SPORTS

COMMENT ON A VARIETY OF SPORTS FROM MANY ANGLES

A big baseball game is scheduled at Washington College this afternoon between Washington College and Gettysburg College. This should be a hard-fought contest.

Griffith continues to make the dust fly on the Washington College diamond, and it makes little dicerence to him that the jinx has been following the Washington College team like Javers in the pursuit of Jean Valjean. He posseses unbounded enthusiasm and is one of the best lead-off men Coach Kibler has developed at the College in years.

Washington College played away below form on Friday afternoon and lost to Mt. St. Mary's by the score of 7 to 4. Wright was on the mound for the local collegians and pitched good ball but was poorly supported, the W. C. boys performing all kinds of stunts in their march towards defeat. Players that had in the past performed brilliantly showed up poorly, which paved the way for defeat. As the game drew to a close, Washington showed flashes of a return to form through the medium of batting rallies in the eighth and ninth innings, but the jinx showed his teeth savagely and the rally almost "died aborning."

Washington College lost another poor exhibition to Blue Ridge College Saturday afternoon, 7 to 4. Hickey was on the mound for Washington and was hit hard from the very first, but received miserable support at times. He was relieved in the latter part of the game by Bradford, who was more effective. Washington hit the ball hard at times, but the hits were not well placed, while the Blue Ridge boys fielded brilliantly.

The Washington College football team will be on the scheduel of Western Maryland this year, the game taking place on Thanksgiving Day.

Ty Cobb, one of the greatest players the American game ever produced, is giving the leaders a hard fight for the top honors in the American League. The Georgia Peach is now hitting the ball for .413.

The Eastern Shore League will start on June 9, with Capt. Kibler's Cambridge team facing Frock's Laurel aggregation, Salisbury facing Crisfield, and Parksley meeting Pocomoke City.

The field and track meet to be held by the American Legion next Tuesday is causing considerable interest. Last year the Legion-Massey game drew a tremendous crowd. This year will, no doubt, be no exception. Kennedyville will be the opponents of the Legion team this year.

Washington College will holds its initial Eastern Shore championship field and track meet today, Saturday. The entries for the meet will be larger than any event of this kind that has ever been held on the Eastern Shore. This meet, conducted by the W. C. authorities, is a novel institution and is attracting considerable attention from all parts of the state. Practically all the counties on the Shore have entered representatives. The high schools from the Eastern Shore of Virginia have also applied to enter and the authorities have made provisions enabling them to do so. The meet is in no way intended to detract from the annual championship meet held at Homewood by the Public Athletic League, but, on the contrary, it is intended to get the Shore athletes interested in track work so as to make a creditable showing when they appear in Baltimore. Suitable medals will be rewarded. Lunch will be served the gold for first place, silver for second and bronze for third. High point scorers and record breakers also will be remarded. Lunch will be served the contestants and accommodations have been provided for the lower county boys over Friday and Saturday nights. The events will be watched with great interest by our many lovers of sports in Kent county.

Paige 6-66 Mounts To Third Place In Quality Market

Recent sales records show that the Paige has attained third position among cars that occupy the "quality" field. The 6-66 line has won this high place in the market where cars sell for more than $2000 in little over a year's time and has shot past two score makes that have been occupying their places high among the leaders for a number of years.

"There are some forty-three well-known companies ogering cars listing for over $2000," says Harry M. Jewett, president of the Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company. "Taking Paige 6-66 sales alone and comparing them, we find but two that top the Paige 6-66 line in volume of sales. Both are famous makes with twenty years' prestige behind them; and the one that crowded us out of second place in the fine car field did so by tens and not hundreds.

"No market is more desirable than the quality market. None is more difficult to secure. Sales in this market depend on prestige and prestige is believed to be a matter of ten or twenty years growth. As we have been offering cars in the class above $2000 for only little more than a year, we are particularly gratified with the record the 6-66 line is making and the prompt manner in which it has firmly entrenched itself in the quality market of America."

DECORATION DAY

Final Arrangements Completed—Will Be A Big Event

Final arrangements have been made by the American Legion for Decoration Day. On Monday evening "Flashes of Action," real war pictures, taken under fire, will be shown. This is considered the best war picture on the screen and was taken by the War Department photographers.

On Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock the American Legion will parade in uniform to Chester cemetery and decorate the graves of deceased ex-service men. Services will be conducted at the cemetery by the Post Chaplain, Rev. O. E. Jones, and speeches will be made by Mr. Edwin H. Brown, Jr., of Centreville, by Rev. L. B. Sheen, an ex-service man, and by Dr. C. P. Gould, of Washington College.

At 1 p. m. the automobile parade will start on High street and prizes of $20, $10 and $5 will be awarded the three best decorated cars. After the automobile parade the Track Meet will be held on Washington Field. All schools are invited to participate in this. Several events will be open to students of Washington College. Prizes will be awarded winners of each event.

Drawing will be made on the field for the Ford Car raffled by the American Legion. The car will be on the field and the winner will take possession of it immediately.

After the Track Meet the American Legion baseball team will clash with the Kennedyville team. Both teams expect to play the best material available and the game should prove a good one.

The newly organized Chestertown Band has been engaged for the day and will furnish music for each occasion.
