The votes of three of the strongest Jackson townships, viz. New London, Stafford, and Windham were not counted in consequence of some informality or Edwards' majority would have been over three thousand. Every county in the state gave a Jackson majority for every candidate elected by general

For Lieutenant Governor the vote was, for Mr. Stoddard 18,725, for Mr. Young 15,070, and scattering, 221 -plurality for Mr. Stoddard 3,655. For Treasurer, Jeremiah Brown had a plurality of 3,739 over Nathaniel Goodwin, and for Secretary, Royal R. Hinman had a plurality of 3,421. To supply the vacancy in Congress occasioned by the death of Mr. Wildman Mr. Whittlesey received 17,688, and Mr. Booth 14,-640, being a majority of 3,148 in favovr of Mr. Whit-
