OLD COUPLE KILLED!

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 20.—Robert Casey, Jr., keeper of a general store on the Philadelphia and Wilmington Turnpike at Claymont, near here, and his wife were murdered in their beds in the house over the store sometime during last night, evidently while they slept.

The murder was committed by thieves, who afterward plundered the house and store, breaking open the safe and carrying off all the contents of value. Mr. and Mrs. Casey were the only occupants of the house.

The crime was committed with a club about an inch thick and a foot long. With this the heads of the victims were battered in, after which the club was thrown beside the bed.

The murder was discovered by Wharton B. Neal, a driver for a Wilmington baker, who had gone to the store to deliver bread.

Mr. Casey was a veteran of the Civil War, having served in the One Hundred and Twenty-Fourth and One-Hundred and Twelfth Pennsylvania regiments. He was 70 years of age and his wife 72.

THE TOLCHESTER FAIR

The Kent and Queen Anne's County Fair, to be held at Tolchester, August 30, 31, September 1 and 2, promises to be fine. The managers had set a high mark, but their anticipations are being exceeded. A corps of clerks are nightly busy booking entries from all parts of the State for the various departments. Heretofore most of the entries were from the adjoining counties. The Granges of Kent and Queen Anne's counties are in a red-hot competition for supremacy. So much greater are the spaces asked for than in former years that the managers had to make a hurry order for a tent 40x100 feet in which to put the extra farm product exhibits.

The grange and farm product showing promises to be the largest ever made at a fair held on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

This appears to be apple year. The demand for spaces for the exhibit of this fruit is phenominally large. There is a strong competition being manifested between the apple growers of Delaware and Western Maryland, while the Eastern Shore will have a big display. This is stirring considerable interest in Kent and Queen Anne's counties, as the orchard industry is now a predominant matter of interest to the farmers of this section. Secretary George E. Noland says this year's fair will mark an epoch in the agricultural history of this chosen section of Maryland.

A SAINTED ONE GONE

Her Long and Patient Sufferings Are Ended.

A sweet saintly spirit has been translated! Miss Emma Merritt so long known and loved as an exemplary christian woman and a blessed angel of mercy at many a suffering couch and in many a sorrowing household, has passed from earthly weakness and pain to eternal vigor and bliss.

She had long been a patient invalid, but with christian fortitude and without murmur she drank to the last weary drop the full cup of her earthly sufferings; and conscious always whither she was hastening in the early morning hours of Tuesday, peacefully sank into her last long sleep, "like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

Miss Merritt was for many years a member of the M. E. Church of Middletown, and well did her former pastor Wyatt say of her, that her loss to that church was irreparable." Although never of robust health, all her life long she was so industriously, so lovingly, dedicate to the service of her Master and His needy ones, that all who beheld, marvelled at the labors that blessedly crowned her useful life.

She was president of the Mite Society, Recording Secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and also the Chairman of the Look out Committee of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, and actively took part in the affairs of every one of these organizations.

But it was in the home field of sorrow and suffering that this tender hearted woman, like the gentle soul that has but a few hours preceded her in Heaven, Florence Nightingale, most beautifully exploited her warm heart and helpful hand. Quietly and with no parade of service she gave ever the cup of cold water in the name of her Lord, and the needed words of comfort and strength that ministered to the fainting spirit not less than that to the failing body. And the fragrant memory of her rare christian life will long linger not only about the lintels of her own blessed home, but in the portals of the Temple where she worshiped and in the homes where she served.

Her funeral which was held at her late home on Crawford Street, on Thursday at 2 p. m., was very largely attended both from the town and by carriages from a distance. The Revs. C. T. Wyatt and J. A. Arters conducted the services. In and about the casket lay a profusion of beautiful flowers fashioned by the loving hands of those who knew and cherished her. An especially handsome piece composed of white and purple asters covered the entire coffin as it was born to the hearse. Mr. Wyatt paid a warm and appreciated tribute to her devoted christian life and character, and Mr. Arters spoke reverently of the last visit he paid her, as one in whose dying chamber the presence of God Himself was felt. The music, singing and playing was sweet and appropriate.

At her own request the following named gentlemen served as pall-bearers: Enoch G. Allen, M. B. Burris, M. D. Wilson, Edward S. Jones, Minos Banning and Samuel J. Brockston. Interment was at M. E. Cemetery.

The deceased was a sister to Mrs. J. C. Staats, of Fairlee, and known to many in Kent.

Woman's Power Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N.Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and strengthen Stomach, Liver and Bowels.
