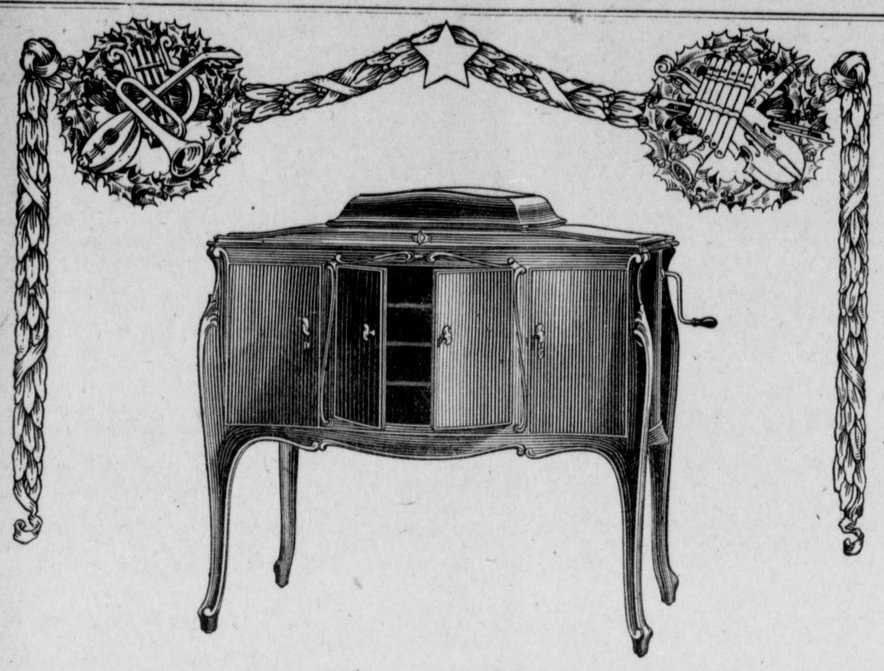
The Chestertown Transcript.

VOL. LXVI---NO. 39 | CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1922 | $1.50 PER ANNUM



You give all music when you give a Victrola

—to all the family, for all time.

What more inspiring gift than a Victrola and Victor Records—to bring the joy, the thrill, the solace of music into your home. Truly, it is a gift of the gods. A gift with a future, as enduring as music itself.

Come in our show rooms. We have Victrolas in the style and finish you desire. And we can arrange terms for your convenience.

Elect Officers

At the annual meeting of the Men's Club of Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, Thursday evening, R. Hynson Rogers was elected president; H. T. Hartman, vice-president; and D. B. Ford, secretary and treasurer. These officers take charge of their duties on January 1, 1923.

An Ideal Christmas Present

While casting about for Christmas present for the loved ones, it may be well to take into consideration the fact that The Chestertown Transcript would not be an objectionable present. In fact, it would make a most ideal one, one that is given 52 times, instead of one. The average Christmas present is soon forgotten and cast aside, but a weekly paper, coming regularly, and bearing the tiding of all the people, is a constant reminder of your friendship and good will. Think this over—then send The Transcript to your friend.

WEDDINGS

Mr. Richard Redding, of Cecil Co., and Miss Marojrie Todd, the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Todd, of Galena, were quietly married at the Protestant Episcopal Church, Elkton, on Saturday afternoon at two thirty o'clock. They took a trip to Washington, D. C., returning home on Monday evening.

Cards have been received by Chestertown friends and relatives of the bride, announcing the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Stevens, formerly of Denton, to Mr. S. Roy Htezer, of Baltimore, on Nov. 30.

A Fine Display Of Corn

The Boys' Corn Clubs of Kent Co. have a most creditable display of white and yellow corn grown on an acre of land by members of the clubs. The exhibit is in the lobby of the Third National Bank, which financed the corn growing contest, and it is attracting the attention of farmers and people of the Kent county towns. It is in charge of County Agent H. B. Derrick and exhibitors include Harold C. Williams, Marion P. Sutton, Anton Lucht, Albert Sutton, Martin Sutton, Stanley Sutton, William P. Anderson, Edward Caldwell, Charles Massey, Thomas Stevens, Norman Pennington and George W. B. Orr. The corn will be judged during the week and prizes will be awarded Saturday.

The Third National Bank is a vital force in the life of Kent and is always glad to aid in quickening the industrial and agricultural life of the county.

Mrs. A. S. Turner, we regret to state, is critically ill at a hospital in Wilmington. Her family has been summoned to her bedside.

LOST

Female Foxhound; black and white, tan head; answer name of "Hattie."

CARROLL HADAWAY,

d9-1t Phone 156. Chestertown, Md.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank one and all who were so kind to help in the last fire which was on Thanksgiving Day. Had it not been for this help, all buildings, no doubt, would have gone. Again, I want to thank you all.

d9-1t JOHN J. LOCKWOOD.

AUCTION SALE

Fifty Durocs, Tuesday, December 12, 1 p. m., Old Field Point Farm, Galena, Md.

We have more than we care to carry over.

Durocs are the greatest money makers in the world. Over 50 per cent of the hogs marketed in the United States are red, conclusive evidence that they are the most profitable.

Our stock is bred right and carefully selected for prolificacy, size and shape. Some of them have farrowed an average of 12 to the litter and some of them have dressed 430 at a year old. The sows and gilts offered for sale will be bred for March farrow to a Defender boar, with the exception of some of the gilts who are too young to breed. The boars are registered. They are all pure-bred, but not all registered, and are all good individuals.

We will offer ten sows, fifteen gilts, thirty fall pigs and two spring boars. Terms cash.

Great Christmas Treat in Store for the Youngsters

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION TO EXTEND OVER FULL WEEK, BEGINNING SATURDAY, DEC. 16, TO FRIDAY, DEC. 22

The programme of Christmas Celebration by Chestertown people this year will be as follows:

SATURDAY, DEC. 16.—Old Kris arrives in town on the 11 o'clock train and is escorted to the park, where he distributes toys and oranges to each and every boy and girl there to receive one.

MONDAY, Dec. 18.—Two crates of guineas will be let loose in the park. You remember last year the fun this created. There will be a mad scramble, climbing of trees and then the catch. Come and join the chase or watch the fun. Catch a guinea for your Xmas dinner.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 20—Six squealing, greasy, wiggly pigs will be turned loose in the park. This promises to be even more fun than the chase for the guineas. Get on your old clothes and catch a pig for dinner.

FRIDAY, DEC. 22—Mr. L.Bates Russell has donated the Lyceum Theater to the Business Men's Association and will have a free matinee for the boys and girls. An extra fine programme will be given. Everyone come out and enjoy this picture.

All above events will be at 2 o'clock each afternoon.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—The W. C. students held their Thanksgiving hop last evening.

—Trappers are making preparations for the opening of the muskrat season, January 1.

—The Boy Scout meeting has been changed from Monday, Dec. 18, to Tuesday, Dec. 19.

—Dr. H. P. Copeland has purchased from the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church a farm near the church.

—The Parent and Teachers' Association met Thursday, Dec. 7, at 3 p. m. in the Elementary School.

—Some members of the Ringgold's Point Ducking Club killed a wild duck recently with a band on its leg.

—Miss Linda Messick has been appointed teacher at Turner's Creek School in place of Miss Ruth Newton, resigned.

—Mr. John H. Clendaniel, who has been farming near Kennedyville for 30 years, will discontinue the business Dec. 31 and move to Chestertown.

—Fines for Motor Vehicle Law violations last week totalled $5,175, of which $2927 was collected in the counties and $2248 in Baltimore.

—Mary Washington, a servant in the homes of prominent families,was found dead in bed at her home, near Tolchester, Monday. Death resulted from natural causes.

—Dr. Albert S. Cook, State Superintendent of Schools, was in Chestertown yesterday and delivered addresses at the Chestertown High School at 10.30 a. m. and 1.30 p. m.

—Fire destroyed twenty-five acres of fodder in ricks, also sheds and stables on the farm of John J. Lockwood, in the Second District, recently; loss, $1000; buildings insured with Mr. J. G. Beck We are sorry to hear that one of Mr. John J. Lockwood's boys fell through the elevator while at work at Marcus Hook. There was no railing around same and insufficient light. The fall was fifty feet.

—Mrs. J. W. Kirby, State Warden of the Daughters of America, attended last Monday evening in Baltimore the 25th anniversary of Good Will Council, of which the State Councilor, Sister Erlbeck, is a member.

—The Public Health Nurse for Kent County, Miss L. A. Bryden, arrived in Chestertown Tuesday and is located at Mrs. Geo. B. Westcott's. Miss Bryden is a graduate of Johns Hopkins and comes to us highly recommended.

—Mr. P. M. Brooks is draining the old Whaland Mill Pond that for a century or more supplied power for the grist mill that formerly occupied the site of his present modern mill and power equipment.

—Mr. John Bartley, the large furniture dealer of Chestertown, is offering by advertisement on page 3 in this paper a bigger and better line of Christmas goods than he has ever offered before. He has an entire new line of goods to select from.

—Messrs. Frank Hurlock & Co., of Still Pond, whose Christmas advertisement will be found on page 7, in this issue, has many attractive Christmas offerings for the shoppers. This firm is enterprising, accommodating and courteous and you can be assured of a pleasant reception at their store.

—Dairymen of Kent county attended a meeting in Philadelphia Monday for the purpose of devising plans to improve the dairy and milk business of the Peninsula. The dairy business is the most profitable on the farms, and farmers are not only greatly improving their herds, but are increasing the number. Among those in attendance were: W. Irving Walker, Wm. T. Nicholson, E. Thomas Massey, John C. Sutton and Robert L. Wallis.

—Wm. Medders & Co., of Still Pond, have the eighth page in this issue and have some rare bargains as usual. Every year this up-to-date firm buys in large quantities and sells to its customers on a close margain. As a result, their store is again thronged with busy Christmas buyers. Read their advertisement; then you will know what to do.

—A fair will be held in Baltimore on Dec. 15 and 16 at the Y. W. C. A., under the auspices of the Maryland League of Women Voters to exhibit and sell home-made products of the counties, thus bringing closer together the producer and consumer.
