MASSEY

An epoch in patriotism was made, and a monument to Odd Fellowship was builded at Massey on Saturday last, when Massey Lodge No. 157, I. O. O. F. presented the High School with a handsome American Flag. Some of the most prominent Odd Fellows in the State including the Hon Henry M. McCullough, Deputy Grand Master, of Elkton; John B. Spence, Grand Warden, and William A. Jones, Grand Secretary, of Baltimore, Md.; were present and the addresses were edifying, and stirring. In his presentation speech Ex-Senator McCullough poured forth a flow of oratory, which by its patriotic fervor elicited frequent cheers from a representative gathering. The program as published was rendered with the exception that School Commissioner J. P. Ahern accepted the flag on behalf of the school. The teachers and pupils of Massey school are to be complimented for the interest shown, and the admirable manner in which they carried out their part of the program. Taken all in all it awakened Massey and vicinity to a realization of what the Stars and Stripes really mean, and as a result many Liberty Bonds were subscribed for this week. The Odd Fellows especially W. T. Medford, Grand Guardian, of the Grand Lodge of the State of Maryland, and a member of Massey Lodge., the progenitor of the movement, are the recipients of praise from teachers, pupils and citizens.

Miss Edythe Maslin, and Miss Lydia Newnam are preparing to do their bit by learning telegraphing, and railroad work in order to fill the places of boys who may be called to the colors. These young ladies are progressing rapidly at Massey Station.

B. W. Nickerson, Manager of the Milk Station is ill.

BODY OF KIDNAPPED BABY IN OLD WELL

Springfield, Mo., June 9.—The body of "Buddie" Keet, fourteen-month-old heir to a $3,000,000, fortune, who was kidnapped, was found in an unused well behind the deserted Crenshaw mansion on the edge of the city today. Mrs. J. Holland Keet, mother of the child, fainted when the news was conveyed to her.

The Crenshaw mansion is the place said to have been used as a rendezvous by the seven suspects under arrest on a charge of conspiring to abduct rich Springfield men and women and hold them for ransom. It is eight miles from the Keet bungalow in Meadowmere.

The discovery of the body was made just as the parents were waiting for confirmation from Sparta of a report that the child had been recovered there alive.

The hopes of the mother were at their height when an automobile dashed up the driveway to the Keet home.
