What do You Think?

When you meet a fellow on the street and his face is warped and twisted by an unholy scowl, what do you think?

When a lazy duffer hogs a whole seat on a train and lets a tired woman stand with a baby in her arms, what do you think?

When John Smith whispers into your ear that Tom Jones "is a good one to look out for," but that you must not tell anyone that he (Smith) said so, what do you think?

When one woman tells you that another woman "is the biggest gossip in town and that gossip's cupboard is just jammed with skeletons," what do you think?

When a politician promises you the earth with an iron fence around it and the moon with all of its green cheese if you will only vote for him, what do you think?

When a public official forgets all of his promises and loses his good resolutions and becomes as blind as a bat as soon as he is inducted into office, what do you think?

When a man coughs up a stiff prayer in church on Sunday and then skins you in a sharp deal on Monday, what do yot think?

When a preacher tells you of the glories of religion and of the benefits of purity in your own daily life, and then goes off and eats his Sunday dinner with the biggest old church hypocrite in town, what do yon think?

When you hear a fellow bragging of the great deeds he has done and you know he is lying faster than an automobile can speed, what do you think?

When a man tells you a smutty story of some good woman and you know her character is as wite as his soul is black, what do you think?

When you hear a young braggart making suggestive remarks about every young girl in town except his own sister, what do you think?

When you see one man trying to undermine the legitimate business of another by making veiled allusions to possible financial disaster, what do you think?

When a man owes you a dollar and crosses the street to avoid meeting you, what do you think?

When a girl leads a man on to declaring himself and then deliberately tosses him over without compunction, what do you think?

When a man trifles with the affections of a good woman and then is not honorable enough to live up to his word, what do you think?

When a duffer borrows a five spot from you and promises to return it tomorrow, and tomorrow never comes, what do you think?

When a man looks you in the eye and tells you a deliberate lie, and you know that he is lying and that he knows that you know it, what do you think?

And if you should happen to do any of these things, what do you think other people would think?

In the general Fund, Kent County Savings Bank, there is shown a balance of $4,644.57 and the Millington Bank $347.79, making a total of $4,992.36.

The Board found it necessary to borrow $14,000 (which sum is not yet paid) in order to pay the teachers' salaries and an old indebtedness of $6,000.00; so that instead of an actual balance of $4,992.36 there is an apparent deficit of $9,007.64, but at the end of the fiscal year there was due from the County Commissioners $1,000 and from Queen Anne's, the tuition for Queen Anne's pupils $630, thus making a total still due of $1,630. This amount deducted from $9,007.64 leaves an actual deficit of $7,377.64.

We hereby certify that we have examined the foregoing report of Jefferson L. Smyth, Secretary and Treasurer of Kent County School Board, and vouchers upon which it is based and find it correct.
