From the current news in the papers there is an indication of wool shortage for the coming fall and winter. In our coat buying this spring we made some preparations for this situation. We would advise a selection from the many models shown so as to secure quality and all wool,

Many models at $15.00 to $75.00 each, with every in-between price.

FARMS WANTED

IN SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA
DELAWARE AND EASTERN MARYLAND

I want farms, big and little, corn and grain farms, fruit farms, truck farms, waterfronts and country places to sell to industrial workers and Western farmers.

I have one of the largest real estate agencies in Chester, Pennsylvania, where over 50,000 highly paid shipyard and steel workers, are employed. I am also building up a very large farm agency business covering Southeastern Pennsylvania, Eastern Maryland and Delaware, with offices in Newark, Delaware.

I CHARGE NO COMMISSIONS

Unlike most real estate agencies, I make no charge to owners of farm property for my services in making sales. I pay the owner of the property his full price, free and clear of all expenses and charges.

My method of handling property makes it necessary for me to have the exclusive agency of the property for a specified time so that I may be justified in advertising liberally, printing and mailing descriptions of the property to prospective buyers, and showing same by automobile service.

If you have land for sale, write me full description, stating price, when possession can be had, etc., and if it appears desirable I will promptly make final arrangements for selling.

REFERENCES—Any Bank in Chester, Pa., or Newark, Delaware, and hundreds of satisfied clients.

EARNS 14 CENTS A DAY; HAS WIFE AND BABY

And Yet This True Story Has a Happy Ending.

Even a Frenchman sometimes loses, for awhile at least, his "unfailing" sense of humor.

Take, for instance, the case of a man from Lille, a soldier, Waeltele by name and only twenty-three. He had done pretty well, for the youngster had already his own printing shop in that northern French town, which is still inside the German lines. In the treuches Waeltele developed tuberculosis, and he was sent to a hospital at Grenoble.

There he was considered incurable, and after the usual three months of treatment he was granted his 14 cents a day pension. Said his fatherly army doctor, "My son, you can perhaps cure yourself if you will live in the mountains, if you will eat plenty of nourishing food and, above all, if you don't worry."

Waeltele should have smiled, but he didn't. He was thinking of his baby and his wife—and his 14 cents. "Don't worry!" The humor of it entirely escaped him.

Then the Red Cross stepped in. He was found by an American woman with some American Red Cross money for just such cases, and within a few hours he no longer had need to worry. He was sent to the mountains at Lamure, in the French Alps, happy in the knowledge that his family was being cared for by these amazingly kind Americans.

And now the army doctor's words are coming true. Waeltele's lung is healing fast, and he is dreaming of another printing shop and of living again some day with that little family.

There have been over 400,000 new cases of tuberculosis in France since the war started, and to care for these cases and check the White Plague's spread is merely one of the big jobs the American Red Cross has set out to accomplish.

FATHER AT WAR, TRAGEDY AT HOME

Just What Home Service Means to a Soldier.

The father kisses his wife and kiddies goodby, shoulders his gun and marches away to war.

For a time the current of life flows smoothly for the soldier's little family. Then comes the tragedy. Mother is taken ill. The little brood of brothers and sisters is helpless. No father to turn to. A helpless mother!

To whom can the American soldier's family look at this critical period? Must a brave man's loyalty to his country mean desolation and suffering to those nearest and dearest to him?

No! Emphatically no! The American people will not permit the families of their soldiers and sailors to suffer because their breadwinners are fighting for their country. And so the Red Cross Department of Civilian Relief has created a nation-wide organization for home service for the families of soldiers and sailors.

Under the banner of "Home Service" patriotic men and women have enrolled and are devoting themselves to the noble task of helping soldiers' families to meet and adjust the problems of everyday life and aiding them to maintain the standards of health, education and industry.

Home Service—True Service.

Home service means keeping the soldier's children well and in school. It means tiding the family over financial troubles, arranging the household budget, meeting insurance premiums, adjusting a mortgage, bringing medical aid and legal advice to bear at the right moment. In short "Home Service" is true service, in that it provides the warm handclasp of friendship rather than the humiliation of charity. It calls for sympathetic understanding and intelligent consideration of the most vital needs of the soldier's family.

The Red Cross is pledged to "Home Service" wherever needed in the United States. In each chapter of the Red Cross there will be a home service section, under competent hands, whose mission will be to protect the welfare of the soldiers' and sailors' homes and to safeguard the normal development of their families in employment and in ideals of self help and self reliance.

"The work that the Red Cross is doing in France this winter is worth more than a million and a half American soldiers in the lines in France today."
—General Petain.

This is our ANNIVERSARY. Come and help us celebrate! We are going to have a birthday party in honor of the successful year we have had. This party is going to be different from others. We don't expect our guests to bring any presents; instead we will give BIRTHDAY GIFTS TO THEM, in the way of notable reductions on many dependable items of "RIGHT NOW" merchandise. GET YOUR SHARE of our profits.

ON SALE—Ladies' Suits, Cloaks, Dresses, Skirts, Waists, Millinery, Notions, Men's and Boys' Suits, Pants, Overalls, Furnishings, Hats, Etc.

We are PREPARED to meet the rush of buyers at our regular ANNIVERSARY SALES. We have the goods, and our reduction in prices will be a relief to you from the high war-time prices which you have been forced to pay until now.

On account of the scarcity in merchandise of all kinds, due to war conditions, our many patrons and friends were in doubt as to whether we would be able to conduct our ANNIVERSARY SALE this year, and we have had many inquiries to that effect. In accordance we are glad to announce as above that our Anniversary Sale will take place at the scheduled time, from Wednesday, May 8th, to Saturday, May 18th. It is due to our untiring efforts, and continuous searching throughout all the markets for merchandise, that we have been successful in stocking up very heavily with good, substantial, as well as seasonable goods, at very low prices. This should make our present sale the banner of all previous events.

THIS WEEK—Chestertown's most popular store entered upon its Fifth Anniversary Sale, which has been acknowledged by our large circle of friends and patrons to be a service which we render them and for which they have all shown their appreciation by patronizing us throughout the entire year. We began our business here with certain definite principles. We promised that this store will sell honest merchandise at fair prices; that we will not misrepresent our goods to the public either in print or by verbal statements; that whatever would be purchased here would be exchangeable or returnable if the purchaser so desired. We have nothing to add to these principles and promises; that they have been adhered to is evidenced by the growth and success of our firm in the five years we have been here, and these years have taught us to continue along the same lines, and to be even more liberal in the future, by giving better value at lower prices.

Don't forget our Anniversary Sale is now on., beginning Wednesday, May 8, and will end Saturday, May 18. LOOK FOR THE BIG SIGN IN FRONT OF OUR STORE.

When in town don't stop elsewhere, but come straight to SACHS' STORE; make it your headquarters and meet your friends there.
