FINE IS REDUCED IN "HERB DOCTOR" CASE

Fine Of $200 Imposed On Mrs. Rosie Hunter Is Cut To $100 By Judge

PRESCRIBED 21 WINE GLASSES AFTER MEALS

Mrs. Fannie Bailey Was To Take A Dose From 7 Bottles Three Times A Day

...The fine of $200 imposed up-on Mrs. Rosie Hunter, 2400 block McCulloh street, who was found guilty of illegal practice of medicine was reduced to $100 by Judge Eugene O'Dunne upon the solicitation of Attorney Harry O. Levin, counsel for Mrs. Hunter, Friday.

Mrs. Hunter was arrested on the complaint of Mrs. Fannie Bailey, 951 Druid Hill avenue, who declared that the defendant had prescribed medicine to break up her cold but instead caused her to swell all over. The concoction had been given her in seven whiskey bottles she said and she was supposed to take a wine glass from each bottle three times a day.

When the prescription nearly resulted in the death of the patient Mrs. Hunter is said to have promised to return the money that had been paid her. Her original fee for curing the cold was $50, it was said, but only $15 had been paid. Mrs. Hunter was fined $200 by Judge O'Dunne but the fine was later reduced. Mrs. Bailey may sue Mrs. Hunter for damages, Attorney Josiah P. Henry(who prosecuted the case, intimated.

FALLS OVER OBSTRUCTION

Mrs. Florence Smith, 1030 E. Arlington avenue, City, who was severely hurt when she fell over obstructions at the garage driveway on the rear side of 1028 E. Arlington avenue, which was being paved by the Kemp Company under contract from the City of Baltimore, is now out again.

She feels much better and has received adequate damages for the injuries sustained through the efforts of her counsel, Gobert E. Macbeth.

It is alleged that the company failed to have proper lights on the obstructions as required by law. The company stated that the lights were stolen on this night and on several other occasions. Mrs. Smith was represented by Attorney Gobert E. Macbeth.

HUBBY SUED, SETTLED CASE, NOW WIFE SUES

John Pullman Applied For Divorce Year Ago, Case Was Adjusted Out Of Court

DESERTION AND MISCONDUCT ALLEGED

Wife Claims She Was Abandoned And Says Mate Was Unfaithful; To Name Them

The out of court settlement of the divorce proceedings of Mr. and Mrs. John Pullman came to an end Thursday when a new bill was introduced in Part One of the Circuit Court by Mrs. Pullman.

One year ago Attorney Roy S. Bond filed a suit for the husband in which he alleged abandonment and asked for a partial divorce. Mrs. Pullman denied the charges but declared that she had been deserted by her husband. The affair was adjusted out of court just before going to trial and the suit ordered dismissed by the plaintiff.

A new bill was filed last week by Mrs. Pullman in which she declares that her husband deserted her and has been guilty of misconduct with women whose names will be disclosed on the day of trial. They were married in October, 1909, the separation took place on February 1, 1925. They were married in Cumberland, Maryland, the bill recites and there are no children as an issue of their marriage.

Pullman is a chauffeur and owns several pieces of property, among which is 571 Presstman street and 569 Presstman street, which are valued at $5,000 each, she declares, and left him through a will.

Mr. Pullman denied that he owned the property stating that the ownership had not been completely settled in the Orphans Court. He has filed an answer to the new bill of his wife in which he denies that he abandoned her. Concerning the charge of misconduct he neither affirms or denies it but demands strict proof thereof. The question of alimony and counsel fees has not been decided.

Florence Crittendon Circle

The Florence Crittenton Circle held a well attended meeting at the home of Mrs. Josephine Gross, 620 Sanford Place. The Circle was entertained by Mrs. Gross. The next meeting will be at the home of the president, Mrs. Blanche T. Tyler, 3119 Barclay street, June 22, 1926.

RUNS FROM OFFICERS, GETS STRUCK BY AUTO

James Simms Runs In Path of Automobile In Effort To Escape Officers

WAS IN CRAP GAME IN ALLEY POLICE SAY

Men Deserted Money and Dice When Cops Put In Sudden Appearance On Scene

In an effort to avert arrest after two police officers appeared suddenly upon the scene of a crap game in Morris Alley, Jas. Simms, 613 W. Hoffman street, was struck by an automobile as he ran across Preston street, Sunday.

According to the officers, Simms with four other men, were engaged in a game in the rear of 1028 Morris Alley. The group dispersed when they appeared, leaving money, dice and all. The officers gave chase when they reached Preston street Simms turned to see if they were overtaking him and ran into the automobile driven by Herbert Williams, 631 George street. Simms was removed to the Maryland General Hospital where he was treated for bruises of the body. He was later returned to the Northwestern where he was charged with disturbing the peace.
