NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Having accepted a State position, I have arranged with Mr. Edgar P. Beck, to take care of my Insurance business during my absence from Chestertown. Mr. Beck is an experienced Insurance man, and I am confident he will look after the interest of my patrons faithfully and well. All my business and the companies I represented have been transferred to his agency. Thanking you for past favors and hoping to retain your business, I am,

Very truly yours,

LOCAL MATTERS

To Be Assistant Superintendent.—Prof. L. C. Robinson, formerly principal of the Millington High School, has been appointed assistant superintendent of county schools to succeed Miss Anna Smyth, who takes her place in the High School faculty. Prof. Robinson is a capable man, and will be a valuable assistant to Supt. Smyth.

To Take Dr. Kingman's Place.—Dr. C. L. Townsend has been elected acting professor of French and German in the Washington College faculty to succeed Dr. Robert Kingman, who has accepted a position at Riverside, Conn. Dr. Townsend is a graduate of McGill University, Canada, and holds the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Harford University. He has studied in Europe, and is a scholar of note. Prof. Ryan's place has not yet been filled.

New Parcel Post Rates.—The new parcels post rates went into effect on Wednesday. There is a fee of one cent for receipt for uninsured parcel post, 5 cents for insurance to the value of $25, 10 cents for $50 value and 25 cents for $100 value. Anything to the weight of 50 pounds may be taken, even auto tires and automobile accessories, baskets of peaches, merchandise, etc. The post office officials will be glad to furnish any information desired, and there is no reason why shipment cannot be made by parcel post, because it is very much cheaper than shipment by express.

Fine Undertaker Establishment.—Undertaker William H. Krusen, of Still Pond, has just completed one of the finest undertaking establishment on the Shore having remodeled the old building and built an addition of a chapel or funeral room with a seating capacity of fifty persons, this gives Mr. Krusen a show room, trimming room, office and chapel combined in the one building. The chapel is frescoed in pale green and lavender with gothic windows, and the office and show room in cream with light brown trimmings. The outside is finished with cedar shingles stained bungalow green with light gray trimmings. Mr. Krusen is thus prepared to handle his large business with ease and in an up to date manner.

Edwin Warfield is Strongly for Lee.

"I shall give earnest support to Senator Lee for the nomination for Governor," said former Governor Edwin Warfield this week. "I advocated his nomination four years ago and I have no reason now to change the views I had of him then. The only difference is that his greater experience since 1911 should make him even better qualified to fill the high office of Governor.

"At the meeting at Mount Airey today, at which Senator Lee, Mayor Preston and others will speak and which meeting will be attended by Democrats from four counties—Howard, Montgomery, Frederick and Carroll—I will state in detail my reasons for supporting Senator Lee.

"It is sufficient at this time to say that I have absolute confidence in his ability, patriotic zeal and integrity, and that I am convinced that he is qualified by his fine personality and his progressive views and principles to give this State a great administration as Governor."

Mr. Stafford has moved to his home on Cross street which he has recently remoddled. Mrs. Stam will remove to the house vacated by Mr. Brown as soon as some repairs are made. Mr. Julian Power will occupy the house vacated by Mrs. Stam.

TERRIBLE AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

Graham & Clements' Big Auto Bus, on Way From Betterton, Runs Into Ditch and Seriously Injures Two Men and Others Are More or Less Injured.

While enroute from Betterton to Chestertown on Thursday night, the big auto bus of Graham & Clements, in order to avoid a collision with teams, was ditched at Grebbs' corner, just outside of Still Pond. The big car struck the ditch and turned on its side, throwing the occupants out, and pinning several under the car. There were in the car besides the chauffeur, Mr. Jewell, the following passengers: Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Graham and son, Harry, Miss Mary Feddeman, of Millington, Mr. Richard Collins, Messrs, Christ Alevizatos, of the Chestertown Candy Kitchen, and his friend, Mr. Oblamos, one of the proprietors of the Diamond and another big restaurant in Baltimore, and several others. Mr. Graham took his family and several guests to Betterton to attend the dance. Christ and his friend did not go to Betterton, but asked Mr. Graham to bring them to Chestertown, as they had no other way to get here. Christ and his friend got on the front seat with the chauffeur. When the accident occurred Christ and his friend and the chauffeur were thrown forward, and Christ was hit by the top of the car. Mr. Richard Collins ran to his assistance and endeavored to extricate him. It was found that his arm was broken, and his skull was fractured at the base of the brain. His friend sustained a broken arm and a fractured rib, while the chauffeur was badly bruised. Fortunately the other passengers received nothing more than a severe nervous shock. The top of the big car was smashed and it was otherwise damaged.

Mr. Raymond Bonwell happened along in his car shortly after the accident and took the injured men to the home of Dr. Lewis Atwell in Still Pond, where their wounds were dressed. They were brought to Chestertown later, and Dr. H. G. Simpers was summoned. He found the condition of Christ so serious that both he and Mr. Oblamos were removed to the hospital in Easton. Christ's condition is regarded as extremely critical. A report from the Easton hospital just before we went to press stated that Christ is doing well, has suffered no collapse, and stood the operation finely. The pysichians expect his recovery. Mr. Oblamos is doing well.

This is a most distressing accident, but it is most fortunate that all the occupants of the car were not killed. No fault is attached to either the owners of the car or to the chauffuer, according to the details of the accident. A collision with the teams may have proven a terrible calamity, and while the accident is serious enough, the chauffuer nor the owners should be censured, if the details concerning the accident are correct. But it a severe lesson to our autorists. Be careful. Don't be foolhardy. Don't go as if the Devil himself were after you. Be sensible. Be considerate, and you will avoid trouble. Christ is a fine youg man. He is quiet, industrious, polite and a splendid business man. It is greatly to be hoped that he will recover.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

PAUL BOWERS GRAHAM.

Mr. Paul Bowers Graham, eldest son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Walter R. Graham, died at the home of his parents, Christ Church parsonage, on Monday morning, after a lingering illness, aged 39 years. Mr. Graham had been a sufferer for some years with lung affection, and had done everything in his power to stay the effects of the dread disease, even going so far as Arizona that he might find vigor and health and be restored to his most estimable family. A splendid future had just dawned upon the young man when he was stricken in health. For some years he held the very responsible position of cashier of a large bank in Washington, and it was while living in the capital city that he met and married Miss Laura Peterson, the noble wife, who has been his consolation and joy in his hours of suffering.

Mr. Graham was a young man of high ideals and brilliant mind. He aspired to be a man among men in the world of business, and success would have crowned his efforts had he been able to enjoy good health and strength. He was a man of remarkable courage, and though his suffering was heartrending at times, he tried to be brave that he might not increase the anguish and sorrow of those who loved him and lavished upon him the most devoted attention. There is always a peculiar sadness attending the death of a young man. It is like stripping the great forest of the young oak that in time is to become the mighty giant of the world.

Our community sympathizes with the families and we are anxious to say any word or perform any act that will assuage their grief. The deceased leaves a widow, who before marriage was Miss Laura Pearson, of Washington, and three children—two sons and one daughter. Funeral services were held at the home of his parents on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfied, of Baltimore, a favorite and warm friend of the deceased, assisted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd. The floral tribute was exquisite. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Walter, Harold and J. Newall Graham, brothers, E. Dale Adkins, brother-in-law, of Salisbury; Morris Hoffman and S. Lansburg, brothers-in-law, of Washington, D. C.

ALLEN E. BURKE.

Allen E. Burke died at his home in Cecilton, Tuesday, August 24, of Bright's disease. He was a native of Pennsylvania but the greater part of his life was spent in Maryland. He was in his sixty-fourth year. For many years he conducted a harness business in Cecilton. He leaves a widow, who was formerly Miss Hurley, and three children, Irving and Clifton Burke, of Cecilton, and Mrs. Arthur Bailey, of Sassafras. Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon at his late residence by Rev. R. I. Watkins, of Middletown, N. Y. Interment in Cecilton Cemetery. The Masonic service was used at the grave.

MRS. MARY J. GIBSON.

Mrs. Mary J. Gibson, one of the most highly respected and best known women of lower Kent, died last Friday of Brights disease at her home near Tolchester, aged 50 years. She leaves the following children: Roy Gibson and Mrs. Blanche Cares, of Baltimore; Millard, Reuben and Gladys Gibson, of Kent, and step children: Harry, John, Elwood and Laura Gibson. The pallbearers were: J. Page Gale, A. P. Forman, Charles Wood, Samuel Gears, Byrd Sutton, Linwood Sutton. Funeral was held from her late home Sunday, conducted by Dr. Nickerson, interment in Chester cemetery. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

MRS. AGNES K. BARRANGER.

Mrs. Agnes K. Barranger, wife of Lieutenant John L. Barranger, of Baltimore, died on Tuesday morning at Tolchester, where they had just gone for the benefit of her health. The remains were taken to Baltimore on Tuesday morning in charge of Undertaker J. E. Ferguson.

JOHN CECIL WALTERS.

John Cecil Walters, infant son of Joseph and Mary E. Walters, of Piney Neck, died on Tuesday night. Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Alonza Travers. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

We regret to state that Miss Cora McWhorter, the interesting daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. McWhorter, is quite sick with typhoid fever.

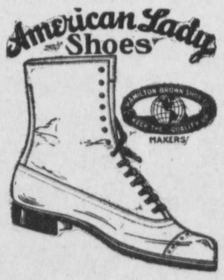
SCHOOL DAYS ARE COMING

and you will want to fix the Boy and Girl up in a good durable, as well as dressy pair of School Shoes.

We have anticipated your wants, and have them already on the shelf. So many parents have told us they could not get good School Shoes; but when they have purchased a pair of our School Shoes, they always come back for another pair just like the last pair they bought. This is pretty good evidence they do all or more than we claim for them.



School Shoes for Boys and Girls in all the leading leathers. Styles---Blucher, Bal. or Button. Every pair guaranted solid, to give good honest wear. We will give a new pair free of cost for any pair that does not wear to your satisfaction. Of course, we don't guarantee them not to wear out.

Prices $1.50 to $3.00.
