WASHINGTON COLLEGE

The Adelphia Literary Society was turned into a veritable Senate, an open forum, on March 30. Debate waxed hot and orators clashed with verbal weapons across the floor of the society for an hour and a half. The subject that created such a controversy was "Resolved, That prohibition has benefited the nation." The question found adherents on either side, but the negative greatly outnumbered the affirmative. Mr. Wingate led the affirmative side of the issue. As a leader of the opposition, "Bush" Wright proved himself as able an orator and debater as a baseball player. No decision was given on the debate, but each side feels confident that it was in the right and had won the debate.

The preliminary contest for the state oratorical contest was held in chapel Tuesday night, April 4. Of the four contestants Mr. T. Howse was chosen to represent the college in the intercollegiate contest to be held at W. C. on April 28. The judges were Profs. Howell, Harrington and K. Sunagawa.

LYCEUM THEATRE

CHESTERTOWN
Showing Only The Best In Motion Pictures

Friday and Saturday, April 7 and 8—Betty Compson in J. M. Barry's great play, "THE LITTLE MINISTER"—a Paramount picture.

For more than twenty years "The Little Minister" has ranked first as the world's best loved romance.

A novel enshrined in the hearts of millions. The greatest stage success Maude Adams ever played.

Now its love, its charm and its thrilling events are a new delight on the screen. And Betty Compson—the ideal gypsy Babbie.

The story of a town that was all upset till a gypsy girl came and—upset it more. Bedevilled the bigwigs, minister and all. Then she showed them what a bit of love can do and set the whole thing right.

If you want an hour and a half of perfect entertainment, see The Little Minister.

Monday and Tuesday, April 10 and 11—Irene Castle in "Frenca Heels." "French Heels" is a modern love story written by Clarence Buddington Kelland and directed by Edwin L. Hollywood. It is released by W. W. Hodkinson and is said to be one of the most entertaining productions of the season. The New York notices have been very complimentary and local picture patrons may anticipate something delighting, entertaining, after the recent deluge of sex-problem plays with which the theatres of the country have been flooded. The story of "French Heels" concerns the adventures of a young girl who is forced to earn her own living. She becomes a chorus girl in a Broadway cabaret and soon is the talk of the town. Then she meets "the man" and the story really begins. ADDED ATTRACTION—International News, Movie Chats, and 4th episode of "Winners of the West" serial.

Wednesday and Thursday, April 12 and 13—D. W. Griffith's wonderful art of pictoralized spectacle, "THE BIRTH OF A NATION." This is the great offering that recently established the remarkable record of playing to over 150,000 people in a two weeks revival at the Capitol Theatre in New York City. Nothing like it was ever known before and it is another mark in this extraordinary production, which holds the record in so many American and foreign cities. The first half of the spectacle, which was suggested by Thomas Dixon's "The Clansman," exhibits the salient events of the War between the States. The formation of the Confederacy, Lincoln's call for troops, Sherman's march to the sea, the Battle of Petersburg, Lee's surrender to Grant and the awful tragedy of Lincoln's assassination at Ford's Theatre, April 14, 1865, live before the specter of the Griffith drama. In the second half of the South's "second uprising"—this time against the carpetbagger regime—is shown in a thrilling story of reconstruction days.

Friday and Saturday, April 14-15—Pola Negri, Europe's greatest star, in "PASSION," proclaimed by many reviewers as "The Horld's Greatest Picture."

"Passion" is the latest sensation in the way of screen productions. Big enough to successfully vie with the biggest stage hits.

This is the intimate romance of a wonder woman. Replete with tremendous dramatic situations, which fairly take the breath away. Beautiful and powerful beyond compare.

The romance of the world's most daring adventuress. The meteoric rise and fall of a winsome little French milliner who reaches the zenith of her glory as the ruler of a king and who finally arrives at her lowest ebb in the shadow of the hatreds of millions of people who had come to regard her as a "vicious creature in skirts." Anticipating unusual attendance the management respectfully suggests that those who can conveniently do so will attend Friday night—and come early.

No advance in prices.

COMING WEEK OF APRIL 10—"French Heels," "Birth of a Nation," "Passion."

MARYLAND CONFERENCE IN SESSION IN CHESTERTOWN

Chestertown Thronged With Ministers—Christ Church, Scene Of Conference, Being Packed At Each Session By Pastors, Delegates And Visitors

The Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church is in session in Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown. The sessions began on Tuesday and will likely continue until next Monday, when the appointments will be read. Large congregations have greeted each session.

The advance guard arrived Monday, while the great body of ministers and delegates arrived by special boat Tuesday evening, while a large number motored to Chestertown from various parts of the Peninsula.

Nearly every home of Chestertown has been opened for the reception of the visitors.

An informal reception was tendered the ministers and delegates Tuesday night in the lecture room of the church by members of the Young People's Society and nearly 200 men and women attended.

The conference sessions were opened Tuesday morning by President James H. Straughn. The roll of the members of the conference was called by Rev. J. F. Wooden, pastor of Kennedyville M. P. Church, followed by the memorial roll call. This was followed by the conference sermon by Rev. Dr. A. Norman Ward, president of Western Md. College. Holy Communion was administered by President Straughn, assisted by a number of ministers.

The afternoon session was devoted to the reading of the president's report and the annual election of officers. Rev. James H. Straughn was reelected president of the conference for the third consecutive year; G. I. Humphreys, pastor of Rhode Island Ave. Church, Washington, D. C., was re-elected secretary; J. A. Dudley was elected conference steward.

Much to the regret of the conference, Rev. Dr. F. T. Tagg, the venerable former editor of the Methodist Protestant, the official organ of the church, and Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, president of the General Confernce, and a member of the Maryland Conference, are prevented from attending the sessions, the former because of feeble health and the latter because of an engagement with a southern conference.

Among the older members of the conference who are in attendance and who have not missed a session of the conference in many years, are Rev. J. L. Mills, Rev. J. B. Litsinger, Rev. A. W. Mather, Rev. G. F. Farring, Rev. Dr. J. M. Strayer and Rev. J. W. Gray.

On Sunday morning the ordination service will be held. Rev. T. O. Crouse, D. D., will make the prayer and Rev. W .B. Judefind will preach the ordination sermon. His subject will be "The Pastor's Twofold Trust." After this the ordination service will be held, the president to be assisted by H. L. Elderdice, L. F. Warner, C. P. Nowlin, N. O. Gibson, E. D. Stone and G. I. Humphreys.

The standing district committee was elected on Wednesday as follows: Revs. F. T. Little, L. F. Warner and J. M. Sheridan and three laymen, G. P. Fisher, W. G. Baker and T. A. Murray.

In his sermon to the members of the conference Wednesday afternoon, Dr. A. N. Ward, president of the Western Maryland College, said that unless the church of Christ gets better the Eighteenth Amendment will be swept away and the saloon will come back.

The conference program in the evening consisted of a series of fraternal greetings from representatives of sister conferences throughout the country. Rev. R. M. Andrews, president of the North Carolina Conference, and Rev. Dr. J. A. Selby, president of the West Virginia Conference, were the principal speakers.

On Thursday a special communication was read from Rev. T. H. Lewis, president of the General Conference, and an interesting address delivered by Rev. Dr. F. C. Klein, special Conference messenger.

The evening services were devoted to the report of the committee on evangelism, with addresses by Rev. John M. Gill, pastor of West Batlimore Church, Rev. E. D. Stone, of Hampden Church, Rev. J. L. Nichols, of Federalsburg, and other members of the conference, who had charge of the tent meetings during the summer.

At 6.30 p. m. the annual reunion and banquet of the Alumni Association of the Theological Seminary was held in William Smith Hall, Washington College, at which 75 guests were seated, with Rev. Louis Randall, of Alnutt Memorial Church, Baltimore, in charge.

Two hundred and fifty ministers and delegates answered to their name when the conference roll was called.

Rumors of many changes are in the air. It is stated that Rev. S. F. Cassen, at present stationed on Baltimore circuit, will succeed Rev. Avery Donovan at St. James, while it is practically certain that Rev. N. O. Gibson, the popular pastor of Christ M. P. Church, will return here for the third year. Rev. Gibson is a powerful preacher, a thorough student of the Bible, and there are many churches in the conference who would be pleased to have him.
