A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.

If work is tiring, if your nerves are excitable, if you feel languid, weary or depressed, Scott's Emulsion will prove a wonderful strengthener.

It possesses the very elements to invigorate the blood, nourish the nerves and build strength.

Every druggist has Scott's. Try it.

BEEF NEED WAS MET QUICKER THAN FIGURED

Having served their purpose and supplied the Allies with reasonable supplies of beef, former restrictions on the use of that commodity have been lifted by the Food Administration. Under the old regulation public eating places were allowed to serve beef at only one meal a day and householders were required to purchase each week not more than one and one-quarter pounds of clear beef per person. The co-operation of the public was so fine that the ban on beef was raised a month ahead of the time which the Food Administration at first thought possible.

In June 92,173,000 pounds of beef were reported from this country, though the normal monthly average was only 1,066,000 pounds.

The shipments of pork were another shock to the Kaiser. His enemies received 169,331,000 pounds from the United States, though our average monthly export of that commodity used to be only 41,500,000 pounds.

In order to make the wheat supply of the Allied countries go round and still provide for possible reverses, there must be strict and universal wheat economy during the coming year.

Our allies have agreed that their wheat bread shall contain 20 per cent. of grain other than wheat, and the American people, in order to do their part, will put their bread upon the same basis.

To carry out this plan, the United States Food Administration has made certain rules, effective September 1st, which provide for the manufacture and sale of flours mixed with wheat substitutes and sold, therefore, without offsetting cereals. These flours will be labeled "Victory Mixed Flour." Standard wheat flour may still be purchased at the rate of four pounds to every pound of cornmeal, corn flour, or barley flour.

The new rulings set aside the fifty-fifty or pound-for-pound rule, but this is not to be taken as a signal for abolishing wheat economy. The Food Administration depends upon the co-operation of every Marylander to keep up the wheat thrift and conservation without which the present indulgent rulings would not have been possible.

Lots of places are having war cake sales—both the food and the recipes being auctioned off for the Red Cross. Why not work up a competition in your community to see who can contrive the best wheatless and sugarless cake?

Now is the season when the time, energy and money invested in the spring fervor of war gardening begin to pay dividends in fresh vegetables.

English and Welsh harvest is now counted on for a forty weeks' supply of foodstuffs. That leaves twelve weeks necessities to be met by importation.

TASTE BETTER THAN THEY SOUND.

Liver, heart, kidneys, tripe and brains are meat by products that should be more in demand. As they cannot be shipped, there is never likelihood of developing a taste which might some day bump up against the food regulations. Try liver for instance, this way: Slice the liver (either beef or lambs') rather thick and pour over boiling water to cover (this draws out the blood;) let stand for three or four minutes, then drain and cool. Roll in seasoned cornmeal and fry until well browned in hot pork fat.

If these foods don't sound good to you—and the anme's the only objection—follow the lead of the high-toned chefs and give them French titles.

Shipment overseas of 75,000,000 bushels of wheat from a supply already more than exhausted early in the year shows the world that the heart of America is in this war through thick and thin.

SCHOOL TOTS EXPRESS THANKS.

Maryland schools will receive some of the letters written by English children to Mr. Hoover in which they express thanks for the food supplies which were sent them out of the voluntary savings of this nation. Each letter is a touching sermon on food thrift.

During the visit of the U. S. Food Administrator to London, piles of these letters were conveyed in two motor-cars to the American Embassy, and a hurriedly arranged deputation of two children was then introduced to Mr. Hoover.

It was explained that the letters formed the children's own heartfelt expressions of gratitude to the great nation which had denied itself to provide us with food.

Mr. Hoover, in his reply, said: "I value these letters very highly, indeed, inasmuch as they will play a very great part in helping us in America to sustain our efforts to keep sending food supplies to our Allies.

"I will very proudly distribute these letters amongst our American schools.

CHOCOLATE FRUIT COOKIES.

(Official Recipe.)

One-quarter cup fat.
Three-quarters cup syrup.
Two tablespoons grated chocolate.
One egg.
One and two-thirds cups barley flour.
One teaspoon baking powder.
One-half cup nutmeats.
One-half cup raisins, chopped fine.

Beat the fat and syrup together thoroughly and add melted chocolate and egg. Add dry ingredients sifted together, then fruit. Drop from spoon on a floured tin and bake in a hot over until brown.

Favored with two pounds of sugar every 30 days, remember the little boy in Ierland who asked his mother: "Mother, don't you pity the poor people who don't have any salt on their potatoes?"
