Tree of Life Indian Medicine Company Plans to Spend Millions of Dollars in The West Indies

On account of the great demand for the Tree of Life Indian Medicine Company's Tonic the company is compelled to purchase great tracts of land in the tropics, as the TREE OF LIFE can be grown there. Thus when Columbus landed in the West Indies he was amazed to see such strong and healthy men and women. Due to this was because they ate wholesome and used the juice from the Tree of Life branches for Tonic. The native Indian doctor knew only one remedy—that was Tree of Life. Columbus was a very broad-minded and far seeing man and he believe if Nature had placed in viles herb that could keep the Indian healthy it was likewise good for the white man. His entire crew was sick from such long and strenuous trip across the Atlantic and their stomachs were torned to pieces on account the poor and unwholesome food that they ate; their kidneys were unable to extract the impurities from their blood so they were given Tree of Life juice three times during the day. That treatment put them in a healthy condition and was able to make the voyage safely back to Spain.

NOTE: Tree of Life is now being sold by all Druggists. Get your bottle now as the supply is limited.

Blum's Celebrates First Birthday At 306-8-10 N. Howard Street

Novel Sales Idea of Repeating "Opening Day" Bargains of One Year Ago, With Added Values.

Blum's new Howard Street Store, which has enjoyed a wonderful growth during the short year since it was opened, strikes a decidedly new and novel note in its plans for celebrating its first birthday. Summed up briefly, the idea is to repeat the great values that created such a sensation a year ago when the store was first opened. Naturally, due to its prosperous year and steadily increasing business, the Howard Street Store is in a position to add to these opening day values even greater opportunites to save—bargains that every homeowner will find it profitable to look into.

Aside from the special features offered during the Anniversary Week, everyone who has the desire for a more comfortable, more attractive home will find much of interest in the ideals and policies that have proven so popular with Baltimoreans during the year past.

Of course, one may expect to find it a pleasant place to shop because of the unusually prompt, courteous service of the carefully trained sales force made up of men who have made a lifetime study of good furniture and who are very glad to counsel and advise patrons in the selection of home furnishing that will look well and wear well.

But the homebuilder will probably be even more interested in comparing the truly unusual values that are one of the main reasons for the enthusiastic endorsement of Blum's Howard Street Store by a great many of our leading citizens. Here those who are just commencing to build a home, as well as those who merely desire to add a touch of newness and beauty to homes already a source of pride to them, will find an unlimited choice. Every foot of floor space in this great building is packed with the most brilliant samples of the art of master furniture builders.

And despite the marked style and exclusiveness of the Blum Furniture Display, one is pleasantly surprised by the very low prices that prevail. To borrow with slight changes the slogan of the great national radio advertiser; whether you require a chair for the kitchen, a lamp for the living room, or a complete new outfit for the bedroom, "There's one at Blum's that will fit your purse."

And, last but not least, the system of Convenient Terms offered, while patterned along the general lines of other large establishments, is different in smaller details. Those who recognize the desirability of adding new furniture to the home from time to time, but hold back because money is not available at the time will readily appreciate the "different" in Blum's convenient Terms. Unusually low down payments make it possibleto enjoy the pride and pleasure of having the very finest furniture in the home while paying for it in very small weekly amounts from your weekly wages—installments so small that it will not be necessary to do without a single pleasure you now enjoy.

And right now the floors of this great store are crowded with all that is new and beautiful in the way of summer furniture for the home. Single pieces that mean real comfort on the porch these warm summer evenings, as well as complet outfits for every room a tremendous display of all that is worth while in the furniture world. We cannot too strongly urge that all who are interested in better or more beautiful homes visit this brilliant new Blum Howard Street Store. During Anniversary Week values are even greater than usual. By all means accept the cordial Blum invitation to inspect this new store, located in the heart of Baltimore's furniture district. A cordial welcome is waiting you.
