Mrs. Burton Advises Women On Motherhood and Companionship

"For several years I was denied the blessing of motherhood," writes Mrs. Margaret Burton, of Kansas City. "I was terribly nervous and subject to periods of terrible suffering and melancholia. Now I am the proud mother of a beautiful little daughter and a true companion and inspiration to my husband. I believe hundreds of other women would like to know the secret of my happiness, and I will gladly reveal it to any married woman who will write me." Mrs. Burton offers this advice entirely without charge. She has nothing to sell. Letters should be addressed, to Mrs. Margaret Burton, 252 Wasashington, Kansas City, Mo. Correspondence will be strictly confidential.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—"A Night in the Orient" was the theme carried out at the Seventh Annual Mardi Gras, sponsored by the Lucy Stone Civic League on Friday evening, February 3rd, at the Labor Lyceum in Miller street. About seventy young people took part in some fifteen groups, each group representing, by both song and dance, a foreign country. The countries of the Far East were represented by interpretive solo dances. Dowager queens, who ruled in Mardi Gras of other years, escorted the 1928 queen, Miss Benita Robinson, to her throne. Kenneth C. Jones acted as Emperor of the Chinese court. The beautiful costumes, training of the groups, and every minute detail were carefully worked out by committees headed by Mesdames Lula E. Providence, Sadie Lynch, Rhea Duff, Beatrice Page, Emma W. Richards, Minnie Ryan and Miss Grace S. Lowndes. McDew's Royal Syncopators furnished the music for this truly gala affair. The proceeds will be used, as in other years, to create scholarships for worthy students.
