Rev. James W. Easley, pastor of the McCabe M. E. Church, formerly of Chestertown, has purchased a 160-acre farm near Dover, in one of the richest agricultural sections of the State, and plans at the close of his active work in the ministery to devote his time to agricultural pursuits. Dr. Easley has announced his intention of leaving the pastorate of the McCabe Church at the coming session of the Wilmington Conference, but has made no statement of his plans for the future.

All fish must be sold by the pound, according to a recent ruling of the Food Administrator. Under this regulation, roe shad Wednesday were being sold at wholesale for 23 cents a pound and buck shad from 13 to 14 cents per pound. At this price a full grown shad would average $1.15 each. This price, however, in all probability will be reduced as the season advances and the supply increases. A good supply of other fish is also on the market for which there is a good demand. Prices at present are white perch, 8 to 10 cents a pound; pike, 15 cents; carp, 6 to 8 cents; catfish, 4 to 5 cents; rock, 18 cents.

There is said to a big drop in furs all over the country and the New York prices are very low. The Delaware trappers state that they are worth about 75 cents.

"Kent News" $1.00 per year.

"OVER THERE"

Maryland's Great Liberty Loan Cantonment Opens March 30.

Fifth Regiment Armory Baltimore.

For the Third Liberty Loan, Maryland's Liberty Loan Committee is making ambitious plans to the end that this patriotic movement may meet with unqualified success.

It is announced that the big drive will start on Saturday, April 6, but the committee, taking time by the forelock, will commence operations on March 30.

In order to arouse general interest and enthusiasm, it has been arranged to present certain features of the war very graphically to everyone who visits Baltimore during the first weeks of the campaign. As the result of some months of careful planning and with the co-operation of the Government of the Dominion of Canada, and of various Allied War Agencies in the United States, arrangements have been made for a Liberty Loan Cantonment which will open in the Fifth Regiment Armory in Baltimore on Saturday, March 30.

CANADIAN WAR TROPHIES.

The Canadian exhibit has been collected as a nucleus for a permanent war museum for the Dominion. It includes many trophies which Canadian valor captured at Ypres, Courcellette and Vimp Ridge. Among these are German cannon, machine guns, bomb throwers, small arms, grenades, signal rockets, aeroplanes, parachutes, body armor, intrenching tools, periscopes and countless other appliances for attack and defense.

ARMY AND NAVY.

Our own Army and Navy will be well represented by interesting exhibits. There will be demonstrations of the war work of the American Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C A, Knights of Columbus, Food and Fuel Administrations, etc., and other instructive displays.

FAMOUS BANDS.

There will be daily concerts by some of the most noted bands in the Union, including the Marine Band of Washing, and Lieut. Sousa's famous organization, the band of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

REMARKABLE NEW MOVING PICTURES.

There will also be exhibitions of thrilling moving pictures. It will be the aim of the Committee to make every day one of the special features.

NOTED SPEAKERS.

For example, there will be Canadian Day, on which occasion the Dominion's most prominent statesmen will be present and discuss Canada's activities in this war.

On other days, distinguished members of the Diplomatic Corps representing our Allies in this country and on still other occasions leading American statesmen, both those who are in office and those who already have served their country, will be heard.

25c. LIBERTY LOAN COUPON WITH EACH TICKET.

Admission to the Armory can only be had by ticket. These tickets will be sold at 40c. each, but 25c. of this will be represented by a coupon which is to be retained by the purchaser and can be applied as a payment for that amount on a Liberty Loan. This makes the actual price of admission 15 cents.

Of course the majority of people will buy more than one ticket, but no matter what the amount of their purchase, each coupon will stand for 25 cents toward securing a bond; that is to say, one hundred tickets would represent $25.00 and they may be cashed in for that amount as against the total purchase money on a Liberty Bond. Lesser amounts will be computed in the same way. For instance, a man holding two coupons and wishing to purchase a $50 bond would bring to his bank $49.50 and his coupons, which would be taken at their face value, or two coupons and 50 cents would be taken as first payment on a partial payment plan.

The Committee appreciates the fact that as a usual thing most Marylanders visit Baltimore in the spring; and it feels that those in the more distant portion of the state should time their spring shopping or business so that the date of their visit would occur during the progress of the Exhibition. It will well repay the journey from every conceivable standpoint.
