GET THE BEST.

In buying shoes bear in mind the fact that there is no part of your apparel that is obliged to stand as much service and exposure and should, therefore, be selected with the view of securing only those composed of the best materials and put together in a substantial and thorough manner.

I have a full and complete stock of Carroll, Adams & Co.'s strictly first-class shoes, including the celebrated FAULTLESS line for fall wear. The best shoes for every-day wear on the market, and a trial will convince you.

I have the most complete up-to-date shoe stock in this vicinity.

Give me a trial.

NOW IS THE TIME
To See About Your Painting.

I give my personal attention to every detail of every painting job. A large part of my success is due to the fact that we use only the best material, Lewis white lead, (Dutch Boy painter, trade mark) and absolutely pure Linseed Oil, our other materials are of equially high value. Always ready to show sample cards and quote prices. Let me estimate on your painting.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

CREW—CREW.

A beautiful Christmas wedding took place in Betterton M. E. Church at 7.30 Wednesday evening, when Miss Hattie Olivia, only daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Crew, became the bride of Mr. Herman Merritt, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Crew. The church had been elaborately trimmed for the occasion with holly, festoons of laurel and Christmas bells. The bridal party stood beneath a triple arch of evergreen with a background of potted plants. The bride who entered the church with the groom wore a gown of white satin trimmed with duchess lace, a tulle veil fastened with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. was attended by Miss Helen Crew maid of honor, wearing white messa with silver trimmings and carrying bouquet of carnations. The three br maids, Miss Anna B. Smyth, of tertown; Misses Ethel Young an tella O'Neal, both of Baltimore, gowned in cream silk with pearl or ments and carried pink carnations a ferns. Mr. George Brice was the best man and the ushers were Mr. James Brice and Mr. Horton Silcox, who, with the groom, wore the conventional black with white vests, ties and gloves. The wedding march was skilfully rendered by Miss Bessie Leigh, and many loving thoughts followed the impressive service in which Rev. J. H. Beauchamp officiated. Immediately after the ceremony, a large reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. Many costly and handsome gifts were received. Among the out-of-county guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Gates, Miss Addie Cadwalader, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Litsinger, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, of Detroit, Michigan.

PRETTYMAN—DAVIS.

Miss Mildred Davis, private secreta to county superintendent of school Milton Melvin, and daughter of Mrs. Avis Davis, will be married at seven o'clock this morning to Mr. Arthur Prettyman, a prominent young insurance representative of the Prudential Life Insurance Company of this town. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's mother by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Prettyman will leave by train for Philadelphia, where they will spend the Christmas holidays with his parents. Upon their return to Chestertown they will reside with the bride's mother on Cannon street.

CULLOM—KING.

Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Cullom have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Beulah Mae, to Mr. L. Price King, Jr., Wednesday evening, December 24, 1911, at 8 o'clock, at Grace Methodist Protestant Church, Pittsville, Md. At home after January 15 at Warwick, Md.

FRENCH—HATCHERSON.

Mr. William J. French, son of Mr. Jas. French, of near town, and Miss Ethel M. Hatcherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hatcherson, of near Fairlee, were married at Alnutt Memorial M. P. parsonage, Baltimore, on Wednesday evening last by the pastor, Rev. Dr. John S. Bowers. The ceremony was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Jones.

JONES—LEAVERTON.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Leaverton, of near Fairlee, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Anna Elizabeth, to Mr. H. Raymond Jones, at seven o'clock on Wednesday evening January 3rd, 1912, at their home, near Fairlee. A reception from 7 to 11 will follow the wedding.

State's Attorney-elect Harrison W. Vickers and Miss Rebecca Eliason will be quietly married in the M. E. Church by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett on Wednesday afternoon next, December 27th. Owing to the recent death of the groom's father, only the immediate families of the contracting parties will witness the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Vickers will leave on the afternoon train for a short wedding trip, after which they will reside in their pretty home on Washington avenue. They will be at home to their friends after February 1.
