KIDNEYS WEAKENING? LOOK OUT!

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow slowly, but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1696 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

MRS. RICHARDS SEEKS DIVORCE

Mrs Essie M. Richards has brought suit in the Wilmington city court for a divorce from her husband, Paul J. Richards, on the grounds of cruelty. Mr. and Mrs. Richards are well known in Church Hill and Centreville, having resided in both towns. In the bill asking for the divorce Mrs. Richards states that she was married on June 12, 1899, in Maryland, and that Mr. Richards is addicted to over-indulgence in alchohol. During his periods of intoxication, she avers, he is most abusive and has frequently declared that he would take her life. On one occasion, she states, he entered her room at night, throwing the light from a flashlight upon her and pointing a pistol at her, declaring that "this was her last chance." The case will be heard by Judge Boyce in Room No. 1 of the Wilmington court house.

EVERYTHING NEEDED IN BUILDING

Furniture—the Gift Supreme

Make this a furniture Christmas. Certainly you can select no more practical or sensible gift than something to furnish the home.

And it is lasting, a reminder from year to year of some thoughtfulness and good taste.

Your selection need not be expensive, for here in this big Christmas stock are prices of gift furniture at all prices.

Our stock is big this year, bigger and more attractive than ever before.

And now while stocks are large now is the time to make your selection. You must remember too that all stores have curtailed their shopping hours and in many cases with depleted sales and delivering forces.

Bear these things in mind and you'll realize the wisdom of shopping very early.

NOW is an excellent time to start.

And here, in this big store is an excellent place to start.

Does He Smoke? A Smoking Stand

Here they are, over a hundred different styles of smoking stands—big and little. There is no more intimate or personal gift than a smoking stand, for day in and out it offers convenience to the man who uses it. And not only is it a convenience, but these attractive stands in oak or mahogany add to the home atmosphere of any room. They come in a variety of styles from the simple standing ash receiver (which all good housewives bless) to the more elaborate stand with humidors and tobacco jars and special compartments.

Nearly all are fitted with automatic lighters which do away with the picking up of match sticks. Our Christmas stock is ready and you can select from many styles and in either fumed oak or mahogany. Standing Ash Receivers in oak, mahogany or brass are marked $1.50 to $5.00.

The more elaborate smokers, some fitted with humidors and nearly all with self lighters are marked from $4.00 to $30.00.

A Tea Wagon in the House is an extra servant, not only will it serve tea for the knitting class, but it will bring at one trip your entire meal from the kitchen and carry back the used dishes, a saver of time and many steps. It is useful in many ways—for that before-bedtime lunch or as a bedside table in the sick room. Here are over thirty styles of these useful wagons, in oak mahogany and walnut. Some are in period styles to match your dining room suit—some have convenient drawers for silver—some have drop leaves that when raised form a perfect little tea or lunch table. If you simply can't think of a suitable gift, a tea wagon may solve your problem. They are priced from $12 to $35.

Your Thanksgiving Table

Will look much better with one of these new dinner sets or perhaps a piece of Cut Glass. These dinner sets are of domestic porcelain—100 pieces to the set—and with a variety of decorations. Some have green or blue borders, others a gold decoration. They are priced per set, $25.00, $28.50, $35.00, $45.00 and $55.00.

The new cuttings in glass are here in all dishes. Some prices are:

Olive Dishes, $2.00 to $3.50.
Sugar and Cream, $4.00 to $6.00 per set.
Bowls, $4.75 to $10.00.
Celery Trays, $3.50 to $6.00.
Comports, $3.00 to $6.00.
Flower Vases, $3.00 to $10.00.
Spoon Trays, $3.50 to $6.00.
Footed Nut Bowls, $2.75 to $5.00.

Water Tumblers, $6.00 to $12.00 per dozen.

His Chair

May be it's Dad who would like one of our big comfy chairs for his Xmas gift. Can't you imagine him coming home and dropping into a wide arm chair with his paper, knowing that THIS is HIS chair? Surely, he would appreciate the thoughtfulness of the giver of such a gift. Perhaps it's for somebody "over there." Well, you can't send the chair, but you can have it ready for him when he comes back, ready to sit in and tell the wonderful things he saw and the wonderful things they did. Arm Chairs can be had in hundreds of styles and covers and in willow, wood or upholstered in tapestries or leather and from $10.00 to $140.00.
