SUPPLEMENT TO T RIPT, JULY 31, 1920

THE HUNTING SEASON

Kent Gunners Will Soon Be Oiling Their Guns

Much interest prevails locally in the game season announced last week through the office of the State Game Warden. Kent Co.'s many hunters will soon be oiling their guns and chasing plover and will then turn their guns upon rail birds.

The Senatorial Fight.—People the nation over are watching with considerable interest the Senatorial contests in a dozen states, which are expected to determine the political complexion of the Senate under the new administration. Thirty-three Senators are to be elected in 32 states. Democrats feel certain of victory in nine places and believe they will get a majority, while the Republicans believe they have an advantage, inasmuch as they already hold a majority of two in the upper house and because terms of 18 Democrats expire, in comparison with 15 Republicans.

—Mr. Watler M. King will remove from the Dodd farm, near town, to the Carroll Clark farm, near Massey. Mr. Harper Logan will succeed Mr. Joseph Thorp on the Noland-Melvin farm in Morgnec.

PRO TION NOT REDUCTION

Is What the World Seeks

PRICES of some things have been temporarily reduced; prices of other commodities remain about as they have been for months past. So long as people leave the farms to flock to the already overcrowded cities, creating an acute shortage of housing facilities, prices for building materials are likely to remain about in the present level.

DEMAND continues to exceed supply, you will be able to build as cheaply now as you can later in the year. Whatever your problem may be it will pay you to come in and talk over your plans, to get estimates. Remember that our architectural service is at your disposal entirely free of charge. And we can at least get acquainted.

PRODUCTION is about the only thing that will bring prices of anything down to a permanent lower level. If you can foresee increased production in all industrial lines, you might wait: but if you can't see larger supplies for the future, don't take a chance. Come in today.
