John M. South, photographer, Imperial Hotel, Chestertown, Md., says: "I suffered a great deal from my back and kidneys. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and I had pains through my sides and back. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a supply at Toulson's Drug Store. They gave me relief. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills worthy of the strongest praise."

If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. South had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Wins Second Honor.

The sixteenth annual contest of the Oratorical Association of Maryland Colleges was held in William Smith Hall last Friday evening. President James W. Cain, of Washington College, dedelivered the address of welcome, and spoke interestingly of the advantages of these contests, while Prof. Sidney Gunn, of St. John's College, made a happy response, and discussed the different kinds of oratory. The four contestants and their subjects were as follows:

Charles William Wainwright, Western Md. College—"The Call of the Blood."

Ralph McHerry, Md. Agricultural College—"The Weakness of the Monroe Doctrine."

John Wesley Noble, St. John's College—"President Wilson's Policy on the Canal Tolls."

Waters Russell Wheatley—"The Advantages of the Intiative and the Referrendum."

This was one of the finest classes ever presented by the association, and each subject was discussed with an ability and deep thought that would have done credit to more mature minds. The judges, State Senator Carville D. Benson, of Baltimore county, Wm. T. Warburton, Esq., of Elkton, and Mr. W. O. Thomas, of Sudlersville, awarded first prize to Mr. Charles William Wainwright, of Western Maryland College, and second honor to Mr. Waters Russell Wheatley, of Washington College. The officers of the association are: President, Dr. James W. Cain, Washington College; secretary, Prof. E. A. Warfield, of Western Md. College; treasurer, Prof. Sidney Gunn, of St. John's College. Excellent music was furnished by the college orchestra.

A Brilliant Wedding.

The Washington Post of Sunday published a fine discription of the wedding of Miss Frances Clarinda Brooks, daughter of Col. C. W. Brooks, U. S. A., and granddanghter of Brig. General John M. Wilson, U. S. A. retired, to Mr. Edward Cunningham Burgner Fletcher, of Philadelphia, on Saturday. St. Thomas Church, Washington, was thronged with members of military and old resident circles to witness the ceremony which took place at four o'clock. The church was gorgeously decorated with lilies, and a full orchestra rendered music. The bride entered the church upon the arm of her grandfather by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a charming costume of ivory toned satin, with court train, a bertha of old family lace caught by a spray of orange blossoms, adorning the bodice, and a double puff of tulle caught with pearls giving a modish and dainty finish to the skirt. Her veil was fastened by means of a close fitting cap of the same lace that composed the bertha, and was arranged with a spray of natural orange blossoms. She carried white orchids and lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaids were Misses Gertrude Gordon, Ruth Hitchcock, Clara Kingsbury, Ruth Larner, Estelle Crane, all of Washington, and Miss Miriam Hubbard, of Chestertown, who entertained Miss Brooks and Mr. Fletcher last summer at a house party here. The bridesmaids were pink charmeuse with tunics and bodices of cream lace, a panel of lavender charmeuse running under the lace and a deep girdle of the laveneder completed the gowns. With them were worn white Watteau hats, adorned with bows of pink ribbon, a cluster of pink roses and a single lavender orchid. The wedding was one of the most brilliant social functions of the spring in the capitol city.

Charged With Criminal Assault.—After a hearing before Justice William E. Thompson, J. Claude Lloyd, charged with criminal assault on Miss Pearl Smith, a 19-year-old girl of Winchester, was committed without bail to the county jail on Saturday in Centerville to await the action of the grand jury at the May term of the Circuit Court. Before the magistrate, Miss Smith repeated her story of Lloyd having taken her driving last winter and, after making threats of death, assaulted her. The accused maintained his innocence of the assault, claiming an alibi. He has been visited in jail by his fiancee, Miss Lena Jones, at whose home he was arrested on the eve of their wedding.

A Dog-Faced-Colt.—One of the most peculiar freaks of nature ever seen in Delaware is a dog-faced colt, owned by Allison Riggin, a tenant on the E. John Hern farm, between Laurel and Bethel. The colt is normal in every way except that its nostrils, ears and tail are like those of a dog. Hundreds of people have gone to the farm to see the curiosity.
