THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

THE FOLLOWING COMMUNICATION EXPLAINS ITSELF:

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, THIRD NATIONAL BANK,

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

Gentlemen: I am writing to state the progress made by the Boys' Corn Club members who have been aided by your liberal gifts and prizes offered and to express my appreciation for your co-operation.

Not least among the duties of a County Agent is to conduct Boys' Club Work. In fact, I am of the opinion that perhaps it is the greatest Agricultural Extension work being conducted in Kent County. The work is so big and so broad that co-operation is welcomed. I congratulate you for being the first bank to request and enter into a definite line of co-operation with Boys' Club Work of Kent County.

In regard to your offer to furnish free to all Boys' Club Members who raise corn this year, enough of the best seed corn available to plant an acre each, the following have received and are now growing corn furnished by your bank:

Howell Crew	Worton, Md.	Thomas Stevens	Millington, Md.
Stanley Sutton	Chestertown, Md.	Herman Voshell	Millington, Md.
Martin Sutton	Chestertown, Md.	Thomas Newnam	Millington, Md.
Albert Sutton	Chestertown, Md.	Noland Robinson	Millington, Md.
Spencer Kelley	Chestertown, Md.	Thomas Rowan	Massey, Md.
William Anderson	Chestertown, Md.	Charles Massey	Massey, Md.
Auton Lucht	Chestertown, Md., R. D.3	Edward Caldwell	Galena, Md.
John Coburn	Rock Hall, Md.	Marion Sutton	Blacks, Md.
George Orr	Rock Hall, Md.	Norman Pennington	Kennedyville, Md.
Harry Thompson	Rock Hall, Md.	Maxwell Rasin	Worton, Md.
Bennie Willson	Rock Hall, Md.	Harold Williams	Worton, Md.

These boys are all very enthusiastic in their undertaking and are competing to win the following prizes which I understood was the offer made by you:

To the boy winning First Prize $20.00
This boy to attend Club Week at the University of Maryland out of the $20.00—which will cost him about $10.00.
To the boy winning Second Prize 15.00
To the boy winning Third Prize 10.00
To the boy winning Fourth Prize 5.00
To the boy winning Fifth Prize 3.00

This co-operation by the Third National has greatly stimulated Boys' Agricultural Club Members to raise more and better seed corn. There are twice as many boys raising corn this year because of your co-operation as otherwise would have raised corn. It is my intention to help these Club Members select the best seed corn which they raise from their acres and sell it to farmers next spring and thus improve the seed corn and corn yields of Kent County.

It is very gratifying to me to have such staunch co-operation as your bank is giving to Boys' Club Work in Kent County, because it brings us closer to the goal for which we are striving, Better Agriculture in Kent County.

Sincerely yours,
HORACE B. DERRICK,
County Agent, Kent County.

DIRECTORS.

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Miss Emma Evelyn Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Milton Jones, of Baltimore and Rock Hall, to Mr. Sweetzer Linthicum Green, son of Mrs. Louise C. Green, was solemnized last Wednesday morning at Grace and St. Peter's P. E. Church, Baltimore, the ceremony being performed by Rev. H. P. A. Abbott, rector of the church.

Invitations have been received to the wedding of Mr. John Christian Krusen and Miss Beatrice Leanore Lewis, of West Philadelphia. The wedding will take place in St. James P. E. Church, of Kingsessing, West Philadelphia, on Saturday, June 24. Mr. Krusen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Krusen, of Philadelphia, formerly of Still Pond, and is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Bennett, of Chestertown, who will attend the wedding.

The wedding of Miss F. Adelaide and Professor Charles B. Shaunessy, of and Profess Charles B. Shaunessy, of Chestertown, took place at Sacred Heart Church, Chestertown, early Wednesday morning. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Father Earner, the happy couple left on an extended honeymoon trip north. Miss Kratzer is one of Kent's most well-known and charming young ladies, while Prof. Shaunessy is a member of the Washington College Faculty. Both have many warm friends in this section and elsewhere.

Mr. Norman E. Peterson and Miss Blanche E. Meekins, of Chestertown, were married at Kennedyville on June 10 by the Rev. Mr. Staats. Mr. Peterson is a member of the Kent News composing room force, while Miss Meekins is one of Chestertown's attractive and well-known young ladies.

Miss Anna May Trew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Trew, of Quaker Neck, became the wife of Mr. Lewin Hitchcock, one of last year's Washington College students, last Saturday in Baltimore. Both are well known to a wide circle of friends and acquaintances in Kent county.

Important Decision Given

Judge Wickes, in the Circuit Court at Easton, handed down an opinion on Tuesday which has the effect of preventing Dr. James A. Stevens, of Easton, from operating at the Emergency Hospital, Easton. Dr. Stevens, who is getting along in years, recently filed an injunction to compel the hospital directors to allow him to use the operating room for surgical cases, as he alleged that he has been refused permission to do so. The injunction case was heard at the May term of court and the opinion dissolving the injunction was rendered Monday. The court also held that the directors of the hospital were the only ones who have the right to say who shall operate at the hospital.

"SMILIN' THROUGH" IS COMING TO THE LYCEUM

"Smilin' Through," Norma Talmadge's screen version of Allen Langdon Martin's famous stage play, will be the piece-de-resistance at the Lyceum Theatre, Friday and Saturday, July 7th and 8th.

According to all advance reports, this is the biggest screen achievement of Miss Talmadge. The production has been filmed on a lavish scale under the direction of Sidney Franklin.

A cast of unusual excellence appears in support of the star and includes Wyndham Standing, Harrison Ford, Alec B. Francis, Glenn Hunter, Grace Griswold, Miriam Battista and Eugene Lockhart.

Miss Talmadge plays a dual role in a dramatic story of great heart interest. She is seen as the beautiful Monyeen, who is killed by a rejected suitor on her wedding day and as Kathleen, niece of Monyeen, who falls in love with the son of the man who caused the death of her aunt.

The role it is said, gives Norma a great opportunity to exercise her extraordinary talents as a wonderful emotional and dramatic actress.

The production is a First National attraction. It is being shown at the Lyceum under auspices of "The Soldiers' of the Cross" of the M. E. Sunday School, benefit of new church building fund.

LEGAL NOTICE

Tuesday, July 4, being a legal holiday, and the Governor having declared the preceding day, Monday, July 3, a holiday also, the Third National Bank will be closed on both days. Notes maturing on these dates may be attended to on Wednesday, July 5.
