EYE DON'TS

DON'T buy glasses as you would hats. They should be fitted by some one who understands the anatomy of the eye.

DON'T wear other people's glasses.

DON'T allow some cheap fakir to tamper with your eyes. In most cases they get the money—you get the experience.

DON'T use your eyes after you discover that you have to hold your book or sewing at a greater distance than usual. This is the first symptom of eye strain.

DON'T MARK YOUR BOND

Defacement May Prevent Its Negotiation

Liberty Loan Committee Presents Some Interesting Facts Concerning Last Issue.

Don't deface your Liberty Bond. Any marks or writing on these bonds may make it impossible to sell them or borrow money on them, therefore don't write your name or put any identification marks on the bonds you own. This rule is well known to bankers, but not generally understood by the public. Any bond on which such marking or writing has been placed is not a "good delivery." In other words when offered for sale or use as collateral for a loan it would not be accepted.

Keep this fact well in mind; interest on Liberty Bonds, both the first issue bearing interest at the rate of 3½ per cent. and on the second issue bearing interest at the rate of 4 per cent., is payable every six months. On December 15th next the first interest coupon on the 3½ per cent. bonds will be paid. Those who have paid in full for these bonds and have them in their possession should clip this particular coupon and present it on or after December 15th to any bank or post office where it will be cashed. Coupons on bonds being paid for on the installment plan will be cashed and in adjusting interest credited to the owner by the banks where the purchase was made. The first coupon on the 4 per cent. bonds is payable on May 15th next.

Any report that interest will be withheld until after the war is absolutely false and is circulated by enemies of the United States. The United States has never failed to pay interest on its obligations the moment it became due.

It might be well to owners of Liberty Bonds who are uncertain on any point to call on any reputable banker for enlightenment. The information will be cheerfully furnished without cost, and this will enable the Government to checkmate those who would circulate false rumors designed to disturb persons who have invested in Liberty Bonds.

The bank that is selling you a Liberty Bond on weekly or monthly installments advances its own money to buy these bonds from the Government. It is lending you the difference between the installments you have paid and the cost of the bond. It pays the Government one hundred cents on each dollar expressed in the face value of the bond. It receives no discount, no commission, and no profit no matter whether it has bought a $50 bond or millions of them. Interest on the bonds and interest on the unpaid installments practically offset each other, so neither the bank or the installment purchaser make a profit. It is an even break. If anything the banks loses as the money yet to come back to it from the unpaid installments could now be loaned for other purposes at a higher rate of interest. The banks charged for services neither the Government nor the purchaser of Liberty Bonds. A leading savings bank of Baltimore has practically doubled its clerical force to take care of this work. It is this voluntary service that made it possible for the Government to sell the second Liberty Bonds to ten million people.

Any story that bankers and brokers profited to the extent of a single penny through the sale of Liberty Bonds is absolutely untrue. Far from profiting, bankers and brokers not only gave their time gratis, but devoted all of their machinery, which includes their bond salesmen, office force, etc., without any compensation whatsoever. As a matter of fact they used their own funds in promoting the sale of the bonds, and sacrificed all other business to aid their country in marketing its bonds.

There is no mystery about the temporary decline in the price of Liberty Bonds. Many patriotic persons anxious that the subscriptions be a tremendous success, bought more than they could conveniently pay for, and later sold a portion of the bonds at a time when the general market was depressed. In order to market them they were forced to shade the price. They accepted their loss with good grace, satisfied that they had done 'their bit" in aiding the Government to make the Loan the tremendous success it was.

Owners of Liberty Bonds have no concern with temporary fluctuations in market prices. The value is always in the bonds and that is what counts. There is a difference between price and value. Price when referring to a Liberty Bond means what the bond will bring in the market at a particular time. Value means what the bond is actually worth. In the case of Liberty Bonds they are worth every penny stamped on the Bond—One hundred cents on the dollar.

Do not overlook the fact that if the Government at some future time during the period of the war issues an obligation bearing a higher rate of interest the present bonds are convertible into the issue bearing the higher rate, with this proviso the 4's must be first converted into successive issue following. The 3½'s are convertible at the option of the holder into 4's or any subsequent issue.

¶ The Hochschild, Kohn & Co. Store was founded in 1897. It began with a plain announcement of its policy and its intentions.

¶ A clear contract was made—is still made, and will always be made — with every customer. This is the contract — it is printed on the back of every salescheck:

OUR SYSTEM

¶ Baltimore's Best Store is the store of progress. It is not ideal, but it is striving to be.

¶ Its aim is to please—to satisfy; and it never loses sight of the mark. It is the accepted and avowed shopping place of a great many people—in Baltimore, throughout Maryland, and in almost every other State in the Union.
