Tom, Tom, the Piper's son, stole the washboiler
for a drum,
But his Mother laughed—she washed today,
Without any boiling, the Fels-Naptha way,
And found it so easy and quickly done,
Tom can have the boiler for his fun.

Some "don'ts" for women who have their washing "done out."

Don't blame your washwoman if your clothes come home yellow or streaked and bearing a nasty odor.

The responsibility is yours.

She may not have heard of the Fels-Naptha way of washing in cool or lukewarm water which makes clothes whiter, and clean and sweet.

You have.

She may be boiling the life out of them, rubbing till her back nearly breaks with the ordinary old-fashioned kind of soap because she doesn't know any other way.

It is your duty to tell her; to see that she uses Fels-Naptha soap.

Then your clothes will come home as snowy and fresh as you could wish and they'll last longer.

And your washwoman will thank you for making her work easier.

Just see that she gets Fels-Naptha soap and tell her to follow the simple directions on the red and green wrapper.

WOMEN MAY AVOID OPERATIONS

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will prove how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement.

Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for seven months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—Mrs. ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women. Why don't you try it?

GALENA ITEMS.

Mr. Franklin McCoy, of Chesapeake City, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Jas. Caldwell near town.

Mr. John Newnam is making some improvements in his butcher shop.

Mr. John McIntyre of Wilmington, returned home Saturday evening for a stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McIntyre.

The Ushers Union will hold a meeting Monday evening to plan an entertainment. Proceeds for improvement of church property.

Miss Bertie Brockson is spending some time with her cousin in Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ford spent Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Dempsey and little daughter, Nellie, are spending several days in Baltimore helping Santa Claus with his shopping.

The members of the Ladies Aid Society have called a special meeting for Tuesday evening to make out committees, etc. for the poultry and oyster supper December 1 and 2.

The teachers and officers of Olivet M. E. Sunday School have organized a Teachers' Training Class to meet once a week. Rev. R. H. Lewis was elected teacher of the class, and the first meeting will be held November 28.

The Epworth League Sunday evening was in charge of Rev. A. P. Prettyman, and his address on the topic was both interesting and helpful. The solo, "The Half Has Never Been Told," by Mr. Muldoon, was also very impressive.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in Olivet M. E. Church last Tuesday when Miss Bessie Leybolt became the bride of J. William Mac, of Philadelphia. The bridal party entered the church to the beautiful strains of Lohengrin rendered by Mrs. G. E. Hicks.

TO BE INAUGURATED JAN. 9.

The new Governor will be inaugurated at Annapolis January 9. Shortly before he takes the oath of office in the Senate chamber he will make his inaugural address, in which he will outline the policies of his administration and which he will endeavor to have put in effect by the Legislature. The inauguration is generally a brilliant ceremony. In addition to being attended by many well-known people of the State, members of the Legislature and others, the workers of the party with which the Governor is affiliated usually turns out in full force.

When the new Legislature convenes on January 3 Governor Crothers will submit to it his message. This is important, but the inaugural speech and the message of the new Governor usually have more effect upon the members of the Legislature. As soon as a new Governor is inaugurated he will be beseiged by applicants for appointment and their friends. Under the law he must make all of his appointments, nearly 5,000, by the fortieth day of the legislative session.

The Governor of Maryland receives a salary of $4,500 a year. Governor Crothers has received $5,000 as a personal contingent fund. In addition the Governor has a contingent fund of $5,000 for the maintenance of the Executive Mansion and a general contingent fund of $10,000 a year.

OLD TIMES IN KENT.

Here are some of the things for which the old times were noted:

A gentleman bowing to a lady always scraped his foot on the ground.

All the population of Chestertown assembled at the inn on "post day" to hear the news.

The church collection was taken in a bag at the end of a pole, with a bell attached to arouse sleepy contributors.

Imprisonment for debt was a common practice.

Quinine was unknown. When a man had ague fits he took Peruvian bark and whiskey.

There was not a public library in the county.

Books were very expensive. "The Lives of the Poets" cost $15.

Twenty days were required for a letter to go from Chestertown to New York by land.

A day laborer received 2 shillings a day.

A horseman who galloped on Chestertown's streets was fined four shillings.

Crockery plates were objected to because they dulled the knives.

A man who jeered at the preacher or criticized the sermon was fined.

Dry goods were designated as "men's stuff," or "women's stuff."

Stoves were unknown. All cooking was done before an open fire-place.

A girl was not allowed to marry until she could bake a loaf of bread and cut it in smooth, even slices while it was still warm.

When a man had enough tea he placed his spoon across his cup to indicate that he wanted no more.

The Popular Polo Coats At a Popular Price— $15.00

The price would not be possible, were it not for our large purchasing power and our equally great outlet—ordinarily these polo coats would sell at considerably higher figures.

They are made of the soft, warm, woolly double-faced fabrics—the color combinations include gray-and-lavender, gray-and-blue, brown-and-blue, brown-and-tan, brown-and-green and various mixtures. The collar, cuffs, revers and pocket facings are of the contrasting color, giving these coats a decidedly smart and stylish air. All are cut full length, and made on a roomy, loose-fitting model, with or without belt at waistline.

The woman who wants a comfortable, warm winter coat, with more than the usual amount of style and dash to it, will surely want one of these polo coats.

High-Class Tailored Suits For Women and Misses— $25.00

Of gray and brown mixtures, serges, broadcloths and cheviots. The coats are 28 inches long, semi-fitted and single-breasted. Some are plain-tailored, while others have velvet collar and revers, and are trimmed with braid and buttons. Still another model is of serge, and the collar, front of coat and cuffs are elaborately braided. Skirts are plain gored with loose panel, or have pleats at foot. They range from perfectly plain models to those that are trimmed with braid or buttons to match coat.
