CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT

CHAPTER 122, ACTS OF 1908

171. The following persons shall be guilty of corrupt practices and shall be punished in accordance with the provisions of this act: Every person, who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself or by another give or offer or promise to any person any money, gift, advantage, preferment, entertainment, aid, emolument, or any valuable thing whatever, for the purpose of inducing or procuring any person to vote, or refrain from voting, for or against any person, or for or against any measure or proposition at any election or primary election or political convention or session of the General Assembly of Maryland or either House thereof. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly receive, accept, request or solicit from any person, candidate, committee, association, organization or corporation, any money, gift, advantage, preferment, aid, emolument or any valuable thing whatsoever, for the purpose of inducing or procuring any person to vote, or refrain from voting for or against any person, or for or against any measure or proposition at any election or primary election or political convention. Every person who in consideration of any money, gift, preferment, aid, emolument, or any valuable thing whatsoever paid, received, accepted or promised to the advantage of himself or any other person, shall vote, or refrain from voting, for or against any person, or for or against any measure at any such election, caucus or primary election or political convention. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, pay, give, contribute or promise any money or other valuable thing, to defray, or towards defraying the costs or expense of any campaign or election, to any person, committee, company, club, organization, or association other than to a treasurer or political agent; but this sub-section or paragraph shall not apply to dues regularly paid for membership in any incorporated political club if all money expended by such club for or in connection with the costs or expenses of any campaign or election shall be passed out by it only through a treasurer or political agent, as provided in this Act, or to any expenses for postage, telephoning, telegrams, stationery, printing, expressage or traveling and board incurred by any candidate for office or for nomination thereto so far as they are permitted by this Act. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself or through another person, make a payment or promise of payment, to a treasurer or political agent in any other name than his own; and every treasurer or political agent, who shall knowingly receive a payment or promise of payment, and enter the same or cause the same to be entered in his accounts in any other name than that of the person by whom such payment or promise of payment is made. Every person who being an employer pays his employes the salary or wages due in "pay envelopes" upon which there is written or printed, or in which there is enclosed any political motto, device or argument containing threats, express or implied, intended or calculated to influence the political opinions or actions of such employes, or within ninety days of any election or primary puts, or otherwise exhibits, in the establishments or place where his employes are engaged in labor, any hand bill or placard containing any threat, notice or information that if any particular ticket or candidate is elected defeated, work in his place or establishment will cease in whole or in part or his establishment be closed up, or the wages of his employes be reduced other threats expressed or implied, intended or calculated to influence the political opinions or actions or his employes. Every person, who, before, during or after election or primary election, by himself or by any other person, either directly or indirectly, gives or provides or pays, wholly or in part, the expenses of giving or providing any meat, drink, entertainment or provisions to or for any person, for the purpose of influencing that person or any other person, to give or refrain from giving his vote at the election or primary election, or to influence his vote in any other way therein, or on account of his having voted or refrained from voting, or being about to vote or refrain from voting, and every elector who accepts the same, or any of the same, for any of the purposes aforesaid. Every person who shall be guilty of any corrupt practices as aforesaid shall be fined not less than three hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned for one year, or both, and shall be ineligible to any public office or public employment for a period of four years from and after the time of the commission of such offense.

CHAUTAUQUA BEGINS TO-DAY, SATURDAY

Our Chautauqua will open on Saturday, August 31, 1918, and every season ticket should be sold. These tickets, which admit the holder to all sessions, are only $2 for adults and $1 for children up to 15 years of age for the entire week of instruction, entertainment and pleasure. All Season tickets are transferrable; and they provide the cheapest, safest and best way to attend the Chautauqua. Do not fail to urge your acquaintances, your friends and people generally to buy them; and do not forget to secure yours now. They may be purchased from ticket selling committee, and at Jefferson's store. The Chautauqua will be held on the school green on Calvert street, same place as before. Remember that "Season Tickets" are the kind to buy, and we advise you to get them at once.

Chautauqua Program

The seven joyous days of Chautauqua begin August 31 and last until Sept. 6 this year. The program is as follows.

FIRST DAY

Afternoon—Series Lecture, Chautauqua Superintendent; Corcert, The Kerry Singers.

Evening—Concert, The Kerry Singers; Lecture, Dr. Carolyn E. Geisel, "Miss Columbia, M. D."

SECOND DAY

Afternoon—Series Lecture, Chautauqua Superintendent; Concert, The Conrad Co.

Evening—Concert, The Conrad Co.; Lecture, Charles H. Lovejoy, Children in War Time."

THIRD DAY

Afternoon—Series Lecture, Chautauqua Superintendent; Concert, McDonough-Baird Co.

Evening— Drama, "The Fortune Hunter," by Winchell Smith, a great four act comedy.

FOURTH DAY

Afternoon—Concert, The Ongawas; Lecture, George H. Turner, "Humanity's Last Reserves."

Evening—Concert, The Ongawas; Lecture, Judge Marcu A. Kavanagh, "Traitors to Justice."

FIFTH DAY

Afternoon—Series Lecture, Chautauqua Superintendent; Concert, Berkeley Sextette.

Evening—Opera, "Pinafore," a popular Gilbert and Sullivan opera.

SIXTH DAY

Afternoon— Pageant, "Liberty's Torch," presented by the Junior Chautauqua; Concert, "Batting-Keniston Co."

Evening—Concert, "Batting-Keniston Co."; Lecture, Captain Leslie N. Vickers, "Life in the Trenches." A wonderfully gifted lecturer, and one who has experienced all the horrors of this war.

The entertainments begin every day at 2.30 and 7.30.

Mrs. William Jennings Bryan will represent the Government at our Chestertown Chautauqua, and will talk about personal effort and work during the War. Mrs. Bryan is considered a very brilliant woman, and we may look for something good from her. Don't fail to hear this timely lecture by this prominent woman.
