VIRGINIA DENTISTS AT ROANOKE LAST WEEK

1st row left to right—Drs. Dudley, Coleman, Calloway, Logan, Reeves, Taylor, Harwell, E. D. Downing. 2nd row, left to right--Coppage, Pettis, Wells, Jackson, Bradley, Williams, Womack, Ferguson. 3rd row left to right--Banks, Ward, Fears, Thomas, Childs, Coles, Ramsey, Land, Hilton, Tribbitt. 4th row left to right--L. A. Reid, G. P. Downing, Evans, Priestley, A. O. Reid, Brown, Norris, Weeden.

Society

Mrs. C. Herbert Bradley, of Philadelphia, Pa., has been the house guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ridgley, 1510 McCulloh street, and Miss Rose Norris, also of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with the Ridgleys.

• • •

Charles Ridgley, of Philadelphia, Pa., spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ridgley, 1510 McCulloh street.

• • •

STORK VISITS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cole are being congratulated on the birth of a son, Easter Monday at the home of Mr. Cole's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Cole, 312 N. Eoppleton street.

• • •

Mrs. R. W. S. Thomas and daughter, Miss, 141 W. Hill street, spent the Easter holidays with Mrs. Thomas' sister, Mary Teedle, in Washington, D. C.

• • •

The Ministers' Wives Association, of the M. E. Church, met with Mrs. R. W. S. Thomas, of 141 W. Hill street, Holy Thursday. The invited guests were: Mrs. Mary Handy, Mrs. C. H. Stepteau, Mrs. I. A. Morley, Mrs. C. H. Harris, Mrs. J. J. Jordan, Mrs. J. T. Colbert, Mrs. C. Cummings and Mrs. W. H. Taylor, of Washington, D. C.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Moore and son, Paul R., and Mr. Thadius Copeland motored to Richmond, Newport News and Hampton, Va., last Friday and stayed over Sunday. While in Hampton they visited the University and returned home Monday.

• • •

CLASS LEADERS ILL

Mr. William E. Mitchell, 1716 McCulloh street, and Mrs. Samuel Cooper, 1033 Argyle avenue, both class leaders in Metropolitan M. E. Church, are confined to their homes because of illness.

• • •

JUNIOR MISSIONARIES MEET

The Junior Mite Missionary Society, of Trinity A. M. E. Church, met at 201 Falls Road, Roland Park, at the residence of the superintendent. Miss Minerva Campbell, vice president, presided.

After a short social hour a repast was served. Instructive talks were given by several officials. Miss Bertina Hill president; Minerva Campbell, vice president; Naomi Stewart, secretary.

• • •

MOTHER'S CLUB STAGES BAZAAR

The Mother's Club, of Asbury M. E. Sunday School, assisted by the Day Nursery, of East Baltimore, held a bazaar at St. Mary's Hall, April 16th.

GIVEN RECEPTION

Miss Elsie Mountain, who recently resigned as social director of the Sharp Street Community House, was given a reception on Wednesday evening by the M. E. Sunday School Council.

On Motor Trip

Mrs. Florence Jackson, Mrs. Willie Robinson, Messrs. Victor Turner and Ambrose Justice motored to Baltimore, where they were the guests of Mrs. Louise Pierson, of W. Franklin street.

—o—

Mrs. Sophia Wise Smith, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who has been visiting her sisters, the Misses Mollie E. Wise, Mrs. Grinage and Mrs. D. B. Saunders, of Frederick, Md., spent one day with her sister, Mrs. Lillian Wise Johnson enroute to Pittsburgh.

• • •

Mr. John R. Martin spent the Easter holidays in Pleasantville, N. J., as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hammond.

• • •

MRS. WHEATLEY ENTERTAINS

Mr. Ralph Banks, well known baritone, of Howard University and Philadelphia, and Prof. Roy Tibbs, instructor in music, also of Howard University, were visitors in Baltimore last week, and while here they attended the Half Century dance and were the house guests of Dr. and Mrs. Edward J. Wheatley, of 1220 Druid Hill avenue. Several of the friends of the two gentlemen and the Wheatleys were over to hear Mr. Banks sing. He will graduate from Howard University this spring.

• • •

WOODMEN CELEBRATE

The 24th anniversary services of the American Woodmen were held Sunday afternoon at Asbury M. E. Church. Rev. S. H. Brown is pastor.

• • •

Miss Marie Butler, 502 Sanford Place, spent Easter in Harlem, N. Y., with Mr. and Mrs. Small, 240 W. 137th street.

• • •

Miss Norma Williams, of Fairmont, W. Va., who spent the Easter holidays with her mother, Mrs. Phyllis West, and sister, Mrs. Phyllis Teackle, both of 1307 Myrtle avenue, has returned to her home after a delightful trip, full of events. Miss Williams, who was once a resident here, was very much entertained by her many friends.

• • •

MRS. DUNGEE ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Helen Dungee, of 274 Linden avenue, entertained at dinner Easter Sunday in honor of Miss Norma Williams, of Fairmont, W. Va. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers, Mrs. Phyllis Teackle, Miss Norma Williams, Miss Moore, of Philadelphia; Mr. Heywood, of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mr. John Brooks.

• • •

Dr. Albert O. Reid attended the Old Dominion State Dental Association Convention in Roanoke, Va., last week.

• • •

Mrs. Addie Davenport, of Northumberland, Va., who was in town visiting her sister, Mrs. Martha Flanoy, of 1035 Park avenue, returned home Sunday.

• • •

TEMPERANCE HEAD RETURNS

Mrs. Margaret Peck Hill, president, Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Maryland, has just completed a one month tour of the State of New Jersey.

While in the State, Mrs. Hill visited 25 cities and towns, delivering addresses at each place.

Health, Child-Welfare and Scientific Temperance demonstrations were given in many schools. On a whole, Mrs. Hill says: "Prohibition is fast becoming a reality in New Jersey and 'dry' sentiment is everywhere manifest among the better thinking people. Ministers and teachers were everywhere co-operative and aided materially in pledging 2500 boys and girls against alcohol, drugs and profanity."

In the recent city Sunday school prize essay contest, Misses Agnes Wilson and Mary Queen were the successful entrants. Forty-two schools entered the contest.

Mrs. Lutie Packney, of 631 N. Central avenue, left the city Tuesday, April 7th, to visit her father, at Thelma, N. C., who is very ill. It is expected that she will be gone for some time.

• • •

VILLA FLORAS MEET

The Villa Flora Social met at the home of Mrs. John Turner, 818 Fulton street, Sparrows Point, on Tuesday, April 7th, and after the usual business a Charleston contest was held for the enjoyment of the members present, after which they were ushered into the dining room, where dinner was beautifully served by the hostess.

• • •

GIVE EASTER DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Whittington, 565 Mosher street, gave an Easter dinner on Sunday evening in honor of Miss Mae Williams. The guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Willie White, Mrs. Emma Johnson, Miss Mattie Baker, Miss Mariah Jones and Miss Elsie Whittington.

• • •

Mr. H. M. Evans, secretary of Mt. Olivet Christian Church, also State secretary of the district convention, who has been confined to his room at 529 Dolphin street, is able to be out and return to his former duties.

• • •

HONORED AT PARTY

A surprise party was given to Mrs. Katherine Lee, 5114 Barclay street, on Wednesday night, April 8th, by the Royal Art Club. Members: Mrs. Ethel Shell, president; Mrs. Lucy Singleton, Mrs. Lotta Harris. Guests: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boykins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodland, Mrs. Mary Hill; Messrs. Edward Shell, Singleton, Gee, Gettings.

• • •

PHILADELPHIANS VISIT

Mrs. Rebecca Seamon, Mrs. Mary Miss Fannie Seamon and Mr. Mack Taylor, Mrs. Annie Bean, Thelma Bean, Seamon motored from Philadelphia, Pa., and spent Easter holiday at the residence of Miss Viola Smith, 566 St. Mary's street.

• • •

Miss Anita B. Thompson was the guest fo Dr. and Mrs. Price, of Washington, at the announcement dance of their daughter, Lyneer. She was also guest of Mrs. William Wilson at her club dance.

• • •

Miss Hilda Anthony, of Columbia University, spent the Easter holidays with her mother in this city.

• • •

Miss Estella Jenkins, 1425 Madison avenue, is confined to her home with influenza. Her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

• • •

Mr. DuBois, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Miss Eva Coleman, 1237 McElderry street, this week.

• • •

Mrs. J. Logan Jenkins, 1432 Druid Hill avenue, is indisposed at this writing.

• • •

Mrs. George Poulson, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. William Adams, of Lutherville, Md.

• • •

Master Paul Weldon, who was a guest of Miss Marjorie B. White, 1233 W. Lafayette avenue, during Easter week, has now returned to his home in Scotland, Md.

• • •

Mr. L. H. Davenport has returned from Northumberland County, Va., after attending the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Julian Snyder, who died March 26th.

• • •

EVER-READYS ARE READY

The Ever Ready Whist Club meets Friday evening, April 17th, at 510 Gold street, the residence of Mr. William Green. This club issues a challenge to all strong clubs of the city or State. O. J. Barber, 1216 Myrtle avenue, president.

GOLDEN CHAIN ORGANIZED

A group of girls met at 851 Vine street, on February 18th for the purpose of organizing a club, also naming it. The officers are: Mrs. Mabel Jones, president; Mrs. Violet Allen, vice president; Mrs. Beulah Smith, secretary; Mrs. Florence Carter, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Alma Hogs, chaplain; Mrs. Elsie Reddick, treasurer. Our books are open for new members.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of 1213 Whatcoat street, and Mr. and Mrs. Bushrod Carey, of the same address, motored to Wilmington, Del., and Philadelphia, Pa. They were the guests of Mr. David Waters, of Addison street.

• • •

Miss Julia Goens, a school teacher, of Atlantic City, was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Mary B. Adams, 508 Gold street, during the Easter holidays.

Mrs. Charles Griffin, of Mount Washington and her daughter, Emma, spent the Easter holidays in Philadelphia.

• • •

Mrs. Bertha Woolford, of 420 N. Carolina street, is confined to her bed with la grippe.

• • •

Miss Emma C. Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffin, of Mount Washington, has returned to Howard University after spending the holidays in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

• • •

Hayser M. Bruce, a student at Howard University, spent the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Bruce, of 562 Dolphin street.

• • •

Mrs. George M. Lane, who has been ill and under the care of Dr. William Wright, has recovered and resumed her duties as assistant to her husband on April 22.

• • •

EVER READY DEFEATS WASHINGTON CLUB

The Ever Ready Whist Club, of this city, motored to Washington April 12th, and defeated the strong Concord Whist Club 500—248 points, and was also awarded the Club Prize. Those composing the Baltimore team were: O. J. Barbour, John Howard, Charles Berry, Arthur Sheppard, Morris Fobbs, Oscar Moore, Harry Macabee, Ernest Myers, David Washington, A. Scott, Ernest Johnson, William Queen.

• • •

Misses Mae and Dorethel Young, of 1739 McCulloh street, spent the Easter holidays in Washington, as the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Burgess and daughter, Lillian, 1245 22nd street, northwest.

• • •

D. C. VISITORS

Wayland Rudd, well known newspaper correspondent and insurance man, was in the city this week and called at the Afro office.

W. E. Lew, former district agent of Standard Life, and now instructor of music at Bowie Normal Schol, was an Afro caller last week.

• • •

PHILADELPHIAN VISITS

Mr. H. O. Crockett, wife of the Rev. S. S. Crockett, of Johnstown, Pa., returned home on Friday after a two weeks' stay in the city as house guest of Mrs. R. C. Williams, of Woodbourne avenue, and Mrs. W. Hawkins, of St. George Road, Wilson Park.

Mrs. Crockett was royally entertained by her many friends during her visit.

On Thursday from 4 until 6, the following ladies assembled at the home of Mrs. Williams to say Au revoir to Mrs. Crockett: Mesdames Wm. Gray, J. W. Jones, J. H. Taylor, W. Hawkins, J. Burks, W. J. Winston, J. A. Taylor and Mrs. Geary, both of Washington.

• • •

"DE MODE" MEETS

The Club "De Mode" met with Mrs. Bessie Evans, 2037 Madison avenue, Friday, April 17th. A very delightful evening was spent in Pattern drafting, cutting and fitting and embroidery. A dainty repast was served, after which the club adjourned. The members of the club are: Mrs. Louisa Curry, president; Miss Marry Dennis, secretary; Mrs. Olga Washington, treasurer; Mrs. Gertrude Cooper, chaplain; Mrs. Bessie Evans, Mrs. Tolkqueenia King, Mrs. Kate Thomas, Mrs. Malinee Thomas, Mrs. Clara Watson, Mrs. Annebell Curry, Mrs. Martha Waters, Mrs. Juanita King Allen, Mrs. Minnie Smith, Mrs. Susie Smith, Mrs. Rhea Brown, Miss Lyda Curry.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Philmore Howell, of Grafton, W. Va., are in the city visiting their son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. M. D. Willis, of 1202 Whitelock street.

• • •

Misses Edna Jackson and Norma Morpin, of New York City, spent the Easter holidays in Baltimore as the house guests of Misses Cordelia Dorsey and Louise Jackson, of 2434 McCulloh street.

• • •

On Friday evening, April 17, 1925, Miss Bertha E. Garrett, of 422 Hutchins avenue, gave a party at her residence in honor of her Easter guest, Miss Edith Lane, of Matthews County, Va. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all. At a late hour a lovely repast was Elizabeth Trusty, Miss Hilda Flemmings, Miss Edith Francis, Miss Virgina Mack, Miss Bertha Garrett, Mr. Archie Parrott, Mr. Robert Parrot, Mr. Rodgers Banks, Mr. Collie Morgan, Mr. Edward Custis, Mr. Roland Flemmings, Mr. Marce, Mrs. Louise Shuru, Mrs. Annie Coleman, Miss L. Curtis. The out of town guests were, Miss Edith Lane and Mrs. Roberta Lane.

Mrs. Perkins Honored

Mrs. B. T. Perkins, of 1900 Druid Hill avenue, has been highly entertained with farewell parties by the different auxiliaries of the church before leaving for their home in Washington, D. C., where the Rev. Perkins will take up his new charge.

The Flower Circle, Metropolitan M. E. Church, entertained in honor of Mrs. Perkins at the home of Mrs. Richard Bowers, Easter Monday night. Covers were laid for 18 guests. She was presented with a rose bedspread.

The Minister's Wives Association, of the M. E. Churches, of Baltimore, also entertained in honor of Mrs. B. T. Perkins, Tuesday, April 14 from 5 o'clock to 7 o'clock p. m., at the home of Mrs. Ida R. Cummings, 1234 Druid Hill avenue, president of the association.

The invited guests were the ministers' wives of all other denominations in Baltimore. And from 8 p. m., to 11 p. m. Mrs. Perkins will be entertained by the Ladies Aid No. 2, of Metropolitan M. E. Church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Henry Waters, of 849 Hamilton Terrace.

—o—

Mr. James Dorsey, 813 Vine street, spent Easter holidays with his grandmother, Mrs. Annie S. Watkins, of Howard County, Md.

• • •

Misses Mary and Tlizabeth Dorsey have returned to their home, 839 Paca street, after attending the funeral of their father, Mr. Henson Dorsey, at Jonestown, Howard County, Md.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon have returned to their home in North Philadelphia, after attending the funeral of her brother, Mr. Henson Dorsey, of Jonestown.

• • •

Mrs. Ernest Lyon, 828 N. Carey street, was a guest fo the Bachelor's dance, Tuesday night, April 14, in Washington.

• • •

TENEROONS ENTERTAINED

The Teneroon Jubilee Singers, highly enjoyed themselves at a reception given at the home of Mrs. Mary Parker, Easter Monday evening, 1159 Mount street. Miss Eva Hughes, contralto, was unable to be present, owing to illness and her presence was greatly missed.

• • •

GRIFFIN—HAWLEY

Miss Elizabeth Hawley, of 2225 Druid Hill avenue, was married to Mr. Cyrus Griffin, Saturday evening. They will make their home at 1925 McCulloh street. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hawly, of Warrenton, Va.

• • •

EL PROGRESSIVE CLUB

The El Progressive Club, of Morgan College and Johns Hopkins University will give a program Sunday at 5 o'clock p. m., in the college chapel, in the interest of the Epworth League. Vandalia Henderson is president.

• • •

HONORS ORGANIZTR

The Flower Circle of Metropolitan M. E. Church entertained the Rev. and Mrs. B. T. Perkins at the residence of Mrs. Maggie Bowser, 910 Argyle avenue. The Rev. C. Y. Trigg and Mrs. A. Hawkins were also present.

The Circle presented the organizer, Mrs. Perkins, a handsome old rose spread as a token of appreciation of her splendid service. Mrs. Emma Day, president; Mrs. Lillie Gantt, secretary.

Social Calendar

APRIL 23

Who-But-Us will stage an old fashioned party at the residence of Miss Elizabeth Lee, Druid Hill Ave.

• • •

APRIL 24

The Catholic Scholarship Fund Association's card party at 1217 W. Lafayette avenue.

• • •

The Club De Mode will meet with Mrs. Andrew King, at 705 N. Caroline street.

• • •

The Chesterfields will hold their Informal Prom at Elks' Hall.

• • •

The Poinsetta Novelty Club will meet at the Pythian Castle.

• • •

Friday Evening Whist Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Bessie Coleman, 2006 Division street.

• • •

APRIL 27

The "Tattler Touts" of Baltimore will give their first annual Subscription Dance at St. Mary's Hall. Music by Reggie Hamer's orchestra.

• • •

Jesters' Pleasure Social will meet in their Mid-Spring Dance at the Pythian Castle. Ike Dixon's orchestra will furnish music.

• • •

The Social and Literary Club will meet with Mr. Elmer Williams, of 1910 McCulloh St.

• • •

Masonic Recital and Reception at Lyric Theatre.

• • •

Turquoise S. & L. Club will meet at the residence of George Johnson, 1329 Lafayette avenue at 8 p. m.

• • •

APRIL 29

The Etude Club will meet with Mrs. J. Logan Jenkins, Mosher and Druid Hill avenue.

• • •

MAY 1

Public Reception at Trinity A. M. E. Church in honor of Mme. Malone of the Poro College, St. Louis, Mo., at 8 p. m.

• • •

Annual Charity Ball for the benefit of Cardinal Gibbons Institute at New Albert Auditorium.

—o—

PORO HEAD COMING

cal Poro agents, May 1st. A public reception will be held for her at Trinity A. M. E. Church at 8 p. m. All agents and friends are invited. Mrs. E. Taylor, president; Mrs. H. Moore, secretary.

• • •

MISS HILL, HOSTESS

Miss Georgie Hill, of 1101 Division street, was the hostess at a 5 o'clock tea, Sunday in honor of Miss Lillian Stewart and company, Mr. Samuel Tingle.

The guests of honor were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Parago, Mrs. Eleanor Stegall, Miss Nellie Bishop, Miss Mattie Carrington, of Cumberland, Va., Mr. Sidney Armstrong and Mr. Harry Collick.

MRS. MARTIN ENTERTAINS MANY

Mrs. Rosie Martin, of 556 W. Biddle street, entertained quite a number of guests on last Sunday. The out of town guests were: Her sister, Mrs. Minnie Johnson, of New York; her niece, Mrs. Emma Williams of New York; Mrs. Martha Martin, Miss Keys, Miss Priscilla Snead and Miss Bessie Wright, of Philadelphia; Miss Hester Hemsley and Mrs. Pickette, of Atlantic City; Mr. J. Squire Taylor, of Harrisburg; Mr. Sample, of Atlantic City. The city guests were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. Naomi Matthews, Mrs. Emma Harmon, Mr. Robert Turner, Mr. Hebry Booker, Mr. and Mrs. Lockman, Mr. and Mrs. George Satchell, Mr. Jas. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Peticolas, Mr. Paul Martin, Mrs. Sarah Custis, Miss Carrie Perkins, Mr. Willie Kellam, of Philadelphia.

• • •

FIFTY SOCIAL DEFEATS THE TURQUOISE CLUB

The Fifty Social and Literary Club met and defeated the Turquoise Literary Club in their first competitive recital at Calvary Baptist Church, April 16. Eacey West is president; Elmer Morris, secretary.

• • •

FAREWELL RECEPTION

Mr. Leonard Lyles, of Overlea, gave a farewell reception Thursday evening to his few friends. He is accepting a high position with a large contractor in Atlanta, Ga.

• • •

Miss Edith Lane, of Matthews County, Virginia, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Roberta Lane, returned to her home Sunday, April 19, after spending Easter week in Baltimore as the guest of Miss Bertha Garrett, of 422 Hutchins avenue.

• • •

Mr. Thomas Lilly, of Philadelphia, was in the city Sunday, April 12, as a guest of Miss Bertha Garrett and Miss Edith Lane, of 422 Hutchins avenue.

• • •

Miss Bertha Garrett, of Baltimore, and Miss Edith Lane, of Matthews County, Virginia, were among those present at the Athenian and Alpha game Easter Monday night at the Richmond Market Armory.

• • •

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Jennie Simmons, of 1725 McCulloh street, was given a birthday reception on Wednesday evening by her daughter, Sarah Butler and his foster son, Calvin Williams.

Those present were: Mr. Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. P. Grooms, Mr. and Mrs. C. Malden, Mr. and Mrs. Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Hatchett, Mr. and Mrs. Gantt, Mr. and Mrs. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. C. Davis, Mrs. J. Butler, Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. M. Foote, Mrs. M. Wtkins, Mrs. Archer, Mrs. A. Smith, Mrs. M. Hall, Mrs. P. Hall, Miss L. Gough, Miss W. Reid, Miss D. Williams, Miss E. Fisher, Miss Wallace, Mr. Marshall, Mr. J. Butler, Mr. Brown, Mr. Lipton, Mr. Hines.

Charleston Dance Contest
New Goldfield Theatre
924 S. Sharp Street
$100.00 IN CASH PRIZES
Contest Starts Monday, May 4
Winner of each night held over for Grand Finale

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hillam gave a 12 o'clock breakfast in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dockett, of Greenwich, Conn.

• • •

POINSETTAS PLAN INFORMAL DANSANTE

The Poinsetta Novelty Club will hold their second Informal Dansante at the Pythian Castle, Friday, April 24th, featuring Ike Dixon's Orchestra, with Theodore Upshur soloist.

The setting will resemble a Spanish colonnade, profusely decorated with poinsettas. Officers: President, Miss D. Johns; vice president, Miss M. Mayer; financial secretary, Miss M. Pierce; recording secretary, Miss F. Watkins; treasurer, Miss A. Cooper; escort, Miss L. Cornish; chaplain, Miss Rosa Fowler; chairman of social committee, L. Washington. Chaperons: Mrs. Mable Johns, Mrs. Nellie Paul, Mrs. Cora Crowner, Mrs. Ella Williams.

• • •

TURQUOISE STAGE CHIC AFFAIR

The Turquoise S. and L. Club gave one of the smartest dances of the Easter season at St. Mary's Hall. The gay attire of the dancers blended with the blue and white decorations and the hall resembled a garden of living flowers.

Representatives of leading clubs were present and with the several hundred additional guests enjoyed a most fastidious function.

• • •

NIGHTINGALE SCOIAL

The Nightingale Pleasure Social met Monday evening with Mrs. Harry Wallace, 1512 Milliman street. The meeting was well attended and an elaborate invitation extended them by the Turquoise S. and L. to their Easter Monday Prom, arrived too late for acceptance, and they extend a hearty invitation to the club to join them at any meeting. John Groves, secretary. The next meeting will be with Miss Lillian Smith, 1507 Jefferson street.

• • •

NEW ARRIVALS AT "Y"

Columbus Martin, Washington, D. C.
J. C. Coleman, N. W. Washington, D. C.
Cincinnati, Ohio
Jasper Marshall
D. Strain
William Dixon
Vester Williams
Ruben Simmons
J. M. Perkins
Ruffus Dotson
James Bailey
Harry Russell
Joseph Lee, New York City.
William Simmons, Vandergrift, Pa.
Joseph Pryor, New Bedford, Mass.
W. H. Thompson, Hampton, Va.
Rev. R. H. Walker, Manhassett, N. Y.
Pittsburgh, Pa.
T. W. Jones
T. W. Payne
A. C. Leonard
H. Shook
Fred Armstrong
G. S. Smith
Tom Matthews, Prospects, Va.
K. Well, Famo, Ark.
Ernest A. Gordon, Washington, D. C.
R. Scott, Washington, D. C.
E. T. Chase, Pittsburgh, Pa.

• • •

Former Baltimorean Visits

Mrs. Eliza Anderson, of Atlantic City (formerly of Baltimore), was entertained at dinner by her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crosby at their residence, 723 N. Carey Street. Those present were Mrs. Evelyn Watts, Mrs. Myrtle Thomas, Misses Devia and Maude Crosby, Maude Dickerson, Rebecca Thomas, Messrs. Andrew Wheatley, Oscar Williams, James Queen, Jno. Beverley and Maurice Gibbs.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fowles, of Fairmount Heights, Md., spent Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Briscoe, of 2220 Druid Hill avenue.

THE NEW BOARDING HOUSE NOW OPEN TO THE BETTER CLASS OF COLORED PEOPLE

The New Boarding House Known as

Fishcommission Inn

has opened to the better class of colored people. Along the Chesapeake Bay. A beautiful bathing beach, beautiful lakes for boat rowing. Lovely grounds for baseball playing, and for many other games that are wished to be played. The only place of its kind in Scotland, Md. Please make reservations in advance. State road all the way. We are open for the Summer, and your visit to see us will receive our truest and best attention.

C. H. Smith, Prop.

Take the State road from Leonardtown to Scotland. 1t

Are You Unhappy?
Are You Unhealthy?
Are You Unsuccessful?

in finding a reliable remedy to make you strong and healthy and give you that natural good feeling and happy mind that comes with good health?

Our Herb and Root Remedies are absolutely the very best to be had. They establish better health and cleanse your entire body. Not a patent or drug store remedy, but an Old Fashioned Herbal line of Seven Different Kinds of Helping Remedies to select from. This is the best time to start taking, so do not delay, but come and you will greatly benefit.

Maryland Herb Store
LEO S. OSMAN, Prop.
1536 Pennsylvania Avenue
Baltimore, Md. tf

BENEFIT CONCERT AND DANCE
GIVEN BY THE ASSOCIATED FRIENDS OF THE ORPHANS
At the New Albert Auditorium, 1224 Pennsylvania Avenue
Friday Evening, April 24, 1925
Musical Concert by A. Johnson Holsey, Tenor, from 8:45 to 9:30 P. M. Dancing from 9:30 to 1 A. M. Music by Baltimore Syncopators
ADMISSION — 35 CENTS

SUIT AND COAT

We have a most careful selection of Ladies' and Gent's wearing apparel for the Spring Season, and they are REASONABLY PRICED.

Our line of ladies' dresses, coats, ensemble dresses and suits are very attractive and of the latest creations, in styles and fabric.

Men's and Young Mens Suits and Overcoats

Our selections are the logical choice from view point in style, quality, price and terms. Do not delay, but come in and see our stock and get that Spring outfit.

Samuel L. Burton
1214½ Pennsylvania Avenue
Open 8:00 A. M. Close 8:00 P. M. Saturday, Midnight
PHONE, MADISON 4821

Household Suggestions

When fruit has fermented, reheat it. If you are efficiently sufficiently full, then tie and break off thread, sewing through the first.

—o—

Adhesive Tape for Electric Iron

When the cord of your electric iron becomes worn and frayed just bandage it with adhesive tape, and it will last months longer.

—o—

Raising Raisin Bread

½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon baking powder
1 tablespoon butter
4 eggs
½ cup sugar
1 cup milk
1 cup water
1 cake yeast
1 pound raisins
1 pound flour

FOAMY OMELET

Send in your favorite recipe for this column, particularly if it has been for it. Address: Cookery Editor, AFRO-AMERICAN.

Home-Tested Recipes

15 Years Ago

Items from the Afro-American of April 23d, 1910

President Taft told delegation of 50 visiting ministers that he thought the dropped along with the statement of his seven-year-old daughter. However a charge of practicing medicine without a license has been preferred against him.

MORE VOODOO

Continued From Page One

If the medicine man's lawyer can decide who is responsible for the general trespassing, the destruction of the alleged disregard for Hygienic laws, the alleged damage done and the damages may be instituted, all that is needed is a good defendant, attorneys admitted.

Up To Grand Jury

The charge against Hylebock will