VOL. LV—NO. 29. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1915 $1.00 PER ANNUM

To the Public of Kent County and the Patrons of the THIRD NATIONAL BANK of Chesterrown, Md.

One of the evidences of the fact that a bank which is solvent and growing, progressive and wide-a-wake to the needs of the people is the fact that it is of good to the community it serves.

The Third National Bank desires to announce that it measures far beyond the highest standard in this respect of any bank in the county and far surpasses its nearest competitor.

In June we paid interest on Savings Deposits.....$10,236.72
In December we paid interest on Savings Deposits..... 11,208.09

Total amount paid our Savings Depositors in 1915.....$21,444.81

What better evidence do you wish than this to show that this bank, out of its earnings, has divided among its Savings Depositors such a great sum of money?

We now have in the Savings Department of this bank on which we are paying FOUR PER CENT., $594,166.70.

We solicit your banking business.

Very respectfully,

The Third National Bank of Chestertown, Md.
