EXHIBITS WILL BE INTERESTING

Nice Prizes Offered To Kent County Women To Participate In Coming Agricultural, Industrial and Health Exhibit

Owing to the increased interest that the people of the county have shown in the Agricultural, Industrial and Health Exhibit, much better premiums have been offered than were offered last year. First prizes for canned vegetables have been doubled this year, making the first prize one dollar and the second prize fifty cents. The prize for the best collection of canned and preserved products will be an aluminum bread raiser, donated by the Kent County Council for Home Demonstration Work. The first prize for the best home cured ham will be a silver bread tray, donated by Mr. H. B. Rote, one of Chestertown's thrifty jewelers. Mr. P. M. Brooks will give six 12-pound bags and three 24-pound bags of Rose Bud flour as premiums for bread and cakes. For the woman who can make the best collection of home made candies Mr. A. L. Sparks will give a fine cabinet of excellent toilet preparations.

The premiums in sewing will be the same as last year with the exception of the premiums for the best design and workmanship in kitchen apron and the best design and workmanship in house dress. Mr. G. E. Noland will give a sweater for the best apron and Mr. Harry F. Jefferson a pair of sheets for the best house dress.

For the best home made labor saving device Graham & Thomas have offered an aluminum coffee perculator.

With such premiums as these there should be no scarcity of exhibits. Let every woman in Kent County feel it her duty to exhibit some product that has been made or grown at home since December 1, 1919, and so make this the best exhibit Kent County has ever had. This can only be so when every woman takes some part.

County Council Notes

The Kent County Council for Home Demonstration Work met on Tuesday, October 12, 1920, at the Chestertown High School. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth. The minutes were read by the secretary and the treasurer gave a report.

The subject of a Juvenile Court for the purpose of enforcing the compulsory attendance law was discussed by Dr. Edward J. Clarke, County Superintendent of Schools, Miss Kellogg, Mrs. Hynson Beck, Miss Rogers and others. It was pointed out by Dr. Clarke that the Juvenile Court is directly interested in school attendance. It was moved and seconded that Dr. Clarke take up the subject with the proper authorities and that this visit be followed up with committees of three, appointed by the President of the Council.

The Home Demonstration Agent, as a member of the Executive Committee of the County Agricultural, Industrial and Health Exhibit, presented the plans for the exhibit. It was moved and seconded that a committee be appointed to select a suitable premium to be donated by the Council. It was also moved and seconded that a committee be appointed to take charge of the exhibit of labor-saving devices. This was followed by a discussion of labor saving devices.

The president then took up the election of the three delegates of the Executive Committee. The following delegates were elected: Mrs. W. B. Copper, Miss Emma Shafer and Mrs. Hynson Beck.

The next question considered was the means of presenting the constitution to the local organizations in the county for their approval and having them elect delegates to the council. It was moved and seconded that the secretary prepare copies of the constitution with a letter of explanation to the president or secretary of the organization and if approved send delegates to the first meeting of the council after Jan. 1, 1921, of which due notice will be given.

Twelve members were present. It was decided that the next meeting would be held in December.

As there was no further business, the council adjourned.

SECOND NOTICE

"A Good Provider."

When it comes to being "a good provider," no man would pride himself on furnishing trash liberally for his family. The family is entitled to good, whilesome food that helps growth.

It is the same with reading. Good reading pleases and creates its own hunger for more good reading. The Youth's Companion is the best of reading for all—every member—every age.

And it comes every week—crowded with the best. Let us prove it with a sample.

The Youth's Companion has long since ceased to provide for "Youth" alone. It has become the favorite all-the-family weekly of America. Its name is a misnomer, but is retained for the sentiment it has generated in American homes through its service to every age.

Still $2.50 for a year of 52 issues, but this price not guaranteed beyond January 1, next.

New subscribers for 1921 will receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1921.
2. All remaining weekly 1920 issues.
3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1921.

All the above for $2.50.

4. McCall's Magazine for 1921, $1.50 the monthly fashion authority.

Both publications for only $3.50.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since . . . I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too.
