repr sented by four or five, one of whom edified t whose in- company with a speech. Cecil was represented two or three, and Caroline by one, who rode ! perversion horse to death, in his zeal to obtain an opportuni of touching the hem of the Senator's garment.

The proceedings of this meeting, it is said, wil doubtless be published in the Kent Inquirer. They will for the keen a subject of future comment. The Senator mad notice, on Wednesday the which would very long speech, which was doubtless swallowed senic, or the a precious morsel by many of his parasites. A ge tleman remarked to me, that it was evident from the actions and countenances of several who we present at the dinner, that great disappointment martification prevailed among them. Many, are little acquainted with the political history of nation, are now satisfied, that our Senator is no of Kent county to believe. It is very certain that | We believe it was Mr. Morris's intention to so delicate an occasion, we would have advi- a faithful regard to the behests of the Constihe expected to have in his train, men who are far save executed the prisoners at 10 o clock - sed, and even urged it upon him. - When he tution; and we shall be satisfied. The door superior to himself in every respect. The result of out the first request Gibbs made yesterday himself comes torward of his own accord to is now open to the President; all clogs upon a acces- this meeting may probably curb his unbounded vani- was, that he might live, "till the sun was up" make such an honorable peace-offering upon his movements are withdrawn- May he satiss persons ty, though he is probably ready to exclaim to some rathe same of those, who, he thought, would honour him with their company, in the language of Mark Anthony, me and my comrades, else you would have been pre sent to further us in our designs.'

A JACKSONIAN. THE CHEROKEE NATION,

THE STATE OF GEORGIA. JANUARY TERM, 1831. inion of the Supreme Court of the United States, delivered by Mr. Chief Justice Asia the on power of the care

I tell a tale as it is told, nor dare

To venture a solution 'Davus sum.'-Byron. ignorant of that place, amongst whom I am much excellent advice.

Fox's signal was made, and that vessel closed cap, partly from his face, showing the chin, macy, in its foreign aspects, which could have with the Commodore, and received instruct mouth, and part of the nose—it was an appal- been struck.—He retires after having secured tions forthwith, to proceed into St. John's; and ing sight. if the Greyhound should be there, to order her After hanging one hour, the bodies of the West India trade—unsealed the ports of Turobject of his mission to those seas known to for dissection-pursuant to sentence. the Spaniards. As soon as Captain Cocke The concourse of spectators was immense; Tristram Burgess abuse Martin Van Burenhad received the orders of his commander, he | the little Island was crowded with men women | if he pleases—Let illiberal opponents sneer made sail and pursued his instruction. On and children,—and on the waters around him—but now that he has retired from powentering the port, whose channel way it is were innumerable boats, laden with pas- er, it is believed that the voice of an impartiaextremely difficult to enter safely, owing to a sengers, from the steam-boat and schooner country may do him justice. dangerous reef on which the sea rolls and down to the jawl and canoe .- Mer. Adv. J. B's STAGES will run regularly for the breaks furiously, as well as to the rocky shore accommodation of Passengers to and from the you are obliged to sail near, on which stands Steam Boats, Maryland and Wolcott; passen the tremendous fortification called El Moro- come to our knowledge since the confession generous attempt to restore harmony to our gers carried to any part of the adjacent coun- Captain Cocke hoisted his colors, and crow- was published, which tend strongly to corro- councils—to bring back to the administration ded sail to prevent any accident occurring to borate the statement which Gibbs has given some of the friends which our discords have Regular conveyance can always be had from his small vessel, by the possibility of making of his piratical career. He was visited in pri- alienated or cooled, will have the effects which too much way, having under his lea the reef son by Captain Kearney, who commanded the were intended. Let us be done with this misday, Thursday and Saturday morning's, for received another shot; but as his colors were referred to numerous incidents that occurred solemaly, that in all the intercourse we have the above named places—through from Cen- flying, and his vessel's character no ways there, which none but a person present could had with this man, we have never heard him, Bank itself. For, if those friends are driven ambiguous, he kept on: but another shot more have known. He enquired of Capt. K. if he directly or indirectly, by insinuation, word, or direful in its progress than the rest, struck found some warm conee on board of the ship whisper, make the slightest allusion to the Pre-Easton Gazette, and Whig, and Ches. the unfortunate schooner's hull, and this wor- when he took possession of her? which being sidency-No, not one!-Judging of what has tertown Inquirer, I month, mark charge and thy and brave officer, in a moment of the deep- answered in the affirmative, he added, with been said of others by what we know of oursend to the Times and Eastern Shore Public est solicitude for the safety of his vessel and a half smile, "you didn't drink any of it?" selves, we are satisfied that great injustice crew, was prostrated mortally wounded, on intending to convey the idea that it was has been done to him.—We hope, now he is the deck. He exclaimed, in a voice rendered prepared and poisoned for their destruction. going to private life, that all such absurdities WANTED IMMEDIATELY in a dry tremulous and broken by the pains of death, We fearn from a gentleman who was may be consigned to the "vile dust from perceiving his officers about dropping the was fully satisfied that he had been a pirate ing-it is not by intrigue—that such a high peak of the mainsail, on which was attached and a participator with the Cape Antanio free office as the Presidency of the United States ergy, "dont haul down the flag." He sup- horrible outrages upon the lives of their fellow sandth time, the office belongs to the people, posed at the time that they intended to strike; beings. but their ardor equalled that of their dying We are informed from the most respectable When they want a Chief Magistrate, they Wheeling, politely handed to us by a friend, Captain, and it was only to clear the main- authority that he (Gibbs) has made a full will call him, whether it be Cincinnatus at the sail (which had been jibed,) clear of its top- disclosure of all the accomplices, aiders and plough, or H. Clay mending his fences. pinglift, that this manœuvre had been execut- abettors in his piracies, and that it is the intendered sailor's God, and died! Who can conceive the feelings of that seem. will astound the people of this nution." ingly death devoted crew, whilst contemplating the body of their commander, mangled in a manner too shocking to relate, and the certain destruction that awaited them, should lately gave its cotemporary of the Norfolk they obey the unhallowed desires of the cow- Herald, (both Anti Jackson papers,) a pretty ardly wretches who had fired on their small, close rub on the score of the patronage, which stand by the Constitution. inoffensive (if even hostile) vessel, under the it received from the General Government. escape from the hands of their deliberate mur- ed style: derers. But the monster who had ordered "To the queries of the contemptible scoun- self this act of crime, this blot upon his pretence drel who signs himself "Norfolic and Nanseto humanity, was, as are most such wretches, mond," in the Whig of Thursday, we should on every Politician! The Secretary of War, pressure, but the boiler was very old—it has alarmed by his own wickedness, and the firing have paid no attention, but for the respectful (Major Eaton,) the President's bosom friend, been in use some 17 or 18 years, and had viving officers to her anchorage, and finding the editor of that paper, whose kind and deco- the bottom of our hearts, for this generous de- Blame however is attached to the second enthe Grey Hound, delivered her instructions, rous reference to us, merits some notice on our votion of his own feelings and interests to the gineer, who was on duty; but he can make no and entered a complaint to the Governor for part. In few words, then, whatever "patro- public service. This was the first self sacri- explanations." AMERICAN WOOL, and are prepared the injury sustained. But even to this day nage" we receive from the general govern- lice. The Secretary of State came next—The no atonement is made to the manes of their ment is honestly and fairly earned; the amount Secretaries of the Treasury and the Navy fol Profits of rail-ways.—It is stated that the revictim, our brave and lamented Lieut. Cocke. seldom exceeds $150 a year, for which we lowed, in rapid succession, and in generous ceipts of the Liverpool and Manchester Rail-

The following beautiful and touching lines, a forth his services. Americans! let not the re- will answer for him—No! Then let him refund ously withdrawn to the shades of private life. southern editor justly observes, are worthy of a bet- cords of your country's fame be sullied by an outlied by a virtuous that constitutes our nation's grandeur; and that the God who beheld the sacrifice of the gallant and brave, registers against us the > Thou honored, though neglected dead! Thy fame must future ages hear, And shed upon thy fate-a tear. If still Columbia loves her brave, A monument should deck thy grave, Or bring thy bones where they might rest Among those faw, in life lov'd best. To the mangled manes of hero true, This last act were justly due: The land wherein ye drew your breath, Should only hold three after death.

> > NEW YORK, April 20.

a few minutes before 10 o'clock.

-and he was gratified.

on a certain occasion, "Sirs, you are ignorant of about eight o'clock-at that hour Wansley it .- Those who have refused to denounce him; him." e-twas led into Gibbs' cell-Gibbs immediately those who have scorned to yield him up as a Degan to pray-and from that time, till the sacrifice, to the jealousies of mistaken enthuour of their death, they continued engaged siasts or the artifice of his opponents; need psalm and prayer, almost without intermis- not blush now, to have been his vindicators in sion-in their devotions they were con- the fiery storm of persecution. He who volun- Pennsylvania Inquirer, friendly to the re-charstantly attended by the Rev. Mr. Tappin, tarily retires from power, has a right to ex-Rev. Mesars. Duncan, Carter, Wright and for his services.

see Dawes, the boy who was on board of the disease upon this highly gifted land, let it be Vineyard at the time of the piracy, and who recorded that Martin Van Buren has resigned took a part therein; he (having been convey- the highest office within the patronage of the them intended to ridicule the President, or, if In the early part of 1823, an American ed from the Navy Yard in the Steam Boat, President of the U. States. He retires from squadron appeared off St. Juan's, Porto Rico; at which place he is engaged) was brought an office, which he graced. He retires from which event caused great alarm among the before Gibbs-who gave him in a fervent tone an office, which has been held up as "a sal sorry to rank even the Authorities; for such About half past 11 o'clock the prisoners highest station in the world. He gives up all was the case. My relater was an officer who were conducted from the room on Ellis's Island the patronage and all the authority which his had been present on the occasion I am about in which they were lodged, to the place of elevated situation has put within his reach to speak of. It was a windy morning, in the execution, -after the rope was adjusted a- He resigns all the influence which he was supspring of the year 1823, that we made the round the neck of each, Gibbs and then posed to wield—all the fruits of that large land of Porto Rico, immediately off the town | Wansley addressed the multitude, but the confidence, which the President of the Unitof St. John's: and our Commodore, Porter, hum of many voices, rendered all they said ed States was reposing in him. He gives up feeling anxious in regard to the fate of his unintelligible save to those who stood by power—the means which he has been suspectbrother, Captain J. Porter, of the Grey Hound their very side. Here who the Bow. genue- ed by his censorious enemies or jealous friends, schooner, who had parted company from the men attended them, and after some further of using for his own advancement—he retires squadron during a heavy gale of wind, sought devotional services, in which the culprits join- from it all—to the walks of private life. him there, as that port had been appointed ed, exactly at six minutes past 12, they were retires from one of the most brilliant careers the issue directly between the President and the rendezvous in case of an unforseen cause launched into entercity. Wansely, (the col- of diplomacy, which a Secretary of State has the Bank,—and maintain so broadly and unhappening to any of the small, vessels, to oc- ored man) neede not, that we could observe, ever run—with one exception only, which has equivocally as is to be inferred from the articasion their quitting company with the flag, a single struggle—but Gibbs, for four minutes divided the opinions of his countrymen—and cle in the Chronicle, that no man shall be electfor as best understood to land looks, the Com- seemed by the contortions of his frame, to upon which we think him wrong, as regards ed President of the United States, who is not suffer severe agony during the course of the greet lines of the Constitution-but even On the morning alluded to, the schooner which he raised up his hand, and lifted the that, one of the most splendid strokes of dig commander to join immediately the squadron, unfortunate, but guilty criminals, were cut key to our enterprising mariners-paved the which would remain outside under easy sail, down, and sent immediately to the College way for an honorable and unexpected indem as the Commodore did not wish to have the of Surgeons and Physicians in Barclay street, nification from France-and left all our rela-

There are various circumstances which have ed-that this bold decision of character-this "Oh God, the Ascals have killed me;" and present at the interview, that Capt. Kearney which they sprung."-It is not by electioneer-

GOOD FARM HANDS-application be, smiling through his agony, recommended his possession, to proceed to Washington and his poor wife and helpless children to the mur- communicate it without delay to the President.

Jour. of Com.

ceased. The Fox was conducted by her sur- consideration which they have received from first withdrew—and we commend him, from worn out three boats before the present — His remains, on the following day, were render a full equivalent, precisely as in the self-sacrifice of their situations. The retire- way, for the first nine weeks, for passengers consigned to the silent grave, where neither case of individual "patronage."—And now ment of a whole Cabinet is a new incident in alone, exceeded £18,000 or $80,000! temb nor trophy decorates the earth that holds having satisfied the Whig and its correspon- our annals. Sometimes one Secretary has a gallant murdered sailor, who fell whilst pro- dent in these particulars, we take leave to ask been driven out by the indignant voice of the Dr. S. G. Howe, the able advocate in the The Easton Whig and Cambridge moting the cause of general humanity, and a question or two of Mr. Pleasants—did he people—Sometimes he has retired under the cause of Greece, has returned in the ship A-Chronicle, will publish this to the amount of now lies neglected, as do some of the wretch- fairly and honestly earn the $1950, of "pap" frown of the President—Sometimes he has merica, Capt. Eldridge, arrived at Boston on two dellars each and charge American office. two dollars each, and charge American office : es against whom his country's wrongs called be received from the U.S. Treasury? We become sick of public station, and spontane | Sunday, from Liverpool.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

INTERESTING. and glory of his administration.

the altar of his country, we should despise our- fy his country, and consult the glory of his We saw the prisoners yesterday morning selves if we did not say that we honor him for Administration-Our best wishes are with baplain of the Bellevue prison, with the pect common justice, if not public gratitude

When so many other men are seeking of When on Ellis' Island Gibbs requested to fice; when it has absolutely become a sort of compensation from Denmark-opened the tions respected and harmonious abroad.

> under the circumstances in which he was plac and they will give it to whom they please.

We trust also in another thing—that all the there on the 19th instant. ed. As soon as this was explained to him, tion of the person who has the information in jealousies, which have been lately sown among the friends of the administration, may now be removed-that one great source of suspicion which occurred at our wharf this morning,-When published, says our information, "it being now dried up, they may rally together: the bursting of the boiler of the steamboat rally around General Jackson-promote his Tri-colour. The boat was just turning out, re election, and bring back the Government to go round the island for a load of flour, when be administered. This is our duty-this, our York boats) gave way. The captain, 2d eninterest-these, the watchwords of the Repub- giueer, 3 firemen, 1 deck hand and two or lican party. While Discord ceases, let us three deck passengers were killed, and about very guns of their castle and batteries, with- The Editor replied to the queries of a corres- respondence with the deepest interest. The cipally at Portsmouth, by Messrs. Lodwicks, out the possibility of the slightest chance of pendent of the Whig, in the following point- reply of Gen. Jackson is admirably written— and commanded by Capt. Notley Drown of in the style and in the spirit of Jefferson him Marietta. Neither the bull of the boat nor

After we have recovered from the surprize and emotion which it is calculated to produce, this great question next presses upon our at-We announce this morning the interesting tention: Who will be their successors? To fact, that Mr. Van Buren has resigned the office whose guardianship will be committed the of Secretary of State. The Correspondence great offices of State, and the deep interests between himself and the President is extract- of our beloved country? We look to the reed from the Globe. The great public con- sults with intense anxiety. We trust the Presiderations by which he is actuated, are here sident will take time for the most deliberate set forth.—The last sentiment of his heart— choice—that he will select the highest talents the last motive of his conduct, is not dissatisfac- and the purest virtues he can command—that tion with the President—unwillingness to serve he will not be guided, as we said the other in his administration. On the contrary, he day, by the mere "party considerations" of retires with the deepest attachment to the this or of that aspirant-but that he will apman, and the warmest wishes for the success ply the three great tests to his friends, "Is he honest? Is he capable? Is he faithful to the We have no hesitation in expressing our un- Constitution?"—that he will draw around him qualified admiration of this last act of Martin a mass of talents, that will command the con-Van Buren. The Opposition will still con- fidence of the nation,—and put down all the tinue to villify him-but the defamation of sneers and arts of the Opposition-that he will their presses is the highest compliment they bring around him a set of Secretaries, with so can pay him -They will misrepresent his mo- much confidence in each other, as to produce THE EXECUTION .- Yesterday at 6 min- tives -Mr. Van Buren expects it -and those a harmonious co-operation in the public affairs utes past 12 o'cloock, Charles Gibbs and who approve his conduct, do not deprecate -that he will re-organize a Cabinet, obtain Thomas Wansley, were executed on Ellis' such censure.—But we should despise our the concentrated lights of united councils— Island, for piracy, committed on board the selves -we should want that sense of justice, and administer the Government upon the lefbrig Vineyard. In the morning about 8 o'- which is due to every man, much less to a me- tiest principles of the public good, the great clock, according to the arrangements of Mr. morable act of this description, if we did not regards of public, not the petty artifices of Morris, Marshal, the prisoners were taken state in the most explicit terms, our respect sectional, interests—and the prescribed, specion board the Steam Boat Bellona, at the Bel- for the conduct which he has adopted. We fied, and limited powers of a federal Constitulevue Wharf, under an escort, of Marines, say it frankly, that weeks ago, his resignation tion. Give us these, and though every body (agreeably to an order of Government) and of office was one of those events which had cannot be pleased with all the men and all the Conveyed to Ellis' Island, where they arrived suggested themselves to our own minds. - measures of the Administration-give us tal-Could we have ventured to approach him on ent, integrity, harmony in the Cabinet-and

> The U.S. Bank and the President.-The Chronicle and Marylander of yesterday morning, comments upon an article copied from the tering of the Bank of the United States, and expresses surprise that the Inquirer can support at once, the Bank and the President. The reasonings of the Inquirer in favor of tha renewal of the charter, are pronounced to be so utterly incompatible with the support of Gen. Jackson, that the Chronicle supposes sincere, to be an insult to the common sense of the people of Pennsylvania. "Can both" (the Bank and the President) says the Chronprecedent' and as a stepping-stone to the icle, "be sanctioned upon principle? If it be right to renew the charter of the Bank, and the public interests require it, can it also be right to re-elect a President who has avowed his determination to put that institution down? We cannot comprehend the logic of the Inquirer, and are induced to believe that he only designed to give the President a sly thrust under the fifth rib."

> > The judicious friends of the Bank must regret to see the question of the renewal of its charter stated in this way. If they make up under redly in favor of a certain monied corporation, however valuable, or justly esteemed that corporation might be, they placed the question in a light in which the friends of the Bank, and the people have not generally regarded it, and which is calculated to do it mischief, rather than service. Such a scheme would contribute most unfavorably to create where it does not exist, and to strengthen where it does, a fear of the political weight of the Bank as a party engine, and an apprehension of the extent to which that weight might bereafter be exercised, in the event of a renewal of its present powers. The friends of the President have not made the Bank ques-We hope and believe that this withdrawing, tion a party question .- For this, which should be considered by the friends of the Bank, the wisest course of friendship for them, they are reproached by the Chronicle, in the article before us, as either treacherous to the administration or deficient in "logic" If by this is meant, that for the mere expression of his opinion against the Bank, every friend of the Bank must desert the President, because the support of both involves an inaptitude to reason logically or a virtual hostility to him, it is a position which his enemies have taken, and not his friends, and it is virtual hostility to the at last by such assaults, to choose, whether they will sacrifice Gen. Jackson with all his virtues, and public services, and claims upon the country, or give up the present Bank, and seek, to secure all its advantages in some other mode, can there be a doubt which will be

Such a question is not yet made, and we trust it will not be made. It is evident that it will not be fault of the friends of the Administration, if it ever shall be made. - Balt. Rep.

STEAMBOT EXPLOSION.

A letter from a respectable source at communicates the following particulars relative to a steamboat explosion which occurred

"Wheeling, April 19. We have to inform you of a sad accident to the great principles on which it ought to the head of the one large boiler (like the New alike number badly scalded. One or two per-The reader will peruse the following Cor haps dangerously. The boat was owned prinwhat cargo she had on board (received at What momentous considerations press up- Pittsburg) is injured. The engine was low