COWS FED FAIRFIELD'S

"Give Them a Place to Play."

Plenty of room for dives and dens (glitter and glare of sin);
Plenty of room for prison pens (gather the criminals in);
Plenty of room for jails and courts (willing enough to pay),
But never a place for the lads to race—no, never a place to play!
Plenty of room for shops and stores (Mammon must have the best);
Plenty of room for the running sores that rot in the city's breast!
Plenty of room for lures that lead the hearts of youth astray;
But never a cent on playground spent—no, never a place to play!
Plenty of room for schools and halls, plenty of room for art;
Plenty of room for teas and balls, platform, stage and mart.
Proud is the city—she finds a place for many a fad to day;
But she's more than blind if she fails to find a place for the boys to play!
Give them a chance for innocent sport, give them a chance for fun—
Better a playground plot than a court and a jail when the harm is done!
Give them a chance—if you stint them now, tomorrow you'll have to pay
A larger bill for darker ill; so give them a place to play!

—Dennis A. McCarthy.
