SPRINGTIME

Buds are bursting open,
Birds are chirping clear;
Nature seems to whisper,
"Wake. Springtime is here."

Winds are blowing gently,
Skies are getting blue,
Days are growing warmer
Summer's coming too.

Soon we'll hear the corkier,
Children scout from school;
Spend their time in frolic
Swimming in the pool.

Everything gleams brightly
Nothing dull and sad,
Happy hours returning,
Cheer up, and be glad.

By GENEVA RANDALL TAYLOR.

IN MEMORIAM

BIAS—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Sarah Ann Bias, who departed this lie our years ago, April 20, 1921.

In the grave yard sweetly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we loved so dearly,
In her lonely silent grave.

Her cheery smile and kindly ways,
Are pleasant to recall,
She had a smile or every one,
And died beloved by all.

BY HER SON AND DAUGHTERS.

FORD—In loving remembrance of my dear sister, Henrietta, who departed this life April 19, 1916

At the bedside of my sister,
Night by night, and day by day,
I watched your loving hands grow thin,
And slowly fade away.

Neath my eyes, she faded slowly,
Growing day by day more frail,
Bearing sweetly all her sufferings,
Till her saviour called her home.

HER LOVING SISTER, NELLY FORD.

HARRIS—In sad remembrance of my dear sister, Matilda Harris, who departed this life two years ago, April 17, 1925.

Although our circle is broken;
And parting thus fills us with pain
We hold as a glorious token
Bright hopes of meeting again

BY HER SISTER, MRS. MINNIE BUTLER, 1328 Myrtle avenue.

KENNARD—In loving remembrance of my dear daughter-in-law, Charity Kennard, who died 8 years ago today, April 8, 1917

Her cheery smile and kindly ways,
Are pleasant to recall;
She had a smile for every one,
And died beloved by all.

BY HER DEVOTED MOTHER-IN-LAW, MRS. JOHANNA CURTIS, 2232 Division Street.

MOODY—In loving remembrance of my dear daughter, Nannie Moody, who departed this life 3 years ago, April 15, 1922

It was early on Wednesday morning,
When the Master's voice called softly,
"Come and rest."
She smiled and sweetly answered,
"Yes."

She is gone, but was so young and fair
She slumbers sweet, but knows no care
Her heart was true, her life was young,
Yet not our will, but God's be done.

BY HER LOVING MOTHER, LENA E. TOGGIE.
