Two other measures that have been standing questions before Con gress and the subjects of constant recommendations by the different Secretaries of the Navy are the improvement of our navy and strengthening our sea coast defences. While there is no doubt of the inade quacy of our coast defences the necessity for rebuilding the navy gradual y is still more apparent.

We should not be surprised to see a modification of the pension laws in the interest of economy as the drain they are making on the treasury is enormous, the Arrears Bill alone requiring several hundred millions of dollars in addition to what has been already expended VALUABLE REAL ESTATE!
