Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

Home of Swamp-Root.

You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SCORES OF LETTERS SENT TO FAR NORTH

Santa Needs Hosts of Things to Supply Wants of Children — Needy Remembered by Little Writers.

Santa Claus has reason to be proud of the unselfish spirit of the little ones. They always mention the home folks, and the poor receive especial attention. One little writer states that she realizes that there will be lots of poor children who will not have a happy Christmas, and to please bring her less and remember the poor instead.

Old St. Nicholas is, indeed, rich in the love of the little ones. Nearly every child, with a few exceptions, has concluded his or her letter with "love and kisses," one little boy even going so far as to include the "little Clauses." They have no doubt that he will be able to supply their many wants. Following are a few of the letters sent to the KENT NEWS to be sent to Old Kris:

Irene Kirby, Chestertown—I want an automobile or a tricycle and some games, please bring me a doll.

Evelyn Fowler, Georgetown—I dont think you will refuse to bring me what I want. I want a pair of boots and a gray sweater, a pair gloves, and a skating cap, and I would like to have a scrap book and nuts, candy, oranges, apples, cake, grapes, english walnuts, bananas.
