Boy Scout Organization For Kent

The Boy Scout movement of the Eastern Shore Council has already started in Kent County with the following as the committee: Chairman, H. F. Jefferson; Vice-Chairman, John N. Bennett; Vice-Chairman, Mark Creasy; Vice-Chairman, W. B. Copper; Secretary, Roy Woodland; Troop Organization, Horace B. Derrick; Finance, C. F. Wheatley; Publicity, Richard Collins; Camping, Dr. Frank B. Hines; Civic Service, C. A. Goodwin.

Mr. E. Thomas Massey, of Massey, will represent his troop on the council.

The budget to be raised by the nine counties of the Eastern Shore is $10,475; the amount to be raised by each county is in proportion to the white population of that county. The $10,475 will be divided as follows:

Executive salaries (2 men)	$5000.00
These men are expert scout men and will devote their entire time to promoting the scout movemnt on the Shore.
Clerical help	$800.00
Rent, light, insurance and tel.	350.00
Equipment (desks, fies, etc.)	400.00
Supplies for Scouts	250.00
Postage	200.00
Camping and hikes	700.00
Leadership, training and conference	200.00
Rallies	200.00
Publicity	100.00
Transportation, including car for executives, council property	1400.00
Total	$10,475

Kent County's share will be about $1000 dollars, which will be used for scouting and character building for the boys of Kent County. The other counties on the Shore are busy. There will be a meeting of the committee next week, which will put on a larger scale the work already started in Kent county.

Introduction Sale

Bonnett & Co., successors to H. Sachs & Son, are advertising on the eighth page of this paper an introduction sale. This sale starts Friday next, Dec. 1, and will continue for fifteen days. Bargains galor are to be found in this advertisement. Bonnett & Co. come to us well recommended as good, up-to-date merchants. It will be an opportune time for the public to get acquainted with this new firm during this sale. We have had pleasant and satisfactory dealings with Bonnett & Co.; we find them pleasant and courteous and believe the public will find them most agreeable. Their store is centrally and conveniently located on High St., opposite the large square. Read their bargain list on page eight.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE

The co-eds held a dance on Nov. 16 in Reid Hall. Refreshments were prepared by the girls of the domestic science class. The music was furnished by the college orchestra.

The Commercial Department of W. C. is making arrangements for the issuing of a newspaper. It has offered a prize of a college banner to the student who would suggest the best title for the paper. The contest is open to all students.

The Glee Club is holding daily practice under the direction of Prof. Howell, and is making fine progress. We are to expect an exhibition in the near future of new songs, new jokes and new stunts in general.

The Dramatic Association has not yet decided upon a play to be presented this year. But it is expected that they will soon start work on one. The only thing that remains to be decided upon is the play. We have plenty of old material on hand and a great deal of new talent to make this year the most successful in the history of the Dramatic Association.
