FOR SALE OR RENT

The farm known as the John P. Crossley farm, in Quaker Neck, purchased by me at Mortgage Sale Tuesday, September 6, will be sold at private sale at a slight concession from the price, $8500, bid by me. I do not desire to keep the farm, but wish to lose as little as possible on the mortgage of $10,000 I hold on said farm. If not sold within a short time, I will rent it to a first-class tenant with sufficient means and money to conduct the farm in a first-class manner.

See me, Mrs. John P. Crossley, Worton, Md., or my Attorney, Hope H. Barroll, Esq., Chstertown, Md.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

I take this method of thanking all my friends for their loyal support in the recent primaries, and I desire that my friends know that my opponent fought me fairly. I trust that my loyal supporters will be just as loyal to Mr. Caldwell in the coming election, and urge them to do all they can for him. Let's do by him as we would have him do by us.

HARD TIMES

Some folks talk of hard times coming. There is no such thing. It is only the soft times going. Every thing is getting on a more solid foundation and will stay there. The reason people are buying Life insuranee today, is not to spend money, but save it and increase their estate. We must save if we expect to get anywhere. There is no better way to save money with safety than by depositing it with "The National."
