TYLER PAGE, Clerk
he U. of Representatives, the former Republican nominee
r Congress in the Second District of the State of Maryland, is the first Republican to formally announce his candidacy for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate in opposition to Senator France.

MONDAY, July 3, has been declared by Governor Ritchie as a legal holiday. This will afford a holiday for bank and public officials extending from Sunday until Wednesday. A holiday at this time of the year, when one feels like getting in the open and leaving business behind, is greatly welcomed. The American people would be greatly benefited by more holidays of this kind. Europeans look with amazement on the fact that the American business is continuously working and seems to relax.

was expected the Harding administration received its fourth defeat this week in the defeat of Senator umber for renomination in North ota. The Senator was the old d standard bearer in the Senate. hairman of the Senate Finance mittee and leader of the McCumordney Tariff Bill, his defeat at time has a special significance. umber is now added to three other t old guard casualities. President Harding's recent handling of latroubles is an example of the inency and dilatory methods practby the present administration.

POSITION to Senator France as Republican nominee is appearing he Republican party. In spite of Senator's trip to Russia and his ny impractical and radical ideas, he s not seem to be holding his party line in the state. At a meeting held Braddock Heights this week he was everely criticized by members of his own party and his withdrawal as a candidate for the nomination was demanded.

Special objection was raised to the Senator's alleged statement that he was willing to spend $200,000 for the nomination and re-election. Many active and prominent Republicans attended this anti-France meeting and openly expressed their opposition to the Senator. The reception given by Senator France after the Key Memorial exercises and attended by President Harding and prominent State Republicans, does not seem to have developed into the harmony feast hoped for by Senator France.

Wool To Blankets and Motor Robes

The Sheep and Wool Committee of the Kent Co. Produce Exchange met in the County Agent's office recently and decided to give the members of the Kent County Produce Exchange and others an opportunity to pool their wool and have it manufactured into bed blankets and motor robes again this year. Wednesday, July 19, was decided upon as the date to make the shipment.

It takes ten pounds of clean wool in the grease, 11 pounds if slightly burry and 12 pounds if very burry, to have a fine wool bed blanket, 72 by 84 inches double, made. It requires 8 pounds of clean wool, 9 pounds if slightly burry and 10 pounds if very burry to have a fine large motor robe made.

Further particulars will be published in this paper before the time of shipment, July 19.

Western Maryland College

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of Western Maryland College appearing in this issue. This college is located at Westminster, Md., and begins its fifty-sixth year Sept. 18, 1922. It has made a record for thoroughness and excellence not surpassed by any in the state. Its beautiful location in the high-lands of Maryland, its fine equipment in buildings and grounds, its high-grade faculty, its modern courses of study and its charges kept down to reasonable rates makes it an attractive place to get an education.

The college ocers eight courses leading to the degree of B. A. Courses may be elected which prepare for the schools of law, medicine, and engineering. A four-year course in Home Economics leading to the degree of B. A. is offered. In addition to the regular course secures a certificate of the tary courses in music, speech and education. Completion of the last named course secuers a certificate of the State Board of Education. A regular unit of the Reserve Officer's Training Corps is established at the college, the government supplying the Professor of military science and tactics and unifors and equipment.

A new dormitory, costing $150,000 will be completed by September 1st in time for the opening of school. A new athletic field, built at a cost of $50,000 and considered the best field in the eastern part of the United States, was dedicated in June.

We commend this institution to any of our readers who may be considering sending their sons and daughters away to college.

Big Strike Starts Today

Strike orders signed by the six craft presidents of the railroad shopmen's organization were sent out this week to general chairmen representing 400,000 men, authorizing a strike at 10 a. m., July 1, "on all railroads and Pullman shops in the United States."

Letters of instruction regarding the progress and conduct of the strike were mailed out Thursday night.

The first actual step toward the strike, in protest against decisions of the United States Railroad Labor Board was taken last Wednesday night when J. W. Kline, president of the International Brotherhood of Blacksmith, Drop Forgers and Helpers, sent a telegram to the members of his craft, numbered among the shop workers, authorizing a cessation of work at 10 a. m. Saturday.

The impending walkout makes Saturday a momentous day in the railroad world. On that date the $400,000,000 cut in freight rates ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission becomes effective, simultaneously with a slash of $135,000,000 from the wages of railway workers ordered by the U. S. Railroad Labor Board. The pay of the shopmen was cut $60,000,000.

Despite the impending walkout from the shops and the tracks, rail officials declared transportation would continue to move.

"Oratory Seekers" Are Disappointed

A party of six from Chestertown journeyed the nearly forty miles to Denton by auto Wednesday afternoon to hear the renouned Dr. A.Parks Cadman deliver one of his famous lectures. After a pleasant journey down to the pretty little town which nestles on the banks of the Choptank and a most enjoyable supper at the hotel there, the little party of Cadman "rooters" were ready for the "big guns." After a brief survey of the town, the party came across Senator Towers, who after bidding them welcome, broke the sad news to them that Dr. Cadman was "unavoidedly detained" in Brooklyn at his home, whereupon the popular Caroline County Senator, who is being mentioned by the Republicans as their candidate for Congress at the coming election, took the disappointed party into his palatial home, gave them of choice viands (gingerale) of his well-stocked closet and treated them to a fine sample of Caroline county hospitality, in which Mrs. Towers played a most prominent part. And so, after all, in spite of the failure of Dr. Cadman to appear, the trip was not a failure. Mr. Knotts, attorney, and Mr. Deakyne, the Clerk of the Court, showed the party through the splendid Court House, which is said to be the best on the Circuit.

The return trip, however, proved one of thrills. A cloudburst had filled the state road in many places with tons of water, which seemed to have a liking for the course of travel and was not inclined to leave, pouring over the road like a veritable Niagara and making travel uncertain and, perhaps, unsafe. But, thanks to the keen eye and the steady hand of the owner of the car, who was at the wheel, and the undaunted courage of the "pilot," who, perhaps, risked his life in the flood which was pouring knee-deep over the motorists' pathway, the little corterie of "oratory seekers" arrived home without mishap.

—Lightning killed a calf belonging to Mr. Ruthwin Strong recently. Mr. Belt Townshend adjusted an insurance claim of $25 on the same yesterday.
