LOVE IN A COTTAGE.

BY N. P. WILLIS.

And bowers of trellised vine-Of nature bewitchingly simple, And milkmaids half divine; They may talk of the pleasure of sleeping In the shade of a spreading tree, And a walk in the fields at morning, By the side of a footstep free!

But give me a sly flirtation By the light of a chandelier-With music to play in the pauses, And nobody very near: Or a seat on a silken sofa, With a glass of pure old wine, And mamma too blind too discover The small white hand in mine.

Your love in a cottage gets hungry, Your vine is a pest for flies-And simplicity talks of pies! You lie down to your shady slumber And wake with a bug in your ear, TTORNEYS AT LAW AND SOLIC- | And your damsel that walks in the morning
