CONGRESS QUIZZED ON 14TH AMENDMENT

CHICAGO, Ill. — Promise to introduce a bill make representation in Congress comply with the provisions of the 14th Amendment, and which would reduce representation in states disfranchising the group, will be introduced again in the next Congress, declared Representative La Guardia, (Rep.) of New York.

Representative La Guardia's statement came in response to a quizz sent all senators and congressmen by the Chicago "Tribune" asking if they would support such a measure.

Among Democrats who pledged their support were: Royal S. Copeland, New York; Clarence F. Lea, California; and Edgar Howard, Nebraska. Congressman J. Will Taylor, co-leader with R. R. Church in Tennessee, were among the Republicans pledging support to the measure.

Of the telegrams sent to the 435 congressmen and 34 senators, 57 have answered. Of the 11 senators who have answered eight declared for the enforcement of the 14th Amendment, two against and one was evasive. Of the 46 representatives heard from so far, 37 favor enforcement, seven are opposed and two evasive.

Kelly Miller Bumps Gary Gridders, 52-6

CLARKSBURG, W. Va.—Gary High School's heavy team, southern West Virginia champions, went back home after getting a 52 to 6 taste of the kind of football that Kelly Miller plays to win championships in the north, at Washington-Irving Stadium, Friday afternoon.

Outclassed in every department of the game, the Southerners were bewildered by the Water Street school's fast running attack and its deceptive aerial game.

Stone Wall Defense

Gary would never have scored had it not been for a fumble by Kelly Miller in the second quarter, recovered by Davis, who ran sixty-five yards in a broken field.

Kelly Miller gained ninety-seven yards through the air, completing seven passes. Gary completed two for a total fifteen yards. Kelly Miller scored eight first downs to the visitors' two.

Ross made four or five beautiful end runs, gaining from thirty-five to forty-five yards on each of them. His interference was perfect. He was also on the receiving end of most of the passes which McCay threw. McCay made his touchdowns in long broken field runs.

Hunter A Star

Williams and Morgan were the other stars of Kelly Miller, while Hunter proved a shining light on the line getting most of the tackles. Rutledge and Davis played nice ball for the visitors.

Score by quarters:

Kelly Miller	7	6	19	20	—52
Gary	0	6	0	0	— 6

AMONG CLUBS

THE DORCAS EMBROIDERY CLUB met at the residence of Mrs. Scott, 142 Druid Hill avenue.

After regular business a collation was served and a new member, Mrs. Anna Barr, life was guest, and visiting the guest was Mr. Irvin Lee, from New York.

IN MEMORIAM

MOTHER

"To live in hearts you've left behind, is not to die."

Sacred to the memory of the late Catherine Ann Russell, who passed sweetly into the Great beyond, Sunday, April 29, 1928, six months ago.

Tho tis hard to part from a mother that's dear
And it costs many a sigh and a falling tear,
Yet our hearts are thrilled with a thot of cheer
We can meet by the way of the Throne.
Tho we often part from the one we love,
There's a tender joy we can always prove,
We can pray for her as we look above
We can meet by the way of the Throne.
Tho at times we whisper a sad farewell,
And we know a grief that we cannot tell
When there's a sweet assurance that all is well,
We can meet by the way of the Throne.

Feeling as we do that death is not the end of her life, but that her spirit lives on forever in a richer, sweeter, and more abundant life, we take this means to cherish the memory of our beloved mother, to extol her goodness and ever keep before us the many precious virtues and characteristics she possessed and good deeds she accomplished.

The blow was such as only those who feel it know, yet in our sorrow we have to dry our tears, raise our hearts to Heaven and thank God for having let such a wonderful character come to us.

God has taken her, but He bids us take comfort in the life she left behind. Thru His mercy she was spared to see the tiny seeds she planted with her humble and lowly hands, blossom into lives of Christian citizenship, useful occupation, independent thinking, and moral courage. This gave her great pride. And tho she slumbers, we are proud of her dust and pray that we may not go empty-handed, but like mother, leave our death chamber crying "I've done my whole duty."

THE FAMILY. Hezekiah Russell, Helen Woodland, Annie Frisby, Louis Russell, Alice Keys, Esther Russell, George Russell, Ruth Russell.

Cavalry Beaten By Artillery Team, 6-0

WEST POINT, N. Y.—The Calvary met a glorious defeat at the hands of the Artillery eleven on "C" Squad Field, losing their first Post League game by a score of 6 to 0, Saturday afternoon.

For the first three periods the score was 0 to 0, neither team gaining more than fifteen yards. At the end of the third period it looked like the Calvary's game when Chester Johnson received a forward pass and ran fifty yards for a touchdown, but was forced outside of the line. In the last quarter and only two minutes to go, the Calvary lost its last chance to win when Big Benefield intercepted a forward pass and fumbled.

IN MEMORIAM

DENNIS — In sad and loving remembrance of my dear husband, Rev. Francis S., who departed this life three years ago, October 20, 1925.

The month of October again is here
For me the saddest of all the year;
Three years have passed my heart still sore,
As time flies on I miss you more.
God called you home — it was His will—
But in my heart I love you still;
Your memory is as dear today
As in the hour you passed away.
I did my best, God only knew,
To ease your pains; which were not few,
But you are gone and I am alone,
And memory is the only friend that I can call my own.

Your sad and loving wife, ADELAIDE A. DENNIS.

FORD In sad but loving remembrance of my son, Harry, who departed this life, October 22, 1927, 668 N. Camac St., Philadelphia, Pa.

One year ago today, my son,
Oh, how the telephone did ring;
With the sad news that you
Had broken the link of us two.
Oh, how I miss you, my son,
Around our little home
You left me with a broken heart,
To see that we had to part.
I hope to meet you again
Where God can mend our broken chain.

By his heartbroken mot[illegible]
THA FORD NELSON, New[illegible]

In loving remembrance of my dear cousin, George L. Jones, who departed this life October 21, 1926.

God called him home,
It was His will;
But in our hearts we love him still,
His memory is as dear today
As in the hour he passed away.
We often sit and think of him,
When we are all alone;
For memory is the only thing,
That grief can call its own.

By his devoted cousins, GEORGE H. McCOY and ELLA G. McCOY.

GRESHAM, ROBINETTE —Sacred to the memory of my dear wife and loving mother, who died two years ago, October 24th, 1926.

Why shoud our tears in sorrow flow,
When God recalls his own;
And bids them leave a world of woe,
For an immortal crown?
Is not e'en death a gain to her
Whose life to God was given?
Gladly to earth her eyes she closed,
To open them in heaven.
Her toils are past, her work is done,
And she is fully blest;
She fought the fight, the victory won,
And entered into rest.
Then let our sorrows cease to flow;
God has recalled His own;
But let our hearts, in every woe,
Still say, "Thy will be done."

By her HUSBAND, DAUGHTER and SON.

ROBINSON—In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Eliabeth, who departed this life one year ago, Oct. 28, 1927.

Upright and faithful in all her ways,
A wonderful character to the end of her days;
A loving mother, true and kind,
What a beautiful memory she left behind.
You could not say good-bye to us,
You could not clasp our hand;
But God has taken one we loved,
To His realms so grand.

By her ADOPTED CHILDREN. By her adopted children, TOMMY ASHTON, FLORENCE DAVIS, NELLIE MILBORNE.

WATTY — In sad but loving memory of our dear brother, Hiram, who died October 20, 1905.

I cannot say and will not say
That he is dead, he is just away;
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
the hand he has wandered into an unknown land.
And left us dreaming how very fair.
It needs must be since he lingers there
And you—O you who the wildest yearn
For the old time step
And the glad return.
Think of him faring on as dear,
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of him still as the same I say
He is not dead—he is just away.

By his brothers, GEORGE A. WATTY and JAMES WATTY.

DEAD

JAMES H. HOUSE

James H. House, the beloved son of the late John H. and Mrs. Georgianna House and devoted brother of Mrs. Wilhelmina Henry, was killed on his way home from work, Saturday, October 13, 1928, on the Annapolis Road. He was born in Baltimore, October 7, 1887.

Our hearts are too heavy for utterance,
Our grief will try to conceal;
But God alone knows the heartache,
A dear mother and sister can feel.

Many thanks to the pastor of Ebenezer A. M. E. Church, (the Rev. H. E. Walden); the members and friends who stood by us through all of our sorrow; and the 22nd Ward Republican Club, for notes of sympathy and floral designs.
