TEAM WORK IN TELEPHONING

In all telephone work, cooperation is the keynote of good service. The subscriber must help the operator.

For instance, answer your telephone promptly. An incoming message may be of the utmost importance to you. If you delay in answering, the other party may hang up his receiver.

Be slow to blame the operator for "don't answer" and "busy" reports.

In the first case, the operator cannot force the party to answer; in the second, she must wait until the called party, or somebody on his line, gets through talking before she can connect you.

WILMINGTON CONFERENCE IN SESSION AT DOVER

Ministers From Many Counties Gather For Business—Many Pastors Will Return

The Wilmington Conference is in session at Dover, Del., this week and Kent County pastors of the M. E. Churches are at the Delaware capital for the 50th annual session. Bishop Bristol, of Tennessee, is presiding.

Besides being the semi-centennial of the conference, that body having organized in 1868, it will be the 50th anniversary of the admission of C. W. Prettyman, who was changed from effective to retired three years ago. There are three older ministers in the conference—William W. Redman, G. S. Conaway and James Esgates, who were ordained in 1858, 1862 and 1868, respectively, and were transferred to the Wilmington Conference at its formation. L. W. Layfield, who was admitted to the conference in 1871, is its oldest effective member. W. E. Tomkinson and T. H. Harding, also admitted in 1871, retired over 10 years ago. Other veterans include: P. H. Rawlins, ordained in 1869; J. A. Arters, John W. Poole and Adam Stengle, 1870.

C. A. Hill, E. P. Roberts and D. F. McFaull will retire at the next session.

E. C. Sunfield, retired one year ago, hopes to return to the effective rank in 1919.

The following pastors on the Easton District have been invited to return: E M. Shockley, Bayside; W. W. Chaires, Bozman; J. L. Prettyman, Cecilton; Leonard White, Centreville; T. F. Beauchamp, Chestertown; G. P. Smith, Cheswold; W. Kenney, Church Hill; C. Jones, Clayton; M. E. Wheatley, Concord; C. Stallings, Crumpton; C. T. Wyatt, Denton; W. L. White, Galena; H. T. Quigg, Greensboro; C. D. Sharpless, Henderson; E. W. McDowell, Hillsboro; G. S. Thomas, Kent Island; W. B. Guthrie, Kenton; O. B. Reed, Marydel; J. W. Jones, Middletown; Edwin Gardner, Pomona; J. T. Richardson, Preston; Frank Brisbin, Queenstown; J. R. Bicking, Ridgely; J. T. Rowinsen, Royal Oak; Z. H. Webster, St. Michael's; Henry Covington, Salem Circuit; G. C. Williams, Smyrna; Milton McCann, Smyrna Circuit; R. P. Nichols, Still Pond; J. A. Leach, Sudlersville; C. T. Jones, Tilghman's; J. M. Lindale, Wye Mills.

An Accommodating Official.—Kent County has an efficient and accommodating official in Sheriff Carter. The other day a stranger in Chestertown had evidently lost his equilibrium for the time and was at loss what to do. Quick to notice his unfortunate plight, Sheriff Carter approached the man and put him straight and he went on his way.

Fine Fox Hunting.—Mr. Harry Nichols, Jr., and a party of five fox or six hunters had a fine fox hunt on Saturday. The dogs started a fox at "Bush Foot," and run him for five hours before the dogs were broken off the trail. This was one of the best runs of the year.

The fox-hunting contest between the dogs of Mr. William Toulson, of near town, and Mr. Robert Brown, of Queen Annes, failed to materialize last Saturday, Mr. Brown failing to appear. The dogs of Mr. W. O. Anderson and Mr. Toulson, however, engaged in a lively chase. Mr. Anderson's dog had a very slight advantage at first, but he finally became entangled in a wire fence, and Mr. Toulson's dog then, of course, went into the lead.

LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTE

IN a year it has become famous; the man's cigarette for the men who are working over here, and fighting over there.

The reason? Because it's made of Burley pipe tobacco and because—
