The Fountain Head of Life Is The Stomach

A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

Dr. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgement.

This "Discovery" is a pure, glyceric extract of American medical roots, absolutely free from alcohol and all injurious, habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on its wrappers. It has no relationship with secret nostrums. Its every ingredient is endorsed by the leaders in all the schools of medicine. Don't accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this time-proven remedy OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS. They must know of many cures made by it during past 40 years, right in your own neighborhood. World's Dispensary Medical Association. Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

MEETS DEATH BY BOLT.

Lightning Strikes Down Mr. Walter Kendall At Tolchester—His Companion Hurt By Bolt—Large Trees Are Uprooted At Resort.

A flash of lightning brought death to Walter Kendall, 22 years old, of Rock Hall, in the midst of a furious thunder storm at Tolchester Beach Friday afternoon. Maxwell Ryan, 20 years old, also of Rock Hall, a companion of Kendall, was burned about the body by the same flash, but was not seriously injured.

Young Kendall was killed as he was towing a rowboat ashore, the lightning first striking the anchor of the boat and then striking him and Ryan.

The death of the young man and the fury of the elements increased the fear of the excursionists and several women fainted. The black clouds and downpour of rain and hail, together with the wind, caused those at the resort to seek shelter.

The large pavillion on the beach held several hundred. Others crowded onto the hotel porch and others found shelter in the numerous pavillions about the resort. The storm was accompanied by vivid flashes of lightning and deafening peals of thunder. Women and children huddled together where they had congregated. The wind came with such force that the windows in the beach pavillion were blown open and rain poured into the building. Large hailstones pelted the roofs and porches and no one would venture out in the downfall.

Several large trees at the resort and along the beach toppled over. Tents that afforded shelter for parties were bowled over and were a mass of tangled ropes and canvas.

Many of the excursionists witnessed the death of Kendall and the injury to Ryan. The two young men were well-known to nearly all of those who have visited the beach They were employed by Capt. Patrick Leonard, who has charge of the row-boats at the resort. At the height of the storm several of the rowboats broke loose from their moorings on account of the furious action of the waters, lashed into high, angry waves by the howling wind.

Captain Leonard called for volunteers to go after the boats. Kendall and Ryan, who wore bathing suits, left the cabin amidst the wild flashes of lightning and started up the beach. When opposite one of the boats they plunged in and swam out to it.

Both climbed in and started to row back to shore. As the boat touched the beach both men jumped out, grasped the anchor rope and moved inward on the beach. At that moment a blinding flash came. It was followed by a terrific peal of thunder. When those watching the young men glanced up again both lay prostrate. The flash had hit the anchor, entered the mouth of Kendall and hit Ryan in the back.

Charles H. Harrison, John Coleman, Maurice Wilson, B. F. Urie and Harry Mooney, of Baltimore, rushed forward to the prostrate men. Mr. Harrison arrived first. He found Kendall was dead and then turned his attention to Ryan. The injured young man was taken to a shanty and after hard work by Messrs. Harrison, Mooney and Wilson, he revived and was able to tell of the accident. His first inquiry was for his companion and when informed of Kendall's death was nearly overcome.

Hundreds of excursionists crowded around the little shanty and expressed sympathy and offered aid. Mr. Samuel Kendall, father of the dead youth, was fisoing only a short distance below the Tolchester pier and was summoned. He and his wife were nearly prostrated by the accident. A wagon was summoned and the dead youth was taken to his home by his parents.

THE LOW TAX RATE.

Every tax-payer will rejoice at the reduction of 63 cents in the county tax rate as noted in another column. The reason for this reduction is because of the high rate of last year and because of the economy as practised by the working of the new road law.

THE NEWS of last year, the week after the tax rate of $1.85 was struck said: "A large tax rate was declared this year in order to relieve next year of an expense and thereby enable the Barroll faction to lower the tax rate and take to themselves great credit."

The great force and truth of that prediction has come true.

Honesty and square dealing is the best policy, not only in business but in politics, and the faction or party that tries to build itself up on any other foundation will crumble and fall!
