CHESTERTOWN GUARANTORS ASSOCIATION

A progressive move was launched after the adjournment of the Chautauqua Guarantors Association Thursday evening to organize a Chestertown Guarantors Association for the purpose of bettering the conditions of our town. The plan outlined for this move is to assist the Commissioners of Chestertown in their work and to give financial help to the various organizations of the town, such as the public library, the band, the Athletic Association of Washington College, the Tennis Club and other such organizations. A committee, composed of W. B. Copper, M. A. Toulson, Prof. Creasy, H. F. Jefferson and A. H. Covey, with A. A. Harris a member ex officio, was formed. This committee will digest the idea advanced by the Commissioners and report at a meeting of the Association to be called later. This is truly a progressive move and like all other progressive moves will receive its knocks and discouragements. Unfortunately for every community, there are too many knockers when new ideas are advanced, and this is no exception. We have far too many who oppose every progressive move, yet do nothing themselves to advance the interests of this town or community.

SPORTS

(Sports Section On Page 7)

Coach Kibler has been putting the football squad through some real practice this week. On Monday the first and second teams went together in a real honest-to-goodness football game from which many emerged with sore muscles and bruised faces and bodies. During this contest, Mr Emerson Russell received the fourth injury of his short football career, having previously had a shoulder blade broken, a leg broken, a wrist broken. This time his small finger of the left hand was driven back out of place and he was compelled to go to Easton Hospital to have the fracture set and attended to. On Wednesday Coach Kibler again sent the team through some hard scrimmage, which showed he has a pretty good aggregation.

Coach Kibler will pick his team for this afternoon's game with Charlotte Hall from the following players:

Center—Kelly.

Guards—Keenan, Monahan, Conanart, Adkins, Bischopf, Scarborough.

Tackles—Fiore, Willis, Stenger, Ruark, Duffy.

Ends—Carroll, Rigen, Johnson, Soifer.

Quarterback—Cavenaugh.

Fullback—Crowe.

Halfbacks—Bankard, Flowers, Galvin, Tyson, Dumschott, H. Russell.

Mr. Joseph N. Wheatley, of Chestertown, who officiated so efficiently at several of the W. C. football games last year, has been recognized by the Central Board and placed on the reserve list He will doubtless be seen in action in the home games here this season.

Frank Baker was in Chestertown this week. Baker was replaced at third by Duncan, but will probably be used in the world's series as a pinch hitter.

Washington College will hook up with her ancient rival next Saturday at Annapolis. There is an effort being made to run an excursion from Chestertown to Annapolis. The excusion, if it can be arranged, will be a most popular one and a good crowd will, without a doubt take in it. On the same day the Navy will play the Western Reserve University and an opportunity will be given the excursionists to take in both games.

Cavanaugh, quarterback on the W. C. eleven, is one of the real big bets of the team. He knows the game in all its many intricacies, puts a punch to the plays and is a hard man to down when he has the ball, because of a peculiar twisting movement which he has. He is also fairly speedy and it takes a good man to down him. Keep your on him as the season advances. Galvin is another back that will bear watching. He hits the line as hard as any man on the team, with the exception of Crowe, in spite of the fact that he is pounds lighter than some of them. Flowers is also showing up in fine form. The summer's baseball has put him in fine shape and he will give a good account of himself. Bankard has more speed than any man on the team and when he gets loose he is hard to catch. Crowe is perhaps the best man in the backfield and should make the All-Maryland eleven easily. He has more weight, more strength and almost as much speed as any man in the backfield and should give a good account of himself in the games that are to come. Crowe was injured Wednesday and will probably be out of the game today against the Charlotte Hall team, but will be there when the roll is called for the St. John's contest. Washington College has a mighty fine backfield and if the line holds out—and it should—Washington College will unloosen an attack that will be well worth seeing this year.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in His wise providence to remove from our midst, our friend and sister Jeannette Gooding.

Be it resolved, That we, the members of Chestertown Council No. 58, Daughters of America, express our heartfelt sympathy to her loved ones in this hour of their bereavement.

Our lodge has lost another Charter member, who was prominent in the organization and for a few years a worker. As far as she was able she attended the meetings and was always interested in the proceedings thereof.

Whereas, we recognize in her death, the loss not only to our membership, but to the community, the school and many institutions with which she was connected.

Whereas, recognizing her sterling qualities as a Christian, and a valued member of the Church, lodge and school, as wll as a useful and highly esteemed citizen, and desiring to give public expression of the esteem in which she was held by everyone.

Therefore, be it resolved, that in the death of Sister Gooding her mother has lost a devoted daughter, the lodge a good member, the school one of its oldest members in point of service, an amiable and companionable associate and fellow laborer, who executed her professional duties with industry, courage and perseverance, and the community a good Christian.

Resolved, that we tender our loving and heartfelt sympathy to the sorrow stricken mother of our departed member and commend her for consolation to "Him who doeth all things for the best," and whose chastisements are dealt by a loving and merciful hand.

Resolved further that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the mother, a copy placed upon the minutes, and that they be published in the county papers.
