WE ARE

MAKING THEM! Compare quality, fit and workmanship with some of these guaranteed Suits we're turning out. See if you're treating yourself just right, then we'll make yours.

No large rent, no large stock to carry and carry over, no large up-keep is why we're making Suits to order for less money than you can NOW buy ready-mades. Same quality. Think this over.

In connection with my tailoring business, I've added a line of Alpaca and Mohair Coats, Dusters and Raincoats from a manufacturing plant in New York. I carry sample garments and can deliver in two days. Look them over. I'll save you 25 to 30 per cent. on this line also. Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,
SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE INTERNATIONAL TAILORING CO., OF NEW YORK, CHICAGO AND LONDON,
Office Under Voshell House, Next to Robert McWhorter's, CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

CHAUTAUQUA.

The Chestertown Chautauqua is to be essentially a joyous occasion. Besides many concerts capably rendered, and many lectures combining the educational and the entertaining, there will be a number of purely entertaining events.

Ellsworth Plumstead, impersonator, rendering selections from famous American humorists, will come early in the week. There will be plenty of fun when Plumstead turns loose. Grown-ups and youngsters will enjoy him alike. His jollity is the infectious sort which carries his audience off their feet. Edmund Vance Cooke, the well-known poet, after hearing Plumstead in Riley's "Raggedy Man," was inspired to write the following lines which he sent up to the stage at the close of the performance in acknowledgement of the evening's fun:

"Riley wrote the 'Raggedy Man,'
'The Raggedy Man's' a hit.
Riley wrote 'The Raggedy Man,'
But Ellsworth Plumstead's it."

Ross Crane, cartoonist and clay-modeller, with his company of "canvases and crayons, modelling-board and clay, and the piano, to say nothing of the piano stool," as he whimsically puts it, will follow, a little later in the week. His platform work is entertainment, plus. He captivates every audience and every element in every audience. Rarely have all the essentials of a great entertainer been so completely united in one personality. He is a painter, sculptor, humorist, philosopher, always a master of his audiences. Twenty minutes of his program is devoted to sculpture, when, under the swift skill of his hands, six or eight great heads—portraits of men whom the nation loves—as well as caricatures of national types, grow as if by magic from the shapeless clay. The remainder of this program is made up of humorous cartoons and rapid-fire paintings, spiced with the comment of the artist.

Another great event will be the College Players in "Twelfth Night." Ten college people under the direction of Miriam Earley Lippincott will play the famous old comedy in the style for which it was designed. They are excellently costumed and are excellent actors. Their performances will be full of fun and jollity, keeping to the true note of the Chautauqua spirit.
