THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

Every courtesy and accommodation that can be possibly extended will be shown you at this Bank. Make our Banking Rooms your MONEY HEADQUARTERS. Kindly bear in mind that we do not ask you to spend any money or to buy anything. You are out nothing, but ahead a great deal by establishing the Banking Habit.

Without encouragement or incentive anyone would just naturally drift along—careless about present money affairs, unmindful of future advantages. But don't you see we are putting squarely before you that incentive? The THIRD NATIONAL BANK OF CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, deliberately asks you to join its rapidly growing family of thrifty, prudent customers. When once you have started building up a balance in a bank book, you will keep going.

Will you make that start? It's easy, and think of how much that start will eventually mean to you. All of our business with our customers is strictly confidential. We want you to feel perfectly at home with us, and whether or not we do a great amount of business together, we shall try to make our relations both pleasant and profitable to you. Call and see us.

LYCEUM THEATRE

CHESTERTOWN
Showing Only The Best In Motion Pictures

Friday and Saturday, May 26 and 27—First National Pictures presents Pola Negri in "One Arabian Night."

Official report of the National Board of Review says:

"This vivid, swift-moving picture is the peer of oriental dramas on the screen. It has the true atmosphere of an Arabian Nights tale and must rank as one of the exceptional photoplays of the year. It has both dramatic intensity and comic relief of an unusual order. The acting of Polo Negri may be said to be the finest and most convincing of her career before the American public, and the supporting cast is one of great ability."

Two shows—7.15 and 8.45.

Monday, May 29th—"FLASHES OF ACTION," official war pictures shown under auspices of Frank M. Jarman Post American Legion.

Tuesday, May 30th—H. B. Warner in "Dice of Destiny"—also Movie Chats, International News and "Winners of the West Serial."

Wednesday and Thursday, May 31—June 1—Subjects to be announced.

Friday and Saturday, June 2-3—Wesley Barry in "SCHOOL DAYS."

Did you ever play hookey from school?

Wesley Barry, the freckle-faced movie star, plays hookey more than once in Gus Edwards' scree play, "School Days."

The very mention of the words "School Days" holds an appeal for young and old, and it is said that every mother who has boys, every man who remembers his boyhood, every human being who can thrill to the joys, the disappointments, the pranks and the glory of boyhood will gloat over the trials and tribulations of Speck Brown, better known to the screen world as Wes' Barry.

Briefly, the story centers around a small town boy who loves the old swimmin' hole and his dog, Hippy, better than anything else in the world. He meets a wealthy uncle who sends him East to get an education. Here he meets many youngsters of wealthy parents, and he finds himself out of the social swim. He is beset by many trials and tribulations, and finally he goes back home to his faithful dog and his little country sweetheart via the freight train route.

Two shows Saturday night, 7.15 and 8.45. Come early as everybody will want to see this play.

COMING—Wesley Barry in "School Days."

DEATHS

After an illness which has lasted several years, Mr. Marion Malcolm, of Morgnec, died Thursday night from a complication of diseases, aged 66 years. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m. at the home of the deceased in Morgnec and also in Harford County at 11 a. m. Monday morning in Spenstsia P. E. Church, interment in Harford County. Mr. Malcolm leaves a widow, one son, Mr. Othman Malcolm, and a daughter, Mrs. Bonn Towner, all of whom have given him the full measure of their devotion during his lengthly illness.

Mr. Malcolm moved to this section in 1919 from Harford County, where his farm was taken over by the government and used as part of the Proving Grounds. He purchased the Fisher farms, in Morgnec, and immediately began the improvement of the same, tearing down old buildings and erecting new ones in their stead, and improving the land, until today the farm has one one of the most beautiful homes and presents one of the most beautiful appearances, of any farm along the Chester river. He was a man of tremendous energy and was tireless in his efforts to make his new home farm as substantial and as beautiful as the one upon which he had resided from early manhood.

Mr. Malcolm was a gentleman of unusual and extraordinary ability along many lines of endeavor, and by his energy he became one of the wealthiest men in the communities in which he resided, both in Harford and in Kent counties.

He was a rugged, kind-hearted gentleman of the old school, willing and ready at all times to do a kind and loving act for a neighbor or a friend. He possessed a charitable heart and was a contributor to any project that added either to the community's uplift or to individual need. His home was the scene of many happy events, and was ever open to his friends and the friends of his friends.

A loving husband, a devoted father, a kind and willing neighbor, a good citizen, a lover of the good and beautiful—we number Mr. Malcolm among the ones whose deaths have caused not only Kent County, but the whole race, to be poorer thereby. We knew him well. We were among the first in this section to make his acquaintance. We knew something of his ambitions and his joys and his regrets. We mourn with those who stand closer in the shadow.

The dead body of J. Romie Byrom a well-known farmer living near Chestertown, was found last Saturday morning lying beside his automobile in the cross road running from Hopewell corner to the Flatland road through the Stewart farm, about two miles from town.

The body had no doubt lain in the road all night and the better part of Friday, as Mr. Byrom was seen Friday morning about 8:30 driving toward Hopewell corner. A little later a telephone message was received at a local garage asking that help be sent to get his car out of the mud. In response to this call men were immediately sent, but they returned after failing to find any trace of Mr. Byrom or his car, not knowing his exact location and not thinking he would have taken the Stewart road owing to it being but little used and in very bad condition. Apparently Mr. Byrom had taken this road as a short cut to his home. Appearances of the road indicated that the car had been stalled in the mud, and it is believed in endeavoring to extricate the car unassisted Mr. Byrom was stricken with heart failure and died before assistance reached him.

Coroner Dr. Harry L. Dodd viewed the remains and rendered a verdict that death was due to heart failure. There was nothing about the body of Mr. Byrom, or the condition of the car, to indicate that he had been a victim of foul play.

The deceased was 59 years of age, and leaves a widow. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from his late residence, the Rev. Dr. S. S. Hepburn officiating, interment in Chester Cemetery. The bearers were: H. Clay Lusby, Walter T. Bennett, Wm. F. Russell, Stewart R. Matthews, John N. Bennett, Harry Nicols, Wilbur Morris and Frank Shinn. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of arrangements.

WEDDINGS

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at noon on Saturday last at Christ M. P. Church. The ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate family and a few friends and was performed by Rev. N. O. Gibson. The contracting parties were Miss Loureine Estella Smith of Washington, D. C., and Mr. George Franklin Frohme, of Cleveland, Ohio. The bride was attired in white canton crepe with hat to match, and carried bride's roses. She was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Owen C. Smith. Miss Florence Smith, of Washington, was maid of honor and was dressed in pink crepe de chine with hat to match and carried roses. Mr. Franklin Smith, of Quantico, brother of the bride was best man. Immediately following the ceremony a buffett luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Smith. After which the happy couple left by Newark for Cleveland, Ohio, where they will make their future home.

Miss Ivy May Simms, daughter of Edward Simms and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Coleman, was quietly married Tuesday evening, May 16th, to Mr. Lucien Louis Thomas by Rev. F. L. Hicks at his home near Rock Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas have the best wishes of a large circle of acquaintances. The young couple are making their home with the groom's parents, Capt. and Mrs. Joshua Thomas, near Rock Hall.
