THURSDAY was a great day in Chestertown—Athletic Field Day and Governor Harrington's visit.

THE NEWS extends congratulations to Editor Wilkinson of the Caroline Sun on his 50th anniversary edition.

THE announcement of Comptroller McMullen's prospective retirement from the office brings forward the name of Chief Clerk Harry J. Hopkins for that position. No man in Maryland is better acquainted with the State's finances than is Mr. Hopkins, and very many people will strongly endorse him if he desires to take the position he is so capable of filling.

THOUSANDS of women have appealed to Secretary Houston, of the Department of Agriculture, to know what they can do to help the Government in this crisis. He replies that the best thing they can do is to practice thrift and economy in their own homes. Every pound of food they can save from wasting, every garment they can repair and "make do," so as to save the purchase of a new one, increases by so much the amount of food and textiles that can be sent abroad to feed and clothe our brave allies. In this way every woman, without leaving her own home, can do something to help our country and allies win the war.

THERE will be no favoritism in the Selective Draft. Every man within the ages of 21 to 31 must register and the penalty of the law for evasion of registration will fall not only on the man who fails to appear, but on any member of registration board who may be shown to be in collusion with the person who attemps to escape his duty.

Further than this the registration boards will never act as exemption boards except in certain specific cases, such as where a young man who has registered shall claim to be employed in a federal, state or local office and thereby does come within the exemption clause of the statute. In a case like this the facts must be entered officially and attested.

So far as other reason for exemptions under the law are concerned, exemptions for men engaged in pursuits in which their work is more valuable at home than in the service, the authority will lie with a board of higher jurisdiction.

The law provides the penalty of imprisonment, with no alternative of a fine, for any official or any registered man who shall make a false return or connive at such a practice. The safeguards against favoritism or evasion are ample.

The registration day will be designated by the President and will be a national holiday.

GOVERNOR HARRINGTON made a great speech in Chestertown Thursday. All must work or fight—six days of labor on farm—stop speculation in grain—were among the themes discussed in an able manner.

UNCLE SAM will ignore the Maryland census in making his draft for an army of the large dimensions urged by the staff. The government will make this draft in its own way and under its own laws, the initial steps to be taken at what will be called a registration day, regulations for which have been issued.

WE extend the glad hand of fellowship to S. Charles Walls who has purchased a half interest in the Observer Publishing Co. Mr. Walls has brought the Observer to the fore front in journalistic ranks.

FARM ARMY FOR KENT

One Unit of Fifty Men Will Camp at Galena Saturday—Eleven Farmers Sign Agreement to Benefit Themselves and Neighbors.

Capt. J. E. O'Brien, of the Army of the Farm, has completed his purchases and all the equipment in the way of camp material has now been provided. The first contingent left Thursday for Carroll county, and a second for Kent county will arrive to-day at Galena. Meanwhile recruiting in Baltimore will continue as the various units are assigned. The men are glad they are to go to work.

The officers in charge of headquarters have been in continuous service for nearly a month, without any remuneration, and some of them, having no income from any source, have been hard pressed; but they stood by their commander, rendering loyal support.

The men will camp in tents, furnish their own meals and work for $1.50 per day, the farmers guaranteeing to give them, on an average, 23 days work per month. Holt Woodall, a live, progressive farmer, is one of the leading spirits in this innovation and has ten other farmers supporting him. Other farmers in the neighborhood owe it these 11 men to see that they are supported and not allowed to carry any unnecessary burden, because the experiment is for the benefit of all the farmers in that neighborhood and the public in general.

At a meeting of the Farm Labor Committee of the Governor's Committee on Preparedness and Survey, it was decided to make a thorough test of the farm-army plan with the two units to go out this week. These units will be composed of picked men from the 325 who have been enlisted. If the plan proves a success additional units will be organized quickly and sent to other counties.

It was stated at the meeting by Chairman W. H. Manss that the Agricultural Department in Washington is keeping in close touch with the development here of the farm-army idea, and if it proves a success Congressional action will be asked to organize such armies on a national basis. Mr. Manss outlined the financial aspects of the army plan of providing farm laborers, and produced estimates showing that each army unit of 50 men could be made self-sustaining.

Mr. Manss figured that the equipment for the men, which he considered as the permanent investment, will cost about $1,442 82, the equipment consisting of a uniform and shoes, underclothing, overalls, caps, blankets kitchen utensils and tents. His esdimate of the monthly cost of the army unit of 50 men is as follows:

Depreciation on equipment on six-months basis, $190 80. Salaries—Lieutenant, $60; sergeant, $30; cook, $30; six corporals at $18, $108; 41 privates at $15, $615; commissary for 50 men at $9, $450; incidentals and overhead, $50; total monthly cost, $1,533 80.

To offset the expenses of the army he figured that the eight officers working as gang foremen would be worth $2 a day and the 41 privates $1 50 a day, making a total income of $1,798 50 for 24 working days. Allowing 10 per cent. for loss of time on account of rain and sickness, this makes the net income $1,618 70, from which must be deducted the monthly cost of $1,533 80, which would leave a monthly surplus of $85 90. The daily wage earned by the men will be turned over to the committee, which in turn, will pay the men at the ratio quoted.

Why This Is Baltimore's Best Store...

¶ "Baltimore's Best Store" is not a title which we arbitrarily adopted. It was conferred upon us years ago by the shopping public.

¶ From the beginning of this store, nearly twenty years ago, we have striven to do these things:

To serve as well as to sell;

To give the store a homelike and hospitable atmosphere;

To make courtesy, liberality and friendliness everyday virtues among our people;

To sell dependable merchandise at fair prices, permitting no misrepresentation of quality or value, either in the public prints or behind our counters;

To make good, cheerfully and willingly, any shortcomings in any article we sell.

¶ It is these principles that have been woven into the success of Baltimore's Best Store. And we are not even content with the store as it is, but are ever trying to make it still better.

¶ Whenever you visit Baltimore, make this store your shopping headquarters. Whether you purchase or not, you will find the same cordial welcome.
