FASHIONS IN NEW YORK.

Where Hoops Are Used—Fichus, Sashes, Side Frills and Collar Fixings—Braid and Made Trimmings Reversible Materials.

Joseph's coat of many colors is being repeated in all sorts of styles made up of the new reversible materials that have taken the town by storm. Every other woman one meets is exploiting this fad in one way or another, but most often in a double faced coat that may be worn with either side out as one prefers, though few people ever do reverse them.

HOODS AND SHOULDER CAPES.

Great use is made of head and shoulder capes, and wide reverses many of these latter with square ends falling below the waistline and trimmed with fringe. Many are overlaid by others of smaller dimensions and different shapes. All these accessories are invaluable for changing the appearance of a dress or coat and bringing it up to date. The shoulder cape is very becoming to women with graceful shoulder lines, while the pointed hoodlike capes are excellent for the woman whose figure needs lengthening. These usually finish with a long tassel that hangs to or below the waist at the back.

VELVET TRIMMINGS.

Velvet trimmings are to the fore for Fall and Winter coats and suits. Velveteen is used with cloths and all the heavier fabrics, but for combination with silks and lighter goods the silk faced velvets are best. Contrasts are very fashionable. Gray with purple: smoke color wfth blue, yellow or rose; brown with yellow, blue or green; blue of darkest shade with vivid grass green, or olive or a soft warm red, or with tan of yellowish tone. Black and white has lost none of its prestige and is nearly always becoming, also black and pongee color which is the latest French craze.

The above designs are by The McCall Company, New York, Designers and Makers of McCall Patterns.

DOUBLE SKIRTS AND REDINGOTES.

Many of the smartest models in street dresses and others, have a double skirt either real or simulated by bands or trimmings. A navy blue serge, from a famous maker, has the underskirt of grass green broadcloth, which shows in a six inch band at the bottom, and at the sides where the upper skirt is split. A one sided revere of the green that extends from the right shoulder and falls below the slightly raised waistline is a wide square end, is trimmed with fancy black braid, and there are cuffs to match on the sleeve which is semi-kimona in in cut, as are so many of the new models. Skirts are narrow and fall straight and close even though they may be slightly gathered at the waist in voiles and the thinner materials. Redingote effects prevail in many variations though there are not many of the really separate garments as yet. Coat and skirt suits are standard as always with coats longer and skirts trim and narrow.

AN ECONOMICAL SUGGESTION.

The petticoat worn under the suit must stand hard wear and few styles are at once so good looking and lasting as the skirt with a mohair top and silk flounce. The top will outlast many ruffles, but with the new Gilberta flounces carried by all the best shops, it is an easy matter to make the new petticoat or renew an old one. Smartly shaped and daintily made these flounces can be had in a variety of cotton materials as well as in taffeta silks and satins, and a tiny drawing string adjusts them to any top. One can find almost any coloring to match or contrast with the skirt. Contrasting effects are particularly favored just now.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

Virginia Orchard Land FOR SALE

After visiting some of the best orchards in the state I selected, about 50 miles from Washington, D. C., 963 acres of fine grazing and timber land adjoining lands of Capt. Beverley, who took more premiums on his apples than any other exhibitor at Va. State Fair in 1910. Tract has elevation of 850 to 1350 feet with deep valleys 450 to 800 feet lower just in front and back of it. Is above frost line. Peach trees on the place, 25 years old, still bear every year.

I will sell three choice tracts of 100 to 250 acres at grazing land prices to experienced orchardists. I find I have not capital to develope whole tract. For further particulars write T. S. VANCE, Warrenton, Va.
